EDERLE BEGINS CHANNEL SWIM

'ENGLAND OR DROWN,' HER DEFI TO WAVES

Feels Fit; Sure of Success.

BULLETIN.

CAPE GRIS NEZ, France, Aug. 6.—(AP)—At 8:52 a. m. (3:52 Chicago time), Miss Ederle was swimming fast and making good progress a little to the north of a straight line across the channel from Cape Gris Nez.

The sea was smooth and the weather fairly warm with the temperature at 61.7 degrees Fahrenheit.

At 10 o'clock (5 o'clock Chicago time), the American girl was four miles north by west of Cape Gris Nez, and still making good progress, although the wind at that hour had freshened, creating a slight sea wave. Her position was regarded as favorable.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

CAPE GRIS NEZ, France, Aug. 6, Friday.—[Special.]—Gertrude Ederle, 18 year old New York butcher's daughter, and world's champion woman swimmer, took off from the beach on the Boulogne side of Cape Gris Nez at 7:05 o'clock this morning, [3:05 a. m., Chicago daylight saving time], on her second attempt to swim the English channel.

Conditions were generally favorable for her effort, and far better than marked her first try in mid-August last year at the feat no woman has yet accomplished.

Gertrude Waves Goodby.

Trainer Burgess kissed Ederle on the cheek as she entered the water and the crowd cheered, and Gertrude yelled back and waved goodby as she began swimming a slow even stroke.

Her start was made four hours before high tide at Dover, promising her the benefit of a westering spring tide. The Boulogne fishing tug Alsace, Capt. Joe Costa, with her trainer, Thomas William Burgess; her father, Henry Ederle; her sister, Mrs. Margaret Deuschle; Mrs. Costa, Ishak Helmy, the Egyptian swimmer, and a few others aboard, is accompanying Miss Ederle. She expects to make the crossing in from twelve to fourteen hours. Her course is planned to follow the lines of a giant Z and she hopes to reach England between Folkstone and Dover light.

Miss Lillian Cannon, Baltimore aspirant, was also reported preparing to take off this morning from near Boulogne.

What She Wore.

Entering the water, Gertrude wore a red diving cap and goggles made of one curved piece of yellow glass, short, black silk trunks and a narrow brassiere of navy blue silk on the front of which is sewn a tiny silk American flag and also the emblem of the Women's Swimming association.

The brassiere unties, and, once abreast the channel, she removed it, wearing thereafter only the trunks. Her body was covered first with olive oil, then with a coating of lanolin, which is a thick grease, and also with top layers of vaseline.

From time to time, as the swim progresses, she is to be fed chicken broth, block chocolate, pineapple, block sugar, warm cocoa and grapes. The liquids are contained in curved glass baby bottles with openings at both ends, thus providing against a vacuum and facilitiating her drinking therefrom.

Out to Midchannel.

This year she hopes not to go so far down the channel on the first tide and to straighten out towards mid-channel. Then on the second tide she expects to go far north towards the Goodwin light and toward England. If she meets with the best of luck in this attempt by the ninth hour she will have reached the Goodwin sands, a shoal region south and east of Dover, and will thus be able to reach the English coast on the third tide.

Ederle is marveling at the endurance displayed by Clarabelle Barrett, the New York woman, who remained in the water nearly 22 hours in her unsuccessful attempt early this week, and has declared that in her try she would succeed or swim until she lost consciousness from exhaustion and cold.

"England or drown," is my motto, said Gertrude with a laugh before going to bed. "I could never face people at home again unless I had got across." And this morning as she started she said: "I feel as if I could lick Jack Dempsey."

LEONARD KEELING KILLED HUNTING; SUICIDE HINTED

Leonard Keeling of Chicago, wealthy son of the founder of the Humiston-Keeling Wholesale Drug company here, was shot accidentally and killed while hunting near Eagle River, Wis., on Wednesday, it was learned yesterday.

Mr. Keeling, who had been a partner in the drug firm until a year ago, was staying with friends at the summer resort. According to a message received by his uncle, William H. Keeling, 127 South Euclid avenue, Oak Park, from Attorney Albert Charles, Keeling was killed when a gun he was carrying was accidentally discharged.

Other reports from Eagle River, however, indicated that Mr. Keeling had committed suicide while despondent. The reports were that he had been acting strangely for several days and had purchased a revolver from an Eagle River hardware store.

THREE KILLED BY DRY AGENTS IN FLORIDA FIGHT

Homestead, Fla., Aug. 5.—(AP)—Three men were shot and killed this afternoon in a battle with seven federal prohibition agents on the Cape Sable road, 13 miles from Royal Palm State park. None of the federal men was injured.

The dead are: M. P. Merritt, former constable; Clyde Parrish, son of a former policeman; and J. A. Brinson of Homestead.

Reports here were that the federal men were returning from a series of raids in the Everglades and that the three men opened fire from a pursuing machine. The federal officers, riding in closed cars, killed them in an exchange without suffering injury. They declined to divulge their names.

Merritt was removed from office recently by Gov. John W. Martin, and the father of Parrish recently was discharged from the Homestead police force by order of the mayor.

Auto Thief Tries to Shoot Detectives Arresting Him

When Detectives Thomas Durkin and Fred Hinkins of the bureau yesterday went to arrest John Kordak, 22, automobile thief, at 31st street and Emerald avenue, Kordak jerked out a revolver but Durkin twisted the weapon out of his hand before he could shoot. Kordak, known also as Novak and as "Little Jack," later confessed he had stolen 25 to 50 cars in the last six months. His confession involved Laddie and Joseph Soukup, garage owners of 2824 South Clifton Park avenue, in the disposal of the cars.

Heat Routed After 15 Die; Returns Today

Lake Michigan, Chicago's best summertime friend, came to the rescue of the sweltering city late yesterday afternoon with a brisk onshore breeze which in two hours forced the mercury down seventeen degrees, from 91 to 74.

There was a further drop of five degrees, an unofficial minimum of 69 being recorded at 1 o'clock this morning. But the relief will be short lived, according to the official weather bureau forecast. Today will be partly cloudy and warmer. Henry J. Cox, senior meteorologist, stated that he would not be surprised to see the thermometer working up into the nineties again. Saturday, however, is to be fair and cooler, he promises.

Ten Deaths in Day.

Ten deaths, attributed wholly or in part to the excessive heat and humidity yesterday, brought the total in Chicago for two days to fifteen. On Wednesday three deaths followed prostrations and two boys were drowned. Numerous prostrations that did not result in death occurred yesterday and fifteen persons were reported bitten by heat crazed dogs.

Conditions along the shores of Lake Michigan are unusual for August, Mr. Cox said last night.

"Ordinarily there would be no onshore breeze of considerable proportions at this season," he asserted. "But the lake water is much colder than normal at this date and the water-cooled air is able to push back the warmer winds from the interior. However, this breeze is purely local and the territory back from the lake is still under a heat blanket."

West and East Swelter.

Today's winds, in the forecaster's opinion, will be from the south, but will shift to the northwest tomorrow. High temperatures prevailed in many parts of the middle west and southwest yesterday, and the highest readings in the east also exceeded 90 in some cities. At Concordia, Kas., the mercury touched 106. At Kansas City the high was 100, at Oklahoma City 100, St. Louis 94, and Wichita, Kas., 104. Washington's 92 was highest in the east.

Prostrated, Falls to Death.

The death of Patrick McGonigle, 38 years old, 7619 South Aberdeen street, was one of those attributed in part to the heat. He was at work on the second floor of a building under construction at 200 West Walton place when he was overcome by the heat and fell to the ground, fracturing his skull. He died at Alexian Brothers' hospital.

Others who died yesterday were Howard Kramer, 18 months old, 1317 Otto street; Marshal Walker, colored, 420 East 48th street; John Donnelly, 74 years old, 715 Boston avenue; Daniel Sasuta, 50 years old, an employé of the Chicago and Western Indiana railroad; Mrs. Mary Fath, 68 years old, 4347 Milwaukee avenue; Kazimir Stdiski, 50 years old, 4759 South Lincoln street; Eugene Barmer, 14 months old, colored, 101 West 47th street; Ernest Rosenkranz, 60 years old, 4220 South Talman avenue, and John R. Husar, 55 years old, 1709 South Peoria street.

Heart disease, aggravated by the heat, was the explanation given for these fatalities.

DENTIST SEIZES YOUTH STEALING GOLD FOR FILLINGS

When Dr. John H. Hospers, dentist, stepped into an elevator in the Marshall Field Annex last night he had an instinctive feeling there was something wrong in his office, Room 1770. He went back. He found a tall young man going through his desk and cabinets in which he keeps his gold for fillings.

The dentist started out for a policeman, but faced a .45 caliber automatic.

"Not so fast, doctor, just wait!" the young man said.

Dr. Hospers twisted the revolver from his grasp, made him sit down and telephoned for the police. The intruder gave his name as Cecil G. Graham, 20, of Shreveport, La.

REPORT 11 SLAIN AS RELIGIOUS BATTLE SPREADS

Calles Warns Peru's Chief: 'Hands Off!'

BY JOHN CORNYN.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

[Copyright: 1926: By The Chicago Tribune.]

Mexico City, Aug. 5.—One unidentified man has been killed and eight persons wounded in a clash between Catholics and troops at Torreon, dispatches just received here announce.

The battle started when more than 1,000 persons, most of them members of the Catholic Women's league, overwhelmed the police while staging a demonstration Sunday in protest against the arrest of Señora Lainez Trevino, president of the league. Señora Trevino was arrested on a charge of having used violent language against the mayor when he forbade her to conduct the parade of Catholic women as a protest against the religious laws.

Troops Charge Crowd.

The dispatches from Torreon say that when the women got beyond control of police federal soldiers were called with orders to effect a peaceable dispersal of the crowd if possible. The soldiers fired into the air and the crowd of fully 3,000 which had gathered about the women threw themselves furiously on the soldiers, who were led by the commander of the military forces at the military encampment, Gen. Contrerras. The soldiers were mauled and stoned and some of them were unhorsed.

After 200 shots were fired in the air the soldiers charged the mob, which finally fled in disorder. In the stampede the one man was killed and eight persons injured.

Excitement is running high at Torreon and other encounters are feared.

Report Other Killings.

Other reports reaching here tell of further fatal clashes between churchmen and authorities. It is now reported that six persons were slain in the clash between Catholics and government supporters at Guadalajara.

It is reported that a priest was slain at Zadotitlan, in the state of Zacatecas, by the government authorities, and that a crowd of churchmen then took revenge by killing the mayor.

An unconfirmed report from Irapuato says that a Protestant woman was beheaded by a crowd of excited Catholics. Police killed one of the leaders of a crowd at Cuernavaca which tried to resist the officers when they came to close a church.

"Don't Butt In!" Calles Says.

President Calles has notified President Agusto B. Leguia of Peru not to interfere in the affairs of Mexico in reply to a telegram from the Peruvian executive on July 29 asking President Calles to comply with "the high duty of bending your strong will for the re-establishment of harmony between the Mexican government and church and avoiding calamities worse than war." President Leguia is a strong Catholic.

President Calles' reply follows in part:

"I can only take the message of your excellency as the expression of a purely personal opinion which in no way signifies the mixing of the affairs of a foreign nation with affairs solely belonging to the domestic government of my country. Let me inform your excellency that in this case you are badly informed on the attitude of my government toward the Catholic clergy; otherwise, your good sense would have seen that the right is on the side of the Mexican government.

Assails the Clergy.

"In the present case the clergy are following the traditional conduct, which, it is well known in our history, has brought such mighty calamities on the nation, and with their determined opposition to the evolution, social and political, taking place in the country these days, are endeavoring once more to stem the invincible current of these transformations.

"The clergy have made public declarations of the rejection of the laws and constitution and proclaimed a rebellious attitude. The attitude of the clergy is intolerable, not only to nations of advanced political development, as Mexico, but to all countries, even centuries ago, as history testifies. Even their most Catholic majesties and those fanatically Catholic refused to permit the dominion of the pope's Rome governments."

K. OF C. CALLS ON COOLIDGE TO ACT IN MEXICAN ROW

Philadelphia, Pa., Aug. 5.—(AP)—Asserting that Mexican officials had "insulted, degraded, and expelled American citizens, men and women, under circumstances that are abhorrent to our conception of constitutional government," the supreme council, Knights of Columbus, today called upon President Coolidge and the state department to "put an end to this ignominious contempt that has been shown by President Calles for American appeals."

Demand was made for protection of American citizens and that they be treated with the same consideration and respect that is shown to Mexicans in this country.

The American Federation of Labor and affiliated organizations were urged to coöperate to safeguard "not only American rights but the hard won victories of labor itself to protect it from servile submission to despotic authority."

At the same time the convention authorized the supreme board of directors to assess the membership of the organization $1,000,000 for a campaign of education "to the end that the politics of soviet Russia shall be eliminated from the philosophy of American life and the ideals of liberty of conscience and democratic freedom may extend to our afflicted fellow human beings beyond the Rio Grande."

The religious situation in Mexico as it affects the Catholic church was considered one of the most important questions before the convention and had been under consideration since it convened last Monday. A special committee appointed to consider the matter, reported today and its report was unanimously adopted.

"The Knights of Columbus . . . hereby solemnly aver that we would be neglectful of our duty if we did not register an unqualified protest against the policy of President Calles upon his recent despotic use of the armed forces of his military régime in oppressing the vast majority of the people of Mexico who are struggling for the right to worship God according to the dictates of their conscience," the statement said.

"We call the attention of the American government to remind it that the representatives of Calles have insulted and degraded and expelled American citizens, men and women, under circumstances that are abhorrent to our conception of constitutional government. The fundamental rights guaranteed by our constitution and so dear to the hearts of Americans are unknown to the despotic power that is dominating Mexico, or to a so-called constitution that was forced upon the Mexican people at the point of the gun.

"We warn our fellow American citizens that they cannot endure at their very doorstep with impunity the Russianizing of Mexico. The soviet philosophy controls the military powers of Mexico. The family to them is a myth and marriage a degradation. They have robbed it of its sanctity. Their conception of God is contempt for all religions."

CHICAGOAN PINS "HUMBUG" TAG ON "GLAND WIZARD"

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

STOCKHOLM, Aug. 5.—Prof. Voronoff, erstwhile famous rejuvenation expert, was charged today with being a fashionable "quack." The University of Chicago professor, Dr. Anton J. Carlson, made the charge at the physiologists' congress here today. He denounced Prof. Voronoff as a humbug, characterizing as loose and unsound his hypotheses as well as their scientific results. He charged Prof. Voronoff was an advertiser of rejuvenation methods.

The only evidence for Prof. Voronoff's 1,100 gland rejuvenation operations consisted of four old photographs which were shown before the Edinburgh congress of 1923, Dr. Carlson said.

When Prof. Voronoff began to relate his experiments with the organs of the female chimpanzee Prof. Carlson arose and characterized as humbug a rejuvenation scheme giving such poor results as those attained by Prof. Voronoff. The whole congress applauded Dr. Carlson's statement, and he was supported by the famous Prague scholar, Prof. Diedel, and Prof. Wiesner of Berlin, Prof. Steinach's collaborator.

Dr. Anton J. Carlson is head of the physiology department at the University of Chicago and for several years has been a close student of gland transplantation.

BARE DRY FUND OF $180,000 IN SLUSH INQUIRY

BY OSCAR HEWITT.

The senate committee adjourned its Illinois slush fund hearings yesterday afternoon after disclosing more than $965,000 expended in the senatorial and Cook county campaigns and about $45,000 by the Anti-Saloon league between Jan. 1 and the date of the primary, April 13. Expenditures of the league for the year ending April 30 were about $180,000. Better Government association expenditure was put at from $15,000 to $20,000.

No statement whatsoever was obtained regarding the funds of the Small-Lundin faction. A subpoena, issued for Percy B. Coffin of that organization was unserved; but Senator Reed announced that he, as well as other unheard witnesses, will be heard later.

Insull Attorney Balks.

Senators Reed and LaFollette struck a snag in the last hour of the session when Daniel J. Schuyler, Insull attorney, declined to tell whether he had handled any Insull campaign cash other than Insull's $33,000 spent in propaganda against the world court and a direct Schuyler contribution of $3,600 to Frank L. Smith. He refused to say whether he had given for Mr. Insull a considerable sum to any local campaign, claiming it was beyond the jurisdiction of the committee to ask.

Mr. Schuyler was told he would be reported to the United States senate for contempt. Sailing in the same boat are Samuel Insull, utility executive, State's Attorney Robert E. Crowe and Thomas W. Cunningham of Philadelphia. The local inquiry went along without refusals until Mr. Insull took his stand. Then Mr. Crowe and Mr. Schuyler followed.

Drys Spent $180,000 in Year.

George B. Safford, superintendent of the Illinois Anti-Saloon league since last Jan. 1, explained the workings of that organization with more detail than did Wayne B. Wheeler explain the national Anti-Saloon league machinery in Washington. Mr. Safford said that the Illinois league collected $180,000 in the year ending April 30, and he estimated that $45,000 was spent during the primary campaign period. Mr. Safford denied that the league had taken any part in the senatorial contest before the primary but had done considerable work in legislative districts. On this he estimated the league had spent $10,000 or $12,000.

Morris Eller, republican boss of the Twentieth ward, talked freely and frankly to the senators. He admitted readily that gunmen, sluggers and others with criminal records have operated in that ward and charged that some of them were judges and clerks of election.

"We did not have them before Mr. Jarecki was county judge and Anthony Czarnecki was an election commissioner," said Eller. "They are responsible. The Deneen-Lundin combination selected the judges and clerks for the last primary—not I—and they were approved by Jarecki and Czarnecki."

A Wonderful Organization.

"You have something of an organization in your ward," Senator Reed asked Morris Eller.

"Oh yes, a wonderful organization," said Eller, "I have been in politics for 35 years and we have a wonderful organization—the best in Chicago."

Q. How is it composed? A. Of my friends and job holders.

Q. How many jobs have you credited to your organization? A. I would say 52 or 53.

Q.—Any of your family on the payroll. A.—Yes.

Q.—How many. A.—Six, but not from my ward—all over Chicago.

Q.—You were for Frank L. Smith and the Crowe-Barrett ticket. A.—All the way through.

A Melting Pot Ward.

Mr. Eller than volunteered the following explanation of how his organization works:

"I have lived in the same neighborhood 43 years and have been in politics there for 35 years. The ward is cosmopolitan, what they call the melting pot. We have Jews, Russians, Croatians, Lithuanians, Germans, Irish, and colored. They are not very prosperous and need our help a little. If it is not one thing it is another. We are helping people 24 hours a day and 365 days a year and when a primary or election comes around, I generally print a specimen ballot for our group and naturally we get pretty near a unanimous vote from the Republicans. My committee men and their assistants mingle with the people every day."

Q.—What help do you give? A.—My people are working people. Sometimes they are summoned as jurors and they cannot afford to lose their jobs. I may go to the judge and ask him to excuse such people. I get them a lot of peddlers' permits free of charge so they can make a dollar of a dollar and a half a day.

Defends His People in Trouble.

Q.—When they get into trouble what do you do? A.—They don't get into trouble; haven't time; but when some of them are arrested for disorderly conduct in a clothes line fight, I get them a bond and ask a lawyer friend to defend them.

Q.—How much money was spent in your ward primary day? A.—I received $25 a precinct from Mr. Galpin and I have 24 precincts. Then my friends raised some money for me personally. That was between $5,500 and $6,000, because I was a candidate for drainage trustee.

Q.—It turns out there was a good deal of miscounting the votes in your ward? A.—If there was some miscounting, it was not my fault, but it is only the fault of two men, and that is Judge Jarecki and Commissioner Czarnecki. They are the ones at fault.

ELLER DENIES BLAME

In reply to Senator Reed's request for an explanation, Mr. Eller said:

"Our organization did not get a judge or clerk of election. Though I am the duly elected ward committeeman, I did not get a judge or a clerk of election. They gave them to the Lundin-Deneen organization in the ward. That happened two years ago. They selected as judges and clerks ex-convicts, confirmed criminals, and other disreputable men, importing them from all over Chicago and putting them in my ward.

"I went to Jarecki and Czarnecki and complained. My son, the judge, went and complained and told them the kind of judges they were selecting. They said they were going to investigate and remedy that, but they served. A good many of our people—I would say 60 per cent—are illiterate. They have to be instructed. That is why I get out the specimen ballot, because if it were left to the judges and clerks I know I would not get a square deal.

Tells of Ballot Steal.

"I got a couple of colored men in my organization and told them to go in these precincts a couple of years ago at the primary and tell the judges they could neither read nor write and wanted to be instructed. They went in as requested. Instead of two judges going in, as required by law, one judge, appointed by Jarecki and Czarnecki, went into the voting booths. The colored man said, 'I want to vote for Senator McCormick.' The ballot was marked for Deneen. Then the colored man said, 'I want to vote for Essington for governor.' His ballot was marked for Small."

"Fixed the vote for Small, is that what you mean?" interjected Senator Reed.

"Yes, and the colored man grabbed the judge by the hand and cried: 'You robbed me of my ballot you did not mark the ballot the way I wanted to vote.' He held the judge's hand so that he could not deposit the ballot in the ballot box. I was there on the job and we called Czarnecki over and Czarnecki fooled around there and said, 'O, that is nothing but a mistake.'

Waited for Hours.

"I got a policeman and took the judge over to Judge Jarecki about 9 o'clock in the morning and we waited for hours to see the judge. About noon Mr. Fleming, attorney for the election commissioners, came along and I explained to him. He went to Judge Jarecki and he came out. We made our statements and the judge could not deny them. He said after listening: 'You cannot serve any more at the polls. Go home, go home.' That is all he did. Jarecki and Czarnecki were instrumental in defeating Senator McCormick two years ago.

"We complained that Jarecki and Czarnecki selected and appointed gunmen and confirmed criminals as judges and clerks of election. We complained, but nevertheless they were selected, and that was the consequence. We were robbed of our vote."

Q.—You say that these judges and clerks selected by Judge Czarnecki belonged to the Deneen faction? A.—Lundin and Deneen.

Blames Diamond Joe.

Q.—How did it happen that all the mistakes in your ward were made in favor of Smith, when Deneen was supporting McKinley? A.—Diamond Joe Esposito, the 100 per cent they call him. He robbed us of 80 per cent of our vote. The people are with us. If you let the people vote the way they want to, between 95 and 98 per cent will vote for us.

Q.—You were for Smith, were you not? A.—Yes, and so were Deneen's men for Smith.

"Deneen was for McKinley," asserted Senator Reed emphatically without any qualification.

"Lundin and Deneen were both for Smith in our ward," asserted Eller equally positively.

Q.—Has Lundin got an organization? A.—Yes. His man's name is Harry Hockstein in my ward.

Q.—Was he active in the last campaign? A.—Very active.

"We are astounded, because we heard Mr. Lundin the other day, and as near as we could make it out he was a mere onlooker in Venice," remarked Senator Reed.

"It was the Lundin-Deneen organization in my ward. We call it that," said Mr. Eller.

Attacks Jarecki's Statement.

Q.—You say it corrupted the ballot? A.—I don't know whether it did, but I'm telling you the conditions there which we found. I came from Mackinac Island this morning to be a witness and I saw a paper which said that Jarecki said that Madigan brothers were freed by Judge Eller, son of Morris Eller, political boss of the twentieth ward. Either Judge Jarecki is ignorant of criminal proceedings or he deliberately told you a falsehood. The Madigan brothers were tried by a jury of 12 men and they brought out a verdict of not guilty. They were not freed by Judge Eller, my son.

Q.—Were they tried in his court? A.—Yes.

"My recollection is that Judge Jarecki said it was a tried by jury," said Senator Reed. "You have a right to make your statement."

"I am very much grieved over it," said Eller. "I know my son makes a right judge and is fair with every one."

No Poll Trouble, He Says.

Q.—Were there any disturbance in your ward primary day? A.—Not that I know of.

Q.—You did not see any? A.—I saw in the papers that Judge Jarecki said that gunmen operated in my ward. The only gunmen I saw were judges and clerks of election, whom he selected.

Asked for a list of persons appointed judges and clerks who were not residents of the ward or were gunmen or sluggers, Mr. Eller promised to prepare such a list. He did so, giving it to the committee later.

Eller Lists Polls Officials to Back Charges Against Jarecki

Morris Eller, boss of the 20th ward, charged in his testimony before the senate committee yesterday that County Judge Jarecki and Election Commissioner Czarnecki were responsible for ballot thievery in his ward because, he said, they appointed gunmen, sluggers, and other persons not residents of his ward as judges and clerks at the polls. On the request of Senator Reed for the names of such poll officials, Mr. Eller submitted the following list of names and alleged records:

1st precinct — Mike Alegrette, 557 Bunker street, Republican judge; has long police record; does not reside at 557. The house is occupied by Frank Kubu, Republican clerk.

3d precinct — C. De Vauna, 747 De Koven street, Republican judge, signed application for judge while serving in Bridewell. Has long police record and does not reside at 747 De Koven nor in ward.

6th precinct—Alex R. Price. Republican judge, 1224 Blue Island avenue. Not there. This is the residence of Samuel Heller, Deneen committeeman.

9th precinct—N. C. Grossman, Republican judge, 1259 South Halsted street. Not there. Resides at Homan and Lexington, 5th precinct of the 29th ward.

10th precinct—Jack Wise, 1251 South Union street; Republican judge; labor slugger; has police record. Not in the ward.

20th precinct—Louis Grossman, 965 West 18th place, home of Harry Hochstein. Not in the ward. Phone number on his application is that of St. Patrick's church. Acted as Republican clerk.

24th precinct—Sol J. Vision, Republican judge, 612 Maxwell street. Not in the ward. Has a long police record. Runs a disorderly resort at Clark and Illinois streets. Cases pending in court at present time. Arrested six times in 1925.

The Election Board's Reply.

Chief Clerk John S. Rusch of the election commission issued a statement last night concerning Eller's list in which he said:

"The election commissioners' records show that Morris Eller gave names of persons who did not serve at all in the list which he supplied to the senate investigators.

"Carmen Devanna, 747 De Koven street, listed by Eller in the Third precinct, did not serve as judge, the records prove. The same is true of Henry E. Sasso.

"The records show that no such person as Alex R. Price served as judge of election in the Fifth precinct, but they do show that an Alex R. Price, whose address is given as 1224 Blue Island avenue, did serve as Republican judge of the Sixth precinct.

"The records show that no such person as N. C. Grossman served as a Republican judge in the Ninth precinct from 1259 South Halsted street.

"Louis L. Gould, 1330 South Jefferson street, listed by Eller in the Eleventh precinct, and Sol J. Vesion, 612 Maxwell street, listed in the Twenty-fourth precinct, did not serve, the records show. The same is true of A. E. Shyer, 612 Maxwell street, listed by Eller in the Twenty-fourth precinct.

Affidavits Are Cited.

"The records show that Mike Alegreti, residing at 557 Bunker street, served as a Republican judge in the Second precinct. In his sworn affidavit he stated that he was never indicted or convicted for any offense.

"Jack Wise, 1251 South Union street, did not serve as Republican judge of election in the Tenth district. His sworn affidavit states that he is a chauffeur and that he was never indicted or convicted of any crime.

"William Kaplan, 1347 South Peoria street, served as Republican judge in the Twelfth precinct. His sworn affidavit states that he is a salesman and that he was never indicted or convicted of crime.

"Louis Grossman, 965 West 18th place, served in the Twentieth precinct. In his sworn affidavit he states that he is a salesman.

"The records show that before selection of judges and clerks, the board, in wards like the Twentieth, where bad political conditions notoriously prevailed for years, made special inquiries and used special means to prevent any unfit person from serving."

SCHUYLER'S TESTIMONY

The novelty of defying the committee had been worn off by Mr. Insull, Mr. Crowe, and Mr. Cunningham, but the refusal of Mr. Schuyler to answer questions excited considerable interest.

Mr. Schuyler said he had been a lawyer for Mr. Insull for 15 or 16 years, and then Senator Reed started:

Q.—Did you contribute any money in the last primary in Illinois? A.—Yes. I gave $2,500 to the campaign of Frank L. Smith.

Q.—Did you give any other moneys in that campaign? A.—Yes. I paid $1,100 in bills for a meeting which was held in the Eighth regiment armory. It was a meeting against the world court and Frank L. Smith spoke at that meeting. That was my own money.

Q.—Anything else? A.—You mean of my own?

Q.—Yes. A.—No; that is all I can recall so far as I am concerned.

Declines to Answer.

Q.—For all political purposes? A.—As far as any other political purposes are concerned, senator, I shall respectfully have to decline to answer.

Q.—Did you handle anybody else's money? A.—Yes, sir. I spent in the colored district $4,500 of Mr. Insull's money. I gave $3,500 of that to A. B. Messer and Frank Summers. Mr. Summers is colored. I also gave $1,000 to George Kersey, who is colored.

Q.—Anything more? A.—I spent $2,330.85 for straight advertising in foreign language newspapers. That was also Mr. Insull's money.

Q.—For what? A.—For Frank Smith.

Q.—Then what other moneys did you handle? A.—I turned over from time to time during the primary, probably in four months, $26,904.34.

Q.—Whom did you turn it over to? A.—To Mr. Messer, who was handling the foreign language newspapers.

Q.—You have indicated that you gave other moneys than those you have spoken of. A.—No.

Q.—To whom did this money go? I want to know whether it went to a committee? A.—What money?

Q.—The money you handled. A.—I did not say that I handled any.

Q.—Did you pay it to a committee or a committeeman? A.—That I shall have to decline to answer. I have told you about all the moneys that I collected and disbursed.

Reed Gives Rebuke.

Q.—You and some other gentlemen here think you know the scope of the authority of this committee and that you have a right to put your construction upon it. Did you not receive from Mr. Insull substantial sums of money which were employed in the primary in Illinois held April 13 last? A.—I have told you about all the money that I received and expended in the senatorial campaign, and further than that I shall respectfully have to decline to answer.

Q.—I do not intend to pursue this farther than to say that of course you understand the situation. A.—Yes.

"It will be our duty to report the facts to the senate. That is all, sir," concluded Senator Reed. The usual thanks were missing.

DRYS ON THE STAND

Then came E. J. Davis, formerly superintendent of the Anti-Saloon league for Cook county, but now superintendent of the Better Government association.

"What is that association?" asked Senator Reed.

"It is an organization formed of good citizens to help elect better officials as they analyze them," was the reply.

Mr. Davis went on to say that the league has been in existence for three years, is incorporated as a nonprofit, making, nonpartisan organization, and has about 5,000 members.

Q.—What is the organization's income. A—About $40,000 a year, perhaps $45,000 or $46,000 this year.

Q.—What part did the Better Government association take in the recent primary. A.—None outside of Cook county.

Q.—Did you endorse any one for United States senator? A.—No.

Endorsed Judge Trude.

Q.—Who did you endorse for county offices. A—Judge Trude for county judge and John F. Devine for county treasurer.

Q.—What does your association do to make your endorsements effective. A.—They are published in the newspapers. We get as much volunteer work done as possible, have meetings, deliver speeches, and print a monthly bulletin.

Q.—Did you spend any money in the primary other than in the way you have indicated? A.—No, sir.

Q.—How much money did you spend in that way? A.—I should think $15,000 or $20,000.

Q.—Do you have any connection or affiliations with any regular political organizations? A.—None; we are entirely independent.

Q.—For whom did you vote for senator? A.—For Senator McKinley.

Q.—It has been reported to us that your organization generally supported Mr. McKinley. Is that a fact? A.—No, it is not. We took no part whatever in that campaign. We were neutral.

League's Funds in Detail.

George B. Safford, superintendent of the Illinois Anti-Saloon league, submitted early in his testimony a statement of the receipts and expenditures for the year ending April 30 last. It follows:

RECEIPTS.
Cash on hand May 1, 1925		$ 1,336.63
Inc. from meetgs.	$100,320.24
Spec. subscriptions	77,707.47
Bills payable—loans	500.00
Auto & bicycle sold	449.07	$178,976.78
	$178,976.78	$180,313.41

DISBURSEMENTS.
Salaries of supt. and field force	$ 77,024.38
Traveling and field expense	23,007.53
Salaries of clerical force	22,640.70
Ptg., stationery and advertising	5,708.84
Office supplies and expense	1,512.77

Bills payable—loans paid	1,300.00
	$180,002.92
Cash on hand and in banks April 30, 1926	$ 310.49

The superintendent gave the names of the officers and some of the directors of the organization and explained its methods and its relation to the national Anti-Saloon league. The purpose of the questions of Senator Reed, appeared to be to get admissions that the league uses about the same methods to gain its objects that political organizations use. Finally after more than an hour of questioning Senator Reed asked:

"So that as a matter of fact you have just the same machinery of the ordinary political party, except that you would not want to accept all of their methods?".

Uses Political Methods.

"I presume the thing to say about that, Senator, is that when you are driven into the political field to accomplish what you want, what you are working for, you have to work the way it is worked."

"Exactly," commented Reed, "and I suppose that any Republican, Democrat or Socialist would make the same answer."

"Probably," said Mr. Safford.

It is on the answer to this question that those who have followed the Anti-Saloon league inquiry in Washington expect that Senator Reed will win his purpose of requiring the Anti-Saloon league to make a report of its expenditures.

Q.—You made no campaign for either Mr. Smith nor Mr. McKinley? A.—No, both of them were acceptable.

Q.—What other part did you take in the campaign for senator? asked Reed. A.—Nothing whatever.

Q.—Nothing with reference to Mr. Brennan? A.—I thought you referred to the Republican candidates.

Q.—Didn't you send out a letter attacking Brennan? A.—Not before the primary, if my memory serves me right. The letter went out after the primary.

Q.—He was in the primary, wasn't he? He was wet, you assumed? A.—He did not leave us much to assume on that subject, said Mr. Safford.

Q.—How much money did your organization spend in Illinois between Jan. 1 and April 13? A.—I have no exact figures, but perhaps $45,000.

Q.—You have lecturers going about the state preparing the grounds? A.—Yes.

Q.—What do they receive? A.—$40 to $50 a week.

Q.—What is your salary? A.—That is not within the scope of your inquiry, but it is $6,000 a year.

Q.—What primary work did you do? A.—We did some work on legislative candidates."

Q.—How much was spent on that? A.—On a guess, $10,000 or $12,000.

Q.—To whom did you turn over this $10,000 or $12,000. A.—We never turn over money to individuals. I gave you a guess on our expenses which might be charged to the primary.

MORRISSON LETTER

Mrs. James W. Morrisson, who was attacked in testimony taken early in the hearing, sent a letter yesterday from Montreal, which was placed in the record. She denied that she was a member of the McKinley Woman's committee. Her work was getting speakers to explain the world court to women's clubs, she said, and Senator McKinley's supporters contributed nothing toward expenses. She said she personally paid the cost.

Allen F. Moore, campaign manager for Frank L. Smith, also submitted a long statement defending the Smith collections and disbursements. This says that all the money "was contributed voluntarily."

Under the primary system, the statement says, "expenditure of considerable money is absolutely necessary for success." Mr. Moore gives the cost of one letter to all the voters as $150,000, and the cost of one auto and one worker at each polling place is estimated at another $150,000. He lists other legitimate expenses at $250,000, making a "total which might be legitimately spent of $550,000."

Frank L. Smith took the witness stand to present his written statement, of which a summary was printed in THE TRIBUNE yesterday. Senator Re wanted to know if the Illinois commerce commission, of which Mr. Sm is chairman, does not have to app of new stock and bond issues of uti ties. The candidate replied in the affirmative.

"Did you have direct or indirect information during the primary that Mr. Insull had contributed to your cam paign?" asked Senator Reed.

"No direct information," replied Mr. Smith. "I knew about it generally in an indirect way. It was common talk."

"Did you deny it?"

"I said in a speech, if Mr. Insull wanted to contribute to my campaign after I had reduced his rates more than $38,000,000, I saw no objection to it."

Crowds See Fire Wreck Old Commission House in Loop

A spectacular fire last night in an old commission house at 319-323 North Dearborn street, one of the vacant structures doomed to be wrecked and replaced by a new building to face on Wacker drive, attracted a crowd of thousands, who seriously interfered with the firemen. Patrons of the Selwyn and several other theaters became alarmed, and some rushed to the streets. The two upper floors of the four story building were destroyed. The loss was estimated at $2,000.

Ruling Today on Pension in Police Death by Auto

Judge John J. Sullivan in the Superior court will decide today whether a policeman, killed by an automobile while on the way to mail a letter ordering music for the police band, to which he belonged, died "in the line of duty." The question arose yesterday in arguments in the case of Mrs. Daniel J. Donovan, widow of a policeman, who petitioned for a writ of mandamus awarding her a full pension of $125 a month. On the ground that Donovan was not on duty when killed the pension board had reduced the amount to $12.50.

COLONIAL GLASSES

Most Attractive of All Styles—Universally Adopted.

Today it is quite evident that fastidious people are as careful in the selection of eyeglasses as they are in the choice of their attire.

Colonial glasses are the vogue because of their becoming shapes and their unusual ability to blend with the wearer's personality. Colonial glasses have completely supplanted the heavy shell style for street and dress wear. The heavy shell glasses, however, still serve their purpose for library use or for sports wear. It is interesting to know that Schulte has originated and sponsors these new Colonial glasses . . . having foreseen the trend of the public's desire for glasses of this character.

SEEKS M'SWIGGIN MURDER CLEWS IN CICERO VOTES

McDonald Holds Woman for Story to Jurors.

Orders were given yesterday to open the Cicero ballot boxes Monday and immediately the hope was expressed that the solution of the McSwiggin murder may come therefrom.

Special State's Attorney Charles A. McDonald saw his big opportunity in ripping wide open the secrets buried in those ballot boxes. If, as is expected, fraud in the April primary is shown, McDonald will be the wielder of two big clubs.

Judges and clerks may be compelled to testify against bosses to save themselves from jail. Minor bosses may choose to talk to save themselves.

Seeks Secrets of Insiders.

"If we get them talking about election crookedness we will get them talking about the spoils of the election," Prosecutor McDonald said. "If, as we believe, the stakes in that election were beer privileges, gambling privileges and vice privileges, we may be able to prove it.

"If we can prove that, we create a situation in which many will be willing to tell on each other to save themselves. And if the underlings ever start confessing we may get the murderers of McSwiggin!"

The presumption is that mishandling of votes as found to have occurred in certain Chicago wards occurred also in Cicero.

The procedure thus far in Chicago wards where the recount showed different results to those certified by the judges and clerks has been to cite the judges and clerks for contempt and to summon them before the special grand jury. Where they have refused to tell the why of vote thefts they have been indicted and, in addition, brought before the County court for contempt.

Says Fraud Was Ordered.

The first break in the stonewall defense of silence came yesterday when Charles Stahulak, 4554 Gross avenue, an election clerk, had the alternatives of jail or the truth. He told of being ordered to give Daniel P. Trude 260 votes and Joseph Savage 30 votes in the Republican County judgeship contest, without any reference to the crosses actually on the ballots.

A recent Supreme court decision says an election official may be sent to jail by the County judge and also to the penitentiary by a jury for the same offense; that the one punishment is not a bar to the other.

Prosecutor McDonald said he will ask Judge Jarecki to give six month sentences to every Cicero offender and that indictments and trials will be awaiting them when the six months is up—unless they reveal the entire system of politics that prevailed in Cicero up to the McSwiggin murder.

Feel Election Holds Clews.

Throughout the four months of grand jury investigations there has run the opinion that McSwiggin was killed because of what happened in Cicero on election day. The aftermath of the murder was the exposure of corruption in Cicero with the name of Al Brown, alias Scarface Caponi, appearing as the chief of it all.

The primary was on April 13. Caponi dominated Cicero in the election returns, if not in the casting of the votes. On April 27, Assistant State's Attorney William H. McSwiggin was killed in Cicero, while with James J. Doherty, a beer boss, and Thomas Duffy, both of whom were killed.

The evidence tended to the belief —and it was and is the belief of Chicago police officials—that the three were killed in a plot to exterminate the O'Donnell gang, of which Doherty and Duffy were members. If the Cicero police had any belief they did not bring it with them to the grand jury room.

Sees Chance to Learn Facts.

"So," said Prosecutor McDonald, "our chance to get the facts of the murder rests with the judges and clerks of election. If they did the wrongful bidding of others they must tell all about it or be sent to jail by Judge Jarecki and then again stand trial in the Criminal court.

"If we get all the facts about the election we'll get all the facts about the beer-gambling-vice business there. Then the murder investigation should be easy."

The Cicero recount does not start until Monday. In preparation for it Prosecutor McDonald has been calling witnesses all this week from Cicero. Yesterday he caused the arrest of Miss Pearl Hruby, proprietor of a beauty parlor in Cicero that was riddled with machine gun bullets a few days before the same kind of a weapon was loosed on McSwiggin, Doherty and Duffy. Mr. McDonald charged her with perjury and said she will be indicted today unless she tells all she knows. She is the sweetheart of James "Fur" Sammons, beer runner and ex-convict.

McMillan Gains Votes

County Judge Jarecki said he temporarily is sidetracking the city recount to get at the Cicero ballots. In yesterday's results, Robert E. McMillan, nominee for Municipal judge, gained more votes on Judge William L. Morgan who asked the recount. In the beginning McMillan led him by 800 votes. Yesterday he led him by 2,502 votes and Leo Klein, was in thirteenth place, 519 votes behind McMillan. Only 12 can have the nominations.

Judge Morgan lost 384 votes in his home ward, the Fortieth, and his total losses for the day were 528 votes. In the Fortieth and Forty-first wards, those whose vote losses were most noticeable were Buggee, 199; Elliott, 482; Fetzer, 178; Gentzel, 204; Katzco, 416; Schulman, 318. McMillan's loss was 21 and Klein's 40.

R. W. Child Files Divorce Action; Won't Tell Why

Stroudsburg, Pa., Aug. 5.—[Special.] Richard Washburn Child, former United States ambassador to Italy, attorney and writer, steadfastly refused today to divulge his grounds for suing to divorce his wife, known in literary circles as Maude Parker Child. Neither he nor his counsel, C. R. Bensinger, will discuss any detail of the suit which Mr. Child filed in the common pleas court of Monroe county on last June 26, which the court records disclosed today.

Mr. Child at his home at Buckhill Falls, an exclusive colony of wealthy friends in the Pocono mountains, refuses to see or talk to newspaper men. His woman secretary said today:

"Mr. Child's orders are that he has no statement whatever to make."

Returnable in September.

Mr. Bensinger impounded the papers in the case after the suit had been entered on the docket in order to prevent publicity. Court records show that the libel in divorce was presented to President Judge Samuel E. Shull on June 26 and that a subpoena had been issued by the court on Mrs. Child, returnable the fourth Monday of September. She has until that date to file an answer if she desires to contest the suit.

The whereabouts of Mrs. Child are unknown here, it was said at Buckhill Falls that she has not been at the Child cottage for several months and a report that she has been staying at the inn at Buckhill was denied.

Mrs. Child was Miss Maude Parker. She and Mr. Child were married in Havana on Aug. 12, 1916. Mrs. Child is a grandniece of Gen. Dangerfield Parker of Washington.

Child's Second Marriage.

Mrs. Child was a popular hostess in Rome. She and the ambassador lived in the beautiful Orsini palace, which furnished a magnificent background for their large receptions.

Reports that the Childs were contemplating a separation were heard late last month. Mrs. Child, who was staying at Lake Placid, denied the reports. Mr. Child, who was visiting President Coolidge at his summer camp, declined to comment on the reports.

Mr. Child was first married in 1904, soon after his graduation from Harvard to Miss Elizabeth Scott of Arlington, Va. They were divorced in the spring of 1916.

COOLIDGE DROPS OFFICIAL CARES TO MEND FENCES

Disdains Aid in Odd Jobs About Vermont Farm.

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING.

Woodstock, Vt., Aug. 5.—[Special.]—"Well, Calvin's a candidate sure enough—he's fixing up his fence," the village wit reported at Miss Florence Cilly's general store at Plymouth along toward dinner time.

Mr. Coolidge, critically inspecting the old home place during the forenoon, tested a board fence around the back yard and found that three of the posts were rotting and unstable. He was dressed in his city clothes, but he immediately divested himself of his coat, carried new posts from a pile back of the barn, uprooted the old posts, and installed the new ones.

Amputates a Limb.

Next, the President decided that an old apple tree needed pruning. Eventually this became a major operation, requiring the use of a cross-cut saw to amputate a large limb. Mr. Coolidge got the saw out of the woodshed and brought a wooden chair out of the kitchen. E. W. Starling, of the secret service squad, volunteered to do the job, but was waved aside by the President, with the remark that he could do the bossing. Thereupon Plymouth's distinguished son got up on the chair and sawed that limb off in about ten minutes of persistent and uninterrupted sawing.

All this time the camera men were having fits on the deadline established by the secret service men two hundred feet from the Coolidge house. They could see the President sawing away, but were unable to get any pictures.

Mr. Coolidge strolled over the farm during the day, noting a fine stand of timothy on the east forty, which appeared about ready to cut, and finally having a business talk with Walter Linds, to whom he rents the twenty-five acre sugar bush up the mountain.

Waves Off Affairs of State.

The President cut himself off completely from affairs of state. He received no telegrams or letters. His secretary, E. T. Clark, left behind at Paul Smiths, N. Y., attempted to reach Mr. Coolidge. As there is no telephone in the Coolidge house, the best Mr. Clark could do was to reach Miss Cilly's store. The message was carried to the President by a secret service man, but Mr. Coolidge sent back word that the business could await his return to his Adirondack camp.

Mrs. Coolidge, dressed in a new peach colored summer frock, was in and out of the house attending to household duties and working in the flower garden.

FATHER OF FOUR SLAIN IN HOME; ANOTHER IS SHOT

Milan Bylick, 33 years old, was killed last night when a rifle bullet, fired through a window of his home in Hazelcrest, struck him in the heart as he was talking with his wife and their four children.

In a second shooting, this one on Chicago's north side, the aim of the would-be assassins was not so good. Gus Muscarello, 1227 Larrabee street, was struck once in the chest and once in the thigh by slugs fired from a moving automobile as he walked peacefully along the sidewalk near Larrabee and Vedder streets. At the Alexian Brothers' hospital it was said he had a good chance of recovery.

Blames Bootleggers for Killing.

The killing of Bylick was laid by Chief Leroy Davidson of the county highway police to a suspicion on the part of bootleggers that the victim was acting as a police informant. Louis Kolash, a friend of Bylick, reported that Eli Schudebrck, whose home recently was raided, had made threats against him.

Deputies Harris, Douglas, and Watson visited the Schudebrck home and found the place in disorder, as though a hasty flight had been made. The squad waited and when Schudebrck returned home he was taken into custody. He refused to make a statement.

Bylick was known as an enemy of the liquor traffic and many are said to have resented his efforts against bootleggers. His children range in age from 18 months to 6 years.

At Loss for Shooting Motive.

Muscarello is owner of a fruit store at Belmont avenue and Broadway. He has lived in the same house on Larrabee street for twenty-five years. At the hospital he said that he had no enemies and was unable to assign a motive for the attack.

He was asked if he had received any threatening letters and replied in the negative. The police theory, however, is that he was shot because he had declined to pay tribute to a blackmail gang. Witnesses said that a touring car in which two men were riding had been parked near the corner where the shooting occurred, apparently waiting for him to leave a surface car. Immediately after the shots were fired the car was driven away at high speed.

A few minutes after Muscarello had dropped to the pavement Lieut. John McGinnis and his detective bureau squad, touring the district, started in pursuit of a speeding automobile. They forced the driver to halt at Oak and Franklin streets and took him and two other men into custody. The three men gave their names as James Mallory, 3601 Janssen avenue; Angelo Lamenti, 2320 North Lamon avenue, and Samuel Canale, 2320 North Lamon avenue.

CRIMINAL COURT.

John Manion, murder, sentenced to 14 years in the penitentiary; Herbert Dayton, larceny, sentenced to 1 year in the Bridewell by Judge William N. Gemmill.

George Barton, robbery, sentenced to 3 to 20 years in Pontiac reformatory; John Miller, robbery, sentenced to 3 to 20 years in Pontiac reformatory; John McIntyre, larceny, sentenced to 1 year in Pontiac reformatory by Judge Thomas J. Lynch.

ROUMANIA HEARS OF WIDESPREAD RUSSIAN REVOLT

BUCHAREST, Aug. 6.—(AP)—Reports of a serious, widespread insurrection in Russia, in which peasants and intellectuals are lined up against soviet extremists, are reaching the Roumanian government. Details are lacking, but the Roumanian government seemingly attaches sufficient importance to the situation as to order strict measures along the frontier against an influx of refugees.

200 OBJECT TO LOOMIS STREET WIDENING PLAN

Two hundred property owners attended the meeting of the board of local improvements of the south parks yesterday to voice their disapproval of the plan to widen Loomis street from Marquette boulevard to 87th street.

They had been led to understand, they said, that the project would reduce the parkway to two feet. Members of the board assured them that it would be six feet wide.

The board also adopted a resolution directing the superintendent to make a survey of the opinion of the property owners involved.

Lawyer Divorced from Alice Calhoun, Actress

Los Angeles, Cal., Aug. 5.—(AP)—Mendel B. Silverberg, attorney, was granted a divorce from Alice Calhoun, motion picture actress, here today. Silverberg told the court that his wife refused to leave her mother's home, as they had agreed before their marriage. The ceremony was performed last May.

TOM SAWYER AND HUCK FINN MET IN OLD HOME TOWN

Memory of Mark Twain Is Cherished in Hannibal.

Now we cross the great river of Chicagoland in this—the eleventh—story of The Tribune's Chicagoland pilgrimage, and in Mark Twain's Hannibal we meet Mr. Mahan, good friend to Chicagoland boys.

BY JAMES O'DONNELL BENNETT.

If my friend David Belasco, ever accommodating to sentimentalists, had set the scene and appointed the hour for my arrival in Mark Twain's Hannibal, the occasion could not have been more auspicious for me.

It was after midnight. The town lay sleeping. The day's clamor had ended, and the kindly interplay of gleam from street lamps and of bulky shadows from dark, silent buildings touched with mystery the shrine town of American boyhood.

In those fond lights of illusion, which tempered for me the twentieth century and beckoned me back five and seventy years, I saw the town of Tom Sawyer and Huck Finn and Becky Thatcher and Aunt Polly and Joe Harper and Ben Rogers all as it should be, for it was—to me—as it was when they were young and happy there. That was the magic of the shadows.

Hears Whisper of Youth.

Every American boy whose family has played fair with him in the matter of books knows the words that were murmuring in my mind as THE TRIBUNE car rolled across the long bridge from the dark, tree clad Illinois shore and skirted boy-loved Cardiff hill. Those words come in the opening pages of "The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn," Odyssey of the Mississippi.

"Well, when Tom and me got to the edge of the hilltop we looked away down into the village and could see three or four lights twinkling, where there was sick folks, maybe; and the stars over us was sparkling ever so fine; and down by the village was the river, a whole mile broad, and awful still and grand. . . . I heard an owl, away off, who-whooing about somebody that was dead, and a whippowill and a dog crying about somebody that was going to die; and the wind was trying to whisper something to me, and I couldn't make out what it was."

And so it was. And it may be—nay, I know—that what the wind was trying to whisper to me was something out of my vanished youth—when Tom and Huck and I first became friends.

Tom and Huck Were There.

And, behold! there, at the foot of Cardiff hill, were Tom and Huck to greet me and mine—Tom and Huck in bronze, standing on a granite pedestal and flanked by bronze tablets.

The way great literature will take hold of mankind, thought I, is wondrous fine, and bethought me of the glorious "Three Musketeers" statue in Paris.

So, the sight of those eager bronze boys in the moonlight, with the great river moving solemnly by a few rods away, was Hannibal's welcome to me, and it set the note of two entrancing days.

Seeks Out Mr. Mahan.

Early next morning I sought out elderly Mr. Mahan—Mahan, the rich lawyer, with the heart of youth beating in him, and his head full of sagacious ideas about boys.

He speaks in a gentle, whimsical, half-abashed way, and he might have stepped out of the wise pages of Mark Twain's "Pudd'nhead Wilson," for his talk was full of Wilsonisms—Mahanisms, rather—and he began by saying that he hoped the world wouldn't think he was a sentimental old fool for having given the statue. I ventured that the world would be much obliged for an indefinite number of gifts like his—especially the world of boys and of literature. That seemed to cheer him up quite a bit, and, favoring me with Mahanism No. 1, he said:

"Well, whether you're sane or insane depends largely, I suppose, on what the majority of people think about it."

Anyway, he granted that the statue did seem to have caught the world's fond fancy, and he showed me five folio volumes of clippings of newspaper and magazine comments—some of them from important London publications—on the gift and on the ceremonies of dedication day, which was May 27 last, albeit the statue is dated 1925. Mr. Mahan's secretary is working on another bushel basketful of clippings that will make five folio volumes more.

George Mahan never spoke of dedication day other than as "the day we turned Tom and Huck loose." Hannibal had 10,000 visitors that day and, said Mr. Mahan, "that was the day Mr. Cameron admitted everybody to the cave free. Wasn't that nice!"

He meant, as you boys know, the cave where Tom and Becky were lost and where Tom and Huck found the $12,000. You shall meet the true, original, real, living Becky day after tomorrow.

"Now about this statue," continued Lawyer Mahan. "I suppose I had some other purpose than just a statue. I guess I wanted to have somebody say for me in a lasting way what I thought about two healthy, normal American boys, full of fun and life and mischief, but in the crisis always doing the right thing. Tom and Huck did. I guess that's why the statue struck a chord in the national heart.

"You take, for example, Tom Blankenship, who was the original of Huck Finn, just as Mark himself was the original of Tom Sawyer. Well, Tom Blankenship, after those days of being the lost lamb of our town, pioneered out to Montana and became a very useful citizen—died thoroughly respected.

Must Play Out Game.

"That's the point! You can't tell, Mr. Bennett, who is first or second class in this country until the game's played out."

The lawyer mused.

"I don't know but what I was trying to do, too, was to put up a monument to characters out of great literature. Let the boys—and the old folks, too—when they pass the statue, guess from it what literature means, what it must mean. I thought that in this way I could send some of 'em to books."

I thought that fine—the old lawyer's purpose to embronze an illustrious local tradition that has become a deathless world tradition, and then to set it sentinel-like at the head of Main street in his town. These are the things that dignify existence; these the things that enrich us all.

He and I toddled out to view the statue, and he told me how he and Frederick Hibbard, Chicago sculptor, who does our town honor, had reread "The Adventures of Tom Sawyer," and "The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn" twice—prayerfully—before they began to think upon details of the statue at all, and how the statue, as it now stands, is from Mr. Hibbard's sixth model.

He lovingly pointed out details—where Huck's pipe is sticking out of his hip pocket, and Tom's sling shot out of his breast pocket.

Together we mounted the slopes of Cardiff hill and the heights beyond where Tom and Huck and Joe Harper and Ben Rogers had lived and played their deep breathing, carefree, character building lives and pranks three quarters of a century ago. And the lawyer was not for imposing much care or routine or admonition on boys—at least not all the time. "If you hector a boy too much," said he, as we gazed down the great river marching to the sea—"you do that and you won't make much out of him. He'll be too much like you—and me."

MUSSOLINI AND MELLON REVIEW DEBTS QUESTION

Meet Again Soon; Talk on Finances Seen.

BULLETIN.

PARIS, Aug. 5.—(AP)—A report was current in the lobbies of the chamber of deputies tonight that the government virtually had decided to ask parliament to ratify the debt agreement with the United States before the session closed next week. The same report was also current with respect to the debt agreement with Great Britain.

ROME, Aug. 5.—(AP)—Andrew W. Mellon, American secretary of the treasury, was received by Premier Mussolini in the latter's private apartment at the Chigi palace today.

The secretary, who was unaccompanied, conversed in an informal fashion with the Italian premier for more than half an hour in the presence of Finance Minister Volpi and Dino Grandi, undersecretary for foreign affairs, who joined in the conversation at times.

Although today's meeting was purely a private visit, another meeting between Secretary Mellon and Premier Mussolini will take place in a few days, when it is expected they will engage in a more detailed conversation, particularly with reference to financial matters.

Further Parleys Seen.

Unusual as today's visit was, it has confirmed the belief in official circles that important matters will be discussed before Secretary Mellon's departure from Rome.

Further meetings between Secretary Mellon, Finance Minister Volpi, and other Italian officials, of an ostensibly unofficial character, also are regarded as probable. Meanwhile, the government is arranging an official dinner for the American secretary.

In his talk with Premier Mussolini, Secretary Mellon's discussion touched on general conditions in Italy and the United States. Since the visit was strictly a courtesy one and without official significance, neither Premier Mussolini nor Finance Minister Volpi made any remarks or explanations concerning Italy's financial condition and aspirations, nor did Secretary Mellon ask any questions concerning these matters.

Discuss Debt History.

The Italian-American debt settlement was mentioned, but in a purely "historical fashion." Secretary Mellon told the Fascist premier that he was favorably impressed by what he had seen thus far in Italy, while the premier thanked him for the honor of his visit. The rest of the talk ranged from the weather to general remarks concerning political conditions and the Fascist régime.

Poincare Wins Triple Victory.

PARIS, Aug. 5.—(AP)—Premier Poincare today got the chamber of deputies to adopt another measure with which he hopes to ease the financial path of the government. This was the bill providing for a sinking fund to cover the retirement of national defense and treasury bonds. It was adopted by the chamber, 420 to 140.

Previously in the same session the premier scored victories by obtaining two sizeable votes of confidence. The chamber rejected, 350 to 172, a proposal by the Socialists that the government continue control of the tobacco monopoly, instead of placing it in the hands of a private company, as desired by the premier. Then the chamber rejected an amendment to the government's financial bills calling for the fixing of the price of ordinary tobacco by decree. This vote was 360 to 190.

Franc Drops Again.

Although the franc has shown a favorable trend the last few days, it lost slight ground today, but recovered somewhat at the closing of the day's trading. Opening at 33.93 to the dollar, an hour later it had dropped to 34.43 and later, with the information contained in the Bank of France's statement that the government had had to resort to further borrowing, the franc dropped to 35.62. The closing quotation was 34.95.

U. S. Officials Pleased.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Aug. 5.—[Special.]—Government officials expressed gratification today with the progress made in carrying out the program which has been initiated by the new French government, headed by Raymond Poincare, for the financial rehabilitation of France.

They are satisfied, it was stated, that if affairs continue to move forward in the way they have started and further approval is given to the Poincare policies it will not be long before France is on the safe road to permanent stability and prosperity.

While treasury and other administration officials asserted they knew nothing in regard to plans for a proposed loan to France, it can be stated authoritatively that such credits can be established in the United States as soon as the American bankers are assured that the full program which they consider necessary to insure the security of such loan has been adopted.

There has been no change here in the administration's attitude toward the French debt settlement, which, it is believed, eventually will be accepted. That agreement is now out of the hands of the American debt funding commission and in the hands of congress, it was pointed out, so that it is not known how any change could be made in any of its terms.

TRAIN KILLS UNIDENTIFIED BOY.

An unidentified boy about 12 years old was killed yesterday when he was struck by a train at the intersection of the Chicago and North Western and the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul tracks at Chester street. He is believed to have fallen while trying to steal a ride on the train. The boy wore a blue bathing suit and gray trousers.

CATHOLIC LEADER LISTS CAUSES OF MEXICO FRICTION

The opinions expressed in THE TRIBUNE Wednesday concerning the Mexican religious situation by Bishop G. A. Miller of the Mexico City area of the Methodist Episcopal church brought a rejoinder yesterday from the Rt. Rev. Msgr. T. V. Shannon, editor of the New World, the Catholic weekly published in Chicago.

Bishop Miller had denied there was any persecution of Catholics in Mexico.

"The comment by Bishop Miller," said Msgr. Shannon, "is strangely suggestive of a similar interview given by one of his colleagues, Bishop Edgar Blake, concerning the Russian situation. As a matter of fact, there is but a slight difference between what took place in Russia and what is now taking place in Mexico.

"The best illustration of this is found in the fact that when the soviet ambassador arrived in Mexico City President Calles proclaimed a national holiday. If any additional evidence were required it is found in the added fact that in a public debate held in Mexico City last Monday night Dr. Puig, a member of the cabinet of President Calles, declared the children of Mexico must be educated hereafter without a single taint of religion. He rejected entirely the Christian ethics.

"In answering Bishop Miller let me put it briefly. If the word Methodist should be substituted for the word Catholic and the Methodist church would be deprived of the slightest pretense for existence, if all its property were confiscated and if in addition it was made incapable of possessing or holding any property; if the ministers of the Methodist church were deprived of every vestige of citizenship; if in addition they would have to receive their commission for preaching and administering of the sacraments from the state, is it putting too fine a point on the matter to say the Methodist church was being persecuted?

"Let us suppose the Methodist church had in Mexico 5,000 deaconesses carrying on works of mercy and charity. Let us suppose further many of these good women had spent forty and fifty years of their lives in this consecrated work and were now turned out on the streets to shift as best they might in helpless old age, would it be stressing a point too far to say the Methodist church was suffering persecution?"

POLICE AWAITING CALL BY TAGNEY; SEEK 'SQUAWKER'

Expect Suspected Labor Agent to Surrender.

The police started a search last night for a youth known to them as "Squawker." From him it is hoped to get information which may lead to the solution of the murder of Morris Markowitz, a trucking contractor, who was shot Tuesday afternoon. His death, the police believe, may have resulted from his four year fight against unionizing his employés.

The police have searched since the murder for Roy Tagney, business agent of the Machinery Movers and Riggers' union, and Michael Artery, secretary and treasurer of the same union. They had disputes with Markowitz recently because he operated under the Landis award. Artery is supposed to be in Atlantic City, but where Tagney is has not been determined, although the police hinted yesterday he would surrender in a few days.

Says They Stole Tagney Auto.

From "Squawker" the police hope to check up on the story told to them yesterday by Lawrence J. O'Brien, 19, of 3749 Lowe avenue, brother of "Smiling Jack" O'Brien, who was hanged some years ago for the murder of a policeman. Lawrence O'Brien told the police that he and a companion stole Tagney's automobile at West Thirty-third street and Normal avenue after they had attended a ball game Tuesday at the White Sox park. He insisted he alighted from the car after it was driven several blocks and that his companion left with the automobile. This did not agree with the story he related last night.

Frank Wilkes, 6311 South Carpenter street, a union bricklayer, the only eye witness to the slaying, told Capt. Stege yesterday that he would not be able to identify the killer. The killer used a 45 automatic pistol Wilkes said, and an exploded shell of that caliber was found on O'Brien, according to Assistant State's Attorney Frank Matousek, who was assigned to the investigation yesterday.

Tagney Thrice Indicted.

The records of the criminal court show three indictments against Tagney since 1920. One was a charge brought by an 18 year old girl, which was dismissed for want of prosecution. The other two charges were for conspiracy growing out of labor troubles. After two years of continuances they were stricken off with leave to reinstate.

Artery in the last six years has been named in ten conspiracy indictments growing out of labor troubles and all of these except one have been stricken off with leave to reinstate.

ERIE EXPLAINS BRIDGE RAISING FOR CAR FERRY

Frederick D. Underwood, president of the Erie railroad, yesterday replied to a telegram sent him July 29 by THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE asking that he issue orders to his local agent to respect the convenience and business interests of citizens of Chicago by remedying the delay caused almost daily by the raising of the Michigan boulevard bridge and other spans in the downtown district to allow one empty Erie boxcar to be towed through on a barge.

President Underwood's reply follows:

"Reply to your wire of July 29 with reference to Erie car ferry service delayed for suitable investigation details. Our river service saves an average of a day's delay on thousands of shipments to and from Chicago river territory and has for some time been limited to one movement a day through Michigan avenue, which will be arranged with every possible consideration for the convenience of business interests."

A MINIMUM ROAD PROGRAM.

The advisory committee which is assisting county authorities in devising a road program has recommended the widening of 33 miles of existing highways to 40 feet and the construction of 40 miles of new 40 foot pavement and of 147 miles of new 20 foot pavement. All the principal intersections are to be at least 40 feet wide.

The program as recommended must be considered as an irreducible minimum. When a decision is made regarding the method of financing county road improvements no scheme should be adopted which will not raise enough money to complete the program outlined by the committee.

As long as the roads leading into Chicago are inadequate to the demands which traffic place upon them the citizens who are paying most of the money for good roads through the state are being cheated of their share of the benefit.

THE ENEMIES OF UNION WITH CANADA.

There has been a good deal of discussion recently of informal proposals for a closer relationship between Canada and the United States. The proposals have ranged all the way from a mutual free-trade agreement to political union. It is pointed out that economically, North America can be made very nearly a self-sustaining economic unit; that Americans and Canadians are the same kind of people with much the same traditions and much the same international outlook; that Canada is looking to us for capital; that many of our domestic problems such as the development of the Great Lakes seaway can best be solved by a closer form of political union.

It is important to note, in this connection, that there will be no enthusiasm for union along our eastern seaboard. The political separation of Canada and the United States has developed New York, Boston, Philadelphia and our other harbors at the expense of the St. Lawrence ports which might otherwise become the principal gateway to the continent throughout most of the year. Quebec has the advantage over New York of a sheltered passage, to say nothing of a shorter route to northern Europe. The interests which are intrenched in our ports will not readily surrender their favored position.

INTERFERENCE WITH JUSTICE.

The inquiry into the charges of abduction brought by the lady evangelist of Los Angeles seems to have become entangled in a clerical feud, whence it has passed openly into the field of local politics. The state's attorney now wants to drop the investigation. The grand jury wants the investigation to go on. The lady evangelist's supporters have been active in her behalf and their influence is said to be substantial. On the other hand, it is reported that eight clergymen, whose total congregations perhaps do not equal that of the evangelist, are urging the state to make a final summary and public statement of the facts.

Though there have been weeks of sensational publicity, the mystery of the lady's disappearance remains unsolved. But if the state has not found evidence enough to justify indictment of some one for some offense, it is not its duty to make declaration or summaries for the purpose of clearing or clouding a reputation. What impresses the innocent bystander is that church politics and religious partisanship are messing up the processes of justice. A somewhat similar impression is produced from another and much graver inquiry in the east—the Hall murder case. The assistant attorney general assigned to carry on the new investigation says that the manner in which the case was handled or mishandled immediately after the murder is scandalous, and, of course, his task is a good deal harder now than it would have been when the evidence was fresh. The failure to act with vigor at that time may prove to have been fatal to justice, and it might be very instructive to have not only a disclosure of the murder of Hall, but also of any influences which may have been responsible for the suppression or discouragement of energetic inquiry immediately after the crime.

THE PACIFIST DRIVE ON DEFENSE.

The Reserve Officer of June calls attention to the pacifist drive under way against national defense and notes that it will be headed by a "committee on militarism in education," with headquarters at Bible House, New York City, making use of the Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C. A., and church organizations as much as possible. There will be plenty of speeches and pamphleteering, especially in the colleges, and the Reserve Officer appeals to members of the reserve officers' corps to undertake public education to offset the pacifist propaganda.

We hope the appeal will have practical effect. The pacifists have the right to argue their side of the question of national defense and they are exercising it freely. The result is to lend to congress and the casual public an idealistic excuse for shirking the duty of providing adequately for "the common defense." The propaganda, if vigorously met, is not difficult to discredit in the minds of the great majority of citizens, for it is full of exploded fallacies and generalities not supported by experience. But the counter attack should begin with facts. What are the objects and provisions of the citizen training system to which the "committee on militarism" is objecting? What is the actual working of the training courses in the schools, colleges and camps? What is being taught and what are the results?

Where these facts are presented the pacifists can be challenged to explain to the American people what they do not approve of in our modest effort to train American citizens to fulfill the duty of national defense. The pacifist propaganda is full of alarmist talk about militarism which has no application to the facts of our training system unless the nation is ready to accept the doctrine of resist not evil. But very few of the members of this committee or of the pacifist congregation generally have either the consistency or the candor to take a position against any resistance. They virtually all concede that we will resist and that in case of invasion or oppression we ought to resist. Only they maintain that we ought not to prepare ourselves to resist.

That is the paradox of American pacifism and it should be exposed persistently until the public realizes what all the talk of pacifist preachers, professors, and lady reformers comes to. We are not afraid they will turn the American nation to nonresistance, but they do obstruct proper measures of citizen preparation, encourage scrimping the camps, and do mischief out of proportion to their numbers or political weight.

GLORY AT THE NORTH POLE.

Mussolini welcomed Maj. Gen. Umberto Nobile, the engineer and skipper of the Norge, back in Rome before twenty thousand of his fellow countrymen gathered in the square in front of the Chigi palace. "In vain," he said, "did others try to steal the glory of Maj. Gen. Nobile. I want to say in a voice of thunder that, Italy, it was you who were responsible for this glory."

The glory was that of the Amundsen flight over the north pole, a flight preceded by the one of Lieut. Byrd and his pilot in an American plane. The project was Amundsen's. It was backed financially and its dangers shared by the American, Ellsworth, who also had been in on Amundsen's previous failure to make the trip by airplane. The Norge was Italian built under Nobile and he flew the ship. There is a nice point for argument for such as may be fond of it.

Americans, including scientists, are satisfied that Byrd did it and was the first to get by air to the pole. Abroad there is not that satisfaction. Mussolini's voice of thunder has a motive easy to understand. His doctrine, and it's good, is that pride is a great nationalizer and great achiever. If you want a people to step out in a large way, give them large ideas, large enthusiasms, large beliefs in what they have done and can do. Give them heroes and the determination to have more. That is why the old Romans put the tombs of the great along the roads the legions marched in coming home with captives and in going out to get them.

If Mussolini permitted the Norwegian leader to have the credit, then Nobile and the other Italians were nothing but the help. It may be glorious to have been with a hero, but the immortal chaplet of fame goes about his brow. Matt Henson, the Negro who was with Peary, told a writer for Liberty that he overran the pole about a mile and a half, forty-five minutes before Peary came up and found it, but Henson, who was the only man with Peary at the finish, did not think it was his expedition or his discovery or that it was his fame to be anything more than the only man of the party who could stick to the finish with the boss.

Glory may not be as discriminating as it might. We are already forgetting the name of the pilot who flew Byrd's plane. Ellsworth, although with Amundsen every moment in planning and flying, does not share distinction fifty-fifty with the commander. We do not now recall who was with Hobson in Santiago harbor. They were just as bold, but it was his enterprise.

If the flight of the Norge had been a failure, it would have been Amundsen's, although the fault might have been in Nobile's design or flying of the ship. It is not all unjust. Credit goes particularly to the man whose brain seized the idea, whose vision embraced it in full, whose purpose was the inspiration, whose decisions were final, who carried the responsibility and who would be the target of failure. We think of Amundsen as that man on the Norge.

Washington was the victor at Yorktown, although he had not driven Cornwallis to hole there and although Rochambeau was at his side with greater numbers than Washington's Americans.

Editorial of the Day

MR. LOWDEN COMES HOME.

(The Milwaukee [Wis.] Journal.)

Frank O. Lowden, frequently spoken of as the corn belt's favorite for the Republican presidential nomination in 1928, returns from his European study of farm conditions overseas full of information. But Mr. Lowden has nothing definite in his traveling bag to do for American farming. He is sure that the protective tariff must be made to serve agriculture as well as it does industry, and he was "greatly impressed and interested in the fact that some, at least, of the protective tariff countries have found a way to make the tariff effective as to agriculture as well as industry." But Mr. Lowden hastens to add, "I do not mean to say the methods by which they have accomplished this is suitable to our country, for conditions vary greatly in different countries."

What specific legislation, then, does Mr. Lowden offer? Not a thing. Perhaps he is trying to think it through, just as a lot of other men have been trying to do, running always into a stone wall. It is awhile yet until 1928, but it is hoped that if in the meantime Mr. Lowden has a plan he will not make the farmers wait for it. The impression is widespread in the corn country that Mr. Lowden knows what to do. If he does, surely he would not make the farmers go along until 1928 without it.

If the farmers ever expect to get out from under the load they are carrying, they had better be careful not to be swept along by a lot of talk that has no meat in it. It makes no difference whether the name of the man in the White House is Coolidge, Lowden, Longworth, or Dawes, if he has nothing more definite to offer than has been suggested yet.

STOMACH ULCERS.

Out of his large experience Dr. W. E. Deeks has evolved some notions as to the dietetic cause and treatment of ulcer of the stomach. In his opinion, stomach ulcers occur generally in people who consume an excessive amount of carbohydrates and an insufficient amount of green vegetables and fresh fruits. When the diet is corrected along the lines suggested above, nature will take care of the uncomplicated gastric ulcer.

The following are the diets he recommends:

BREAKFAST:

Juice of an orange, or of some other fresh fruit; eggs, preferably coddled, poached, or soft boiled; stale bread, one or two slices, or toast, with butter; milk, or coffee with milk, but without sugar.

Coffee or tea should always be taken without sugar.

LUNCHEON:

Vegetable soup; stale bread, one or two slices, or potato, with butter; cooked green vegetables; fresh fruit; hot or cold milk.

DINNER:

Minced meat, chicken, or fish; stale bread, one or two slices, preferably made from whole wheat flour, or one potato of average size; cooked green vegetables; vegetable salad, such as lettuce, tomato, and celery; fresh fruit; tea or coffee if desired.

This diet is continued for about three weeks. Then the following is substituted for it:

BREAKFAST:

Fresh fruit; eggs, with or without bacon; stale bread, two slices, or toast, with butter; coffee or tea without sugar.

If a cereal is eaten it should not be sweetened.

LUNCHEON:

Meat, poultry, or fish; rice or bread, the equivalent of two slices; green vegetables; fresh fruit; tea or coffee if desired.

DINNER:

The same as luncheon except that a soup and a salad are added.

If the ulcer is in the duodenum, the more restricted diet must be continued longer. In the above diets, the total amount of starchy foods at any meal is never to exceed two slices of bread or the equivalent thereof. All artificially sweetened foods are to be eliminated. This excludes all pies and desserts of every kind, all sweet drinks, all sugar on fruits or in foods and beverages. The urine is kept alkaline by an ample supply of vegetables and fruits. These are the essentials of Dr. Deek's dietetic treatment.

The starchy foods which are especially limited are: Cereal grains and every form of flour, bread, cereal, or pastry made therefrom; the legumes (beans and peas); the tubers, such as potatoes and sweet potatoes; the fleshy roots, such as carrots, beets, turnips, and parsnips; sago, tapioca, and arrowroot. The sweets likewise limited, but to even a greater degree, are: Cane sugar, maple sugar, glucose, honey, molasses, and sirups.

A person with a gastric ulcer should be examined for sources of infection and for the many complications which are liable to develop. He will usually require at his physician's hands some medical treatment and, in some cases, surgical treatment.

LEAKY HEART IS POSSIBLE.

M. B. writes: I have often heard of people having leaky heart.

1. Is there any such thing?
2. If so, what are the symptoms?
3. What is the cure?
4. Can most any kind of heart trouble be cured?

REPLY.

1. Yes.
2. There may be none; so long as compensation is good there are no symptoms. When compensation begins to break there may be rapid pulse, shortness of breath, pain in the heart region on exertion, palpitation of the heart, dropsy.
3. Rest in bed until compensation is built up; then carefully regulated living. Work should be especially controlled.
4. Many cases can be made symptomless.

LUMP ON THE BREAST.

Reader writes: Are lumps on the breast indicative of cancer? A surgeon told me they usually result in cancer, being at the lump stage chronic mastitis. Lady aged 45 had them appear and was going to have them removed by operation. Left them and after three months they softened and practically disappeared. Am wondering if they may reappear in the form of cancer later.

REPLY.

If a woman has a lump in her breast she should have it examined and watched. Some of them are cancers; these should be operated on promptly. Many are not cancers, and most of that group should neither be operated on nor treated.

CIVIC PRIDE.

Chicago, July 29.—[To the Legal Friend of the People.]—Next to my home is a vacant twenty-five foot lot which has been forfeited for taxes. There has been dumping and digging on the lot and it looks awful. I would like to know if there would be any legal objection to my putting a fence around the place, just to make the neighborhood look better. P. C.

We see no objection to the course that you suggest, but why not look the property up on the tract indices in the recorder's office, find the name of the owner of the fee, and see if he will not give you a quitclaim deed for five or ten dollars so that after fencing the property and paying taxes for seven years you will be able to make a title under the seven year statute?
TRIBUNE LAW DEPARTMENT.

"NOT INCORPORATED."

Glen Ellyn, Ill., Aug. 1.—[To the Legal Friend of the People.]—Is there any law on record requiring a co-partnership that uses the word "company" after the name, for instance, "John Doe company," to place after this name "not incorporated"? Is there any penalty for violation of the rule? F. J. B.

Sec. 220 of the Illinois criminal code provides a penalty against unincorporated associations or individuals using a corporate name, but it has been judicially construed [in 219 Ill. 46] not to apply to such cases as the U. S. Express company, where no fraud is intended. Nevertheless, many cautious persons use the words "not inc." after the word "company."
TRIBUNE LAW DEPARTMENT.

TOO OLD FOR SCHOOL?

Libertyville, Ill., Aug. 1.—[To the Legal Friend of the People.]—Can a person 20 years old be compelled to go to school against his will? R. W. G.

In general, no.

BURLINGTON, Ia.—The Hawkeye received a dispatch from Keokuk stating that 1,500 rebels attacked 500 Union men at Athens, Mo., and were repulsed with twenty killed and many wounded after a battle of two hours.

WASHINGTON.—By a letter from Fernandina, Fla., it is learned that it is determined to confiscate all the property of northerners in Florida and divide it among the soldiers of the rebel army. Negroes are training in regiments there, each man being promised a round sum for each Yankee he kills.

CAIRO, Ill. — Word was received from Col. Marsh at Cape Girardeau, Mo., that the rebel army of Jeff Thompson was advancing on that place and was within sixteen miles of him. An attack was expected immediately. The 18th Illinois, Col. Lawler, and the 19th Illinois, Col. Turchin, have moved from Bird's Point seven or eight miles into the interior, as outposts of the Union army.

WASHINGTON.—The correspondent of the Baltimore Sun says that President Lincoln will urge an advance to Richmond at the earliest possible moment, that the campaign will be in eastern Virginia, and that Gen. McClellan will have all means and power he may require for offensive operations.

WASHINGTON.—The sanitary commission reports, after examination, that the camps near the city are in a bad condition as regards healthfulness. The commission, after a six days' session, has put into operation its plans for aiding the soldiers. Agents have been sent to all the principal camps, both east and west, to inspect conditions and promote the comfort and health of the men. A quantity of liquor on its way to the Virginia camps was stopped at the Long Bridge over the Potomac.

WASHINGTON.—The direct tax bill has passed both houses of congress and goes to President Lincoln for his signature. He will unquestionably sign it. The bill provides for the raising of $20,000,000. All incomes over $800 are to be taxed 3 per cent.

25 YEARS AGO TODAY

AUGUST 6, 1901.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa. — Exploding gasoline destroyed a block of buildings on Locust street near Tenth, last night, killed a score of persons, injured fifty others, leveled five or six buildings, filling the street with debris, and damaged 100 other houses. The explosion was followed by fire and the exact number of the dead will not be known for days.

WICHITA, Kas. — Miss Mattie Helen Beals, the Wichita telephone girl who drew second choice of farms in the new Kiowa and Comanche country, has aspired to new honors. She will become city marshal of the new town of Lawton, to take the place of Bat Carr the present officer. Miss Beals and Carr met this evening. To test her nerve he took several shots at her. She opened fire on him and shot his hat off. After these little pleasant exchanges of compliments the two shook hands and promised to be friends.

CHICAGO.—The members of the Lake Geneva Golf club are divided into two camps, not unfriendly, on the question of using liquor about the links and in the clubhouse. In the last two or three days a compromise has been reached and refreshments of this kind will be dispensed quietly in the cafe.

CHICAGO—John W. Gates has decided to take recreation in an automobile. He has a French machine of latest make. It is built for racing and to operate it he has imported a French chauffeur. It is capable of making a speed of nearly fifty miles an hour.

10 YEARS AGO TODAY

AUGUST 6, 1916.

NEW YORK. — All New York is strike bound. Surface line traffic ceased in the boroughs of Manhattan, the Bronx, and Richmond at 8 o'clock tonight. It is the most serious traffic blockade in the city's history. Brooklyn is the only borough in the greater city not affected by the strike. The menace of a general strike that would include the elevated and subway lines was growing hourly. The amount of violence during the day was small, considering the conditions. Bricks and bottles were thrown and car windows broken, but these outbreaks were intermittent.

LONDON.—Smashing their way forward on a front of nearly two miles, British troops have thrown back the Germans from a quarter to one-third of a mile in fierce fighting northwest of Pozieres. This was the report of Gen. Haig in a dispatch recounting success since the resumption of the Somme offensive by the British left wing yesterday. The gains were made by Australians and troops of the new British army after artillery had pounded the German defenses to pieces.

NEW YORK. — Charles Evans Hughes departed on his transcontinental speech making drive against President Wilson, expecting to return in about five weeks. He is accompanied by Mrs. Hughes, "my chief adviser." During the day Mr. Hughes conferred with Raymond Robins of Chicago, chairman of the recent Progressive national convention, who later issued a long statement declaring his purpose to support Mr. Hughes.

NEW YORK.—Counting of the ballots cast by 400,000 railroad employés affiliated with the Big Four brotherhoods, who threaten to tie up 250,000 miles of railroad by a strike was completed. No announcement of the vote was made but it was said to be a foregone conclusion that the vote would empower the central board to call a strike.

AN OLD MAN MEETS AN OLD LOVE.

As one that holds a rose between his teeth,
Hand on his sword, and laughter in his eyes,
So did I hold your love, and face the world—
When we were very young.

Now, we are old.
It would be sweet to say the swagger lasts,
The rose is still unfaded, and the sword
Has quite sufficed to keep our love from harm—
Alas! the sword is rust upon a shelf,
The rose is but a dust within a book,
And even the teeth that held it—but enough!
Only the old, sardonic world remains
Unchanged,—and very deep within your eyes,
And deeper far than sleep within my heart,
A quickening of some far celestial seed!

Racheal: I saw a fliver run into a street car and then the driver blamed the motorman, the Surface Lines, the president of the company, the Chicago traction committee, and various other dignitaries. Funny, isn't it, how a street car sneaks off the track, stealthily creeps up on a motorist, smashes into his auto, and then hurries back on the rails and pretends it has been there all the while. STRENUOUS OBJECTIONS.

Sir: S. Then I saw the trap. . . . The "'I Am' spirit of These States"—patently untrue, Americans are famous the world over for the aggressive, determined "I Will" spirit which characterizes everything they do; "those superb contemporary nonentities, Cabell, Millay, Lewis, Lardner, and a host of others whose names are not quite worth remembering"—in the first place the writers he mentions are of the first rank in literature, and among those others "whose names are not quite worth remembering" are Willa Cather, Edith Wharton, H. L. Mencken, Carl Sandburg, Robert Frost, Carl Von Vechten, William Lyon Phelps, Don Byrne, and so on piling Pelion on top of Ossa, proof on proof of the injustice and untruth of the statement: "Henry James, who was the best of them all, went to England and buried his definite genius in a strangled style"—after reading two hundred pages of one of his books, I'll agree that his "definite genius" was strangled—and at birth, too. . . . It is unfair to say that "Americans affect the classic pose of an ostrich." Any American worth his salt can stand the truth, but he objects strenuously to having the facts distorted and falsified and then taunted with them—I am yours sincerely— EDWARD BARTON KENDALL.

LEGAL ASPECTS OF AIR RIGHTS.

Chicago, Aug. 4.—If the railroad companies having terminals in Chicago had unrestricted air rights over all their property in Chicago, electrification of all lines would start at the earliest possible moment.

Where railroads purchased property and obtained title by deeds they probably have what amounts to unrestricted air rights; where property was obtained by grants from the state the problem is not so easy, but probably the air rights are unrestrictive or could be made so; but, where property was obtained by court proceedings, known as "condemnation" under the laws of eminent domain, and the title rests solely on a decree of court, the original owner was never divested of his title, and he retained substantial rights for himself, his grantees or heirs. All a railroad company gets under a condemnation proceeding is a perpetual easement to use for railroad purposes, and if the railroad company should cease using the property for that purpose all rights would revert to the original owner. It follows that if a railroad attempted to erect buildings for other than railroad uses, that they would go beyond their rights and upon proper application the courts would interfere.

In many instances railroads have condemned and paid the judgments, taken possession of the property, and then bought from the owner (usually for a song) a quit claim deed. Of course, where this occurred the company has the fee simple title.

I am just wondering if there are not some people in the world who have rights worth fortunes who do not know of their luck.

If the Illinois Central railroad owns the greater part of its right of way by purchase or grants from the state of Illinois, then the stockholders are to be congratulated and Chicago is in for a surprise. S. E. PRINCE.

CAR SEATS AS FOOTSTOOLS.

Chicago, Aug. 3.—Can anything be done about the oily-haired sheiks on the "L" train who sit on one seat and nonchalantly place their feet on the opposite one, depositing there all the dust they have gathered from the streets and floors? When these cavaliers finally condescend to allow one of us to sit, we do so, thus wiping off on our light summer clothing all the dust and dirt left there by these feet. This seat is then ready for the next gentleman who desires a footstool.

After nine hours' labor I am obliged to launder my dress for the following day before I can take a much needed rest. DISCOURAGED.

FARMS, NOT RANCHES.

Huron, S. D., July 31.—We note in a news item under a Huron date line that our farmers are called "ranchers." If there is anything which will make a South Dakotan mad, it is to call our perfectly good farms ranches. CHAS. H. J. MITCHELL.

THE PEOPLE'S CHOICE.

Chicago, Aug. 1.—You say, editorially, this morning, that in modern warfare "the censor and his brother craftsmen, the press agent," manufacture war heroes. That is true. Discouraging and true.

In the U. S. A. we have the world's minimum of martial demonstration, but we have its maximum of bloodless warfare annually, biennially, and quadrennially, during which the inseparable buddies, the censor and the press agent, manufacture political idols that are reverently worshiped and solemnly enshrined by a gullible paper majority.

Thus, the tocsin is now softly tolling their first alarm: "The pee-pul want Coo-lidge! The pee-pul love Coo-lidge!" And, as the fateful day of nomination approaches the tocsin's whispering peals will swell to frantic booms, and, at the zero hour burst out in terror inspiring clangs. The resultant echoes assure the desired, necessary confusion, so that Senators Borah [Rep.] and Jim Reed [Dem.], the really eligible, the genuinely worthy, the truly popular and logical candidates, shall be forgotten, because the jolly buddies have again successfully manufactured and appropriately presented America's most sacred political idol, the pee-pul's choice, Calvin Coolidge.

And, recently, the President deplored the fact that the majority of our people do not exercise their franchise rights. Hear! Hear! A. A. ROTHENGASS.

AN IDEAL CITY.

Chicago, Aug. 1.—To help make Chicago an ideal city the following suggestions are respectfully made:

1. Subways for pedestrians at all street intersections in the downtown district. These subways should be square with stairs leading from all four corners of the street intersection. In the center of each subway—that is, the part directly under the street—could be constructed public toilets. Then there could be confectionery and other concessions which would in a short time pay the entire expense of the improvement.

2. The river from Roosevelt road to Lake street—or connecting with Wacker drive—should be arched over with concrete and a roadbed built on it, making of it a beautiful broad highway. F. J. MCINTYRE.

NO PARKING.

Chicago, Aug. 2.—It is difficult to understand the action of the south park commissioners in stopping all parking on East Marquette road. Admitting that the boulevard is far too narrow for traffic, particularly since the advent of busses, there would seem only one logical course: to widen the street. Instead of that we who live on Marquette road are calmly informed "no parking." We may choose between a side street a block away or a very dirty alley in which to park our cars. JOHN P. LONG.

TWO KILLED, 17 INJURED IN AUTO MISHAPS OF DAY

Girl, 13, Is Victim of a Girl Driver, 18.

Two persons were killed and seventeen injured in automobile crashes in and near Cook county yesterday. One death in the county raised the motor toll since Jan. 1 to 486.

EVELYN BENTER.

Evelyn Benter, 13 years old, 3551 North Kedzie avenue, died of injuries received when she was struck by an automobile driven by Lillian Devan, 18 years old, 4837 North Gunnison avenue. The accident occurred at Elston and Kedzie avenues. Miss Devan was released on bonds after being booked on a charge of assault.

7 Chicagoans Hurt in Crash.

Seven Chicagoans were badly injured when two automobiles collided near Wauconda, Ill. E. P. Carlson, contractor, 4427 North Crawford avenue, driver of one of the cars, was probably fatally hurt when his automobile skidded into the other car and overturned.

Six occupants of the second machine were taken to hospitals. They are Mrs. James A. Walsh, 746 Junior terrace; her chauffeur, T. N. Endrige, 1842 Barry avenue; her maid, Miss Bridget Burbe, 25 years old; Mrs. H. Judy, 746 Junior terrace, her son, Adolph, 12 years old, and Mrs. Emma Cody.

3 Autos Collide; 8 Injured.

Three cars crashed together at 147th and Halsted streets and eight persons were injured. An automobile driven by Carl B. Schramm, chauffeur for Mrs. A. Crox, wife of a Terre Haute, Ind., millionaire, collided with cars driven by Sam Dorf, 1247 Independence boulevard, and Samuel Loewenstein of Newport, Ky.

Mrs. Crox, her sons, Frank and Joseph; Frances Hellman, a nurse; the Misses May and Margaret Barry, Dorf, and Loewenstein were injured.

Leo Lebolt, 18 years old, of Pontiac, was killed when his automobile turned over at a turn in a paved road seven miles east of Streator, Ill. Edward Wieczorek, 10 years old, 1409 South 50th court, Cicero, was injured when the automobile in which he was riding was struck by a Chicago, Milwaukee and St Paul railroad train.

AUTO TRAPPERS FACING FEDERAL INCOME QUERIES

Mrs. Reinecke Joins In Fight.

BY J. L. JENKINS.

Speed trap operators in Cook county were attacked from an entirely new quarter yesterday. Mabel Reinecke, U. S. collector of internal revenue in the Chicago district, ordered a district federal inquiry into the collection of illegal bond and court fees on motorists arrested in various villages.

This inquiry adds to those of Charles J. Mueller, assistant state's attorney, and the Chicago Motor club bureau.

Where it is found that a fee of $1 has been charged for the approval of a cash bond in motorist arrests or where justices and village magistrates have collected more than the legal $2 court costs in bond forfeiture cases, those collections are taxable under the income tax law, according to Mrs. Reinecke. In general, the investigators said, village officials do not make an income tax return, but they will be required to make a return on all illegal fees shown on their books and discovered by the speed trap inquiry.

Following the first checkup on village books, it is said the federal investigators plan to call village officials into the federal building and take their statements concerning fee collections.

One government man was dispatched late yesterday to make a special study of the Broadview village records and to quiz "Indian Joe" Huszar concerning his income.

In meeting bonds for his release on three criminal indictments Tuesday, it was disclosed that the Broadview chief and his wife own more than $45,000 worth of unincumbered property.

If it is found that Huszar is not an American citizen, his entire income will be taxable, according to the collector's office. Huszar first told the state's attorney that he was born in Colorado. Later he said that his citizenship papers are in order. Government agents announced that they will investigate fully.

Twenty-five victims of Specialville's alleged trap told their grievances to Prosecutor Mueller yesterday. The books of Elmwood Park, River Grove, and Phoenix were ordered in for review.

Wife, 62, Charges Former Blue Island Mayor Is Cruel

Mrs. Susanna Wessel, 62 years old, yesterday filed suit for separate maintenance against Julius A. Wessel, 67 years old, 3548 West 63d street, former mayor of Blue Island. She charged cruelty, stating that Wessel on one occasion threw a demijohn at her and several times threatened to kill her. She declared Wessel has property worth $200,000 and has a yearly income of $15,000.

Hot to cool you

A cold drink may give you temporary relief from the heat—but it takes a hot one to keep you cool.

Try it and see for yourself.

It gives you real relief from summer thirst.

And it keeps you fresh and wide awake all afternoon.

JAPAN Green Tea—the natural leaf, uncolored and unfermented—is put up for the home in packages under various well-known brand names in several grades and at several prices. The best you can buy will cost you only a fraction of a cent a cup.

Today—at noon

Less Natural than Notox

SCIENCE declares that gray hair, or canities, is a disease, and hence an unnatural condition. The only sure way to correct canities is to replace color in the inner fibres of the hair which canities has turned gray. And that is just what Notox does.

Hence the hair, after Notox has been applied, is far more natural than when it was gray.

The principle of canitic correction—the replacing of the color in the inner fibres of the hair, rather than merely painting over the gray as old fashioned coloring does—is the distinguishing feature of Notox.

And that new principle of Notox means that women are forever emancipated from the dread of the gray hair that encroach upon their beauty.

Notox is sold and applied at beauty shops; and sold in drug and department stores. The makers of Notox will, upon request, recommend a shop where you may have Notox expertly applied.

JUGOSLAVS WARN BULGARIA; REVEAL BORDER BATTLES

Many Dead and Wounded to Be Avenged.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

BELGRADE, Aug. 5.—The Jugo-Slav foreign office tonight issued a communique as follows:

"The raids of the Bulgarian guerrilla forces into the territory of the Serb, Croat, and Slovene kingdom have exceeded every measure. Agents sent by the Macedonian revolutionary committee from Bulgaria committed a series of murders in Jugo-Slav territory.

"At Strumitsa a soldier and civilian were killed and eight civilians were wounded. At Monastir the editor of a prominent newspaper was killed.

Battle at Frontier.

"A large guerrilla band at Kravana-planka on July 28, supported by Bulgarian authorities, staged a formal attack in Jugo-Slav territory after crossing the frontier. The leader was the Bulgarian, Janko Milchev, and among the members were Bulgarian gendarmes on active duty. Jugo-Slav soldiers and gendarmes advanced to meet them. Action developed, with the Bulgarians retreating under cover of darkness into Bulgarian territory.

"In this action two Jugo-Slav soldiers and two Serb peasants were killed. The Jugo-Slav government has instituted a comprehensive inquiry and will base its measures on the resulting evidence to protect the territory against this system of encroachment by armed Bulgarians. The government's decisions will be made in the shortest possible time."

Firm for Peace.

The communique describes the situation as quite serious, adding that the reports of the representations already made to foreign governments are incorrect. The communique concludes with the significant sentence:

"The Jugo-Slav government will take action for the sole purpose of eliminating all factors that disturb and endanger peace in the Balkans."

Hint of War.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

VIENNA Aug. 5.—A serious view was held in Vienna government circles tonight of developments in the Balkans.

Foreign Minister Marko Nintchitch, upon returning from a conference with King Alexander at Veldes today, said full agreement obtains between Jugo-Slavia and Roumania concerning the measures to be taken in regard to frontier raids. He added that it would be to Greece's interest to join Jugo-Slavia and Roumania.

FROM HUMBLE HOME TO PALACE AND RICHES FOR KEWANEE WORKER

JOHN COOPER.

Kewanee, Ill., Aug. 5.—[Special.]—From humble home to mansion summarizes the life romance which is soon to see wealth and happiness brought into the lives of Mr. and Mrs. John Cooper and their four children, who are now residing in a small apartment above a grocery store in Kewanee. On Sept. 18, this year, Mr. Cooper will have reached his thirty-third birthday and simultaneously he will come into one of the oldest and richest estates in Virginia, the old Bradford estate, left to him by his grandmother, Mrs. Mary Bradford.

According to word just received by Cooper from his attorneys in Wilmington, Del., the inheritance is estimated at $5,200,000 in cash and safe bonds and 16,000 acres of choice farming land.

PAROLING NOW IS ON MERIT BASIS, CLABAUGH SAYS

No Politics, New Chief Tells His Aids.

Paroles are hereafter to be meted out to inmates of Illinois penal institutions on the basis of merit exclusively. This was announced by Hinton G. Clabaugh, recently appointed by Gov. Small as head of the state division of pardons and paroles to succeed Will Colvin, to his subordinates at a conference in the parole board headquarters here yesterday.

"Gov. Small has assured me that I am to have a free hand, unhampered by personal friendships, politics, alliances, or other improper influences," Mr. Clabaugh told his aids. "If errors of judgment be made under these circumstances, the responsibility will be mine.

"The board will not act in review of the facts passed on by jury or of the sentence imposed. There will be fewer long winded legal arguments about cases that have been properly tried. Only newly discovered evidence, or circumstances occurring subsequent to conviction will be considered. The only question to be determined by the board is: What merit has the prisoner for parole since his sentence?"

Mr. Clabaugh declared that all agreements made with any prisoner in the past will be respected, provided such prisoners are well behaved and observe the rules and regulations.

Second Chance for None.

A paroled prisoner who consciously violates his parole will have no second chance, Mr. Clabaugh declared, adding, "And that is final."

"No prisoner will be given a parole without the prior knowledge of the law enforcing agencies who sent him to prison and of the representatives of those who suffered as result of his crime," the new director said. "Thus there will be opportunity for protest. state's attorneys, juries and judges will be complete publication of the act and of the reasons for it."

Records of all cases are to be kept at the office of the parole supervisor instead of at the institutions, it was announced. And policemen, sheriffs, state's attorneys, juries and judes will find consistent support in the parole board and not nullification of good work, Mr. Clabaugh said.

To Decide Justice First.

He declared that no request for a parole in behalf of a prisoner convicted of a serious crime will be granted "until the last question of the justice of it is decided."

THOMPSON ASKS FILIPINOS: "WHAT PRICE FREEDOM?"

[Copyright: 1926: By the New York Times.]

MANILA, P. I., Aug. 5.—Col. Carmi Thompson, President Colidge's investigator, has avoided discussion of Philippine independence, but he has tried in Manila and in his trips to the provinces, in private conversation with the leading Filipinos, to start them thinking of what "immediate, complete and absolute" independence actually means. They usually open the conversation by asking why America does not grant them independence. He reminds them that the revenues of the Philippines government in 1925 were only about $40,000,000, a little more than the United States army and navy spends here annually. Then he asks them where they would get the money to finance an army and navy in their own defense and to keep order within the islands if the United States removed its army and the navy's impregnable defenses at Corregidor, on which millions were spent.

Col. Thompson asks if they realize that once the Americans leave the islands they cannot return to protect the islands against a foreign attack, for there is no Monroe doctrine in the Pacific and the Americans would have no such rights here as in Central and South America.

Shows Danger of Freedom.

He inquires if the Filipinos realize the seriousness of the problem of getting money if their independence should be granted and American tariff barriers were erected against Philippine products, especially sugar, copra, and tobacco. They sell virtually all their products to the United States because they have free trade with America. If America put a tariff on sugar, for example, the United States probably would not buy a pound of Philippine sugar afterward because it could buy it cheaper in Cuba, with smaller transportation costs. It could buy tobacco, as well as copra and other cocoanut products, cheaper elsewhere in the far east, because common agricultural labor in the Philippine costs 40 to 60 cents a day, against 20 to 35 cents in other oriental countries.

Some Filipinos at last seem to understand that such a situation would present the alternatives of widespread unemployment and consequent agricultural and commercial chaos, or the reduction of wages and the standard of living for Filipino labor to the level of the Chinese, Indians, and Japanese. American capital fears a civil war if the Philippines gain independence, and refuse to help develop the natural resources of the islands. It is held that the resulting economic depression would mean civil strife.

Fail to Draw Capital.

Although the Filipino leaders insist they have established a stable government and should have independence under the "sacred promise" of the Jones law preamble, they have shown lack of financial training and the ability to maintain a government of their own by the fiasco in running the Philippine national bank and other government business enterprises before Gov. Gen. Leonard Wood cleaned up. Their failure to obtain the aid of outside capital to develop their natural resources of rubber and other tropical products also bears out this view.

Americans here point out that while the United States has encouraged the Filipinos to expect independence it has not set the date.

Many leading Filipinos seem to realize the danger of complete and immediate independence. Senator Osmena, just back from Washington, in his speeches in Manila has been counseling moderation and emphasizing the advantages of the Canadian form of government.

Some leading Filipinos say privately that the country really prefers a dominion government like those of Canada and Australia, with America retaining the army and navy, free trade with the States, local self-government, American control of foreign affairs and a Filipino governor with an American resident commissioner. They are willing to risk independence, however, rather than have the present noncooperation between the governor and the legislature.

FORTY PLANES ON RELIABILITY TOUR HERE TOMORROW

Committee of 100 to Greet Flyers.

A reception committee of 100 citizens was invited yesterday by President William R. Dawes of the Chicago Association of Commerce to greet the forty manufacturers en route here on the commercial airplane reliability tour of 1926. The forty planes will arrive tomorrow at 3:45 p. m. and are scheduled to leave Sunday at 1:30 p. m.

The 2,600 mile tour will begin at Detroit tomorrow morning and will cover the north Mississippi valley before the planes return to their starting point. Stops are to be made at cities in Michigan, Illinois, Missouri and Minnesota.

George B. Foster, chairman of the aviation committee of the Association of Commerce, was designated to lead the welcome to the flyers as they land at Maywood field. For the remainder of the day and on Sunday morning the squadron will be open to public inspection on the field runways.

Each of the forty pilots will be presented with a Red Cross medal in the name of the Chicago chapter of the organization. Miss Mae Greene, chosen "Miss Chicago of 1926" for the Atlantic City beauty pageant, will make the presentations Sunday noon.

A total of $24,000 in prizes has been subscribed for various points of efficiency attained by pilots during the flight. A group of Chicago automobile dealers has subscribed $1,000 to reward the pilot of the plane which performs the best on the tour.

Each pilot is required to meet certain specifications, such as safety landings, stick control, engine displacement and capacity load carrying. These points will be checked on arrival and departure here.

Disabled Vets Warn City Business Men of Fakers

The Illinois department of the Disabled American Veterans of the World War warned business men yesterday that no campaign for funds is being carried on now for that organization and the department headquarters are at 123 West Madison street, Dearborn 6193.

MAID TELLS OF MURDER HINTS IN HALL HOME

Claims Widow Was Not Surprised by Tidings.

Somerville, N. J., Aug. 5.—[Special.]—That the Hall household had, apparently, positive information of the murder of the Rev. Dr. Edward Wheeler Hall and his sweetheart choir singer before the bodies were discovered side by side in the woods four years ago was the startling revelation made today by Louise Geist Riehl, former maid in the minister's establishment.

Today Mrs. Riehl was closeted with Prosecutor Simpson for three hours. She admitted, according to Simpson, that before the bodies of Dr. Hall and Mrs. Mills were discovered Maria Gildea, the Hall cook, remarked: "He's been murdered."

How Widow Received News.

Mrs. Hall also appeared to have information about her husband's death and was not surprised when her cousin, Henry Carpender, brought the sad tidings to the Hall home, according to the prosecutor's latest information. Carpender, Mrs. Riehl said, entered the Hall mansion at 1 p. m. on the Saturday of the discovery of the bodies.

"It's just as you said," Carpender told Mrs. Hall, according to the Riehl woman.

"I knew it—I knew it," Mrs. Hall replied, so Mrs. Riehl related, adding that Mrs. Hall showed no emotion at the news of her husband's death.

Mrs. Riehl further developed this evidence of information in the Hall home by citing a remark made by Mrs. Hall on the Friday night following the murder and more than twelve hours before the bodies were found.

Prosecutor Is Satisfied.

Mrs. Hall was going to bed. Willie Stevens, her mentally backward brother, said: "Are you going to bed?" in evident surprise that she would retire, still uncertain of her husband's fate.

"Yes, I'm going to bed," Mrs. Hall replied, according to the maid. "I know he won't come home tonight."

Simpson was plainly satisfied with Mrs. Riehl's story, although he declined to reveal all that she told him.

"She didn't try to hide anything," he said. "Whether she realized its importance or not, she told much about the condition of affairs that existed in the Hall home. She denied the charges made in her husband's affidavit, 'that she had known Dr. Hall intimately and that she had told him (her husband) while intoxicated that she knew a great deal about the Hall murder.'"

Round Up Other Servants.

The state police have rounded up the other servants who lived in the Hall home and Simpson will question them tomorrow in the Somerville courthouse. These include Barbara Tough, a maid; Peter Tumulty, a chauffeur, and Maria Gildea, the cook. Mrs. Gildea was not questioned in the investigation four years ago.

Mrs. Riehl said today she had never received a cent from Mrs. Hall except her wages. She denied reports that she owned real estate and that some one held real estate in trust for her.

The expected arrests of Ralph Gorsline, vestryman in Dr. Hall's church, and Nellie Russell, a Negress, did not materialize. Simpson had announced that he had obtained warrants for them, but there had been a mixup on service. Meantime, he had learned that Gorsline is still in the state and not contemplating departing, so Simpson told state troopers not to take him in custody unless he made a move toward the border. The case of Mrs. Russell is still pending, but Simpson was indefinite regarding whether she will be taken as a material witness.

TWO MORE JAIL GUARDS OUT; ONE FIRED, ONE QUITS

Two more guards at the county jail left the service of that institution yesterday, one being discharged and the other tendering his resignation because he objected to being transferred from one part of the jail to another.

Robert R. Householder, 6848 Yale avenue, who has been a guard since February, 1925, was ordered discharged by Warden George Weideling because he was found to have received and borrowed money from the inmates and to have sold sugar and other articles to the prisoners.

According to Warden Weideling, Householder obtained $50 from Robert Doering, a prisoner awaiting deportation proceedings, to have him transferred to Oak Forest infirmary because of lung trouble. Doering was transferred, but it was done through the influence of his relatives and when the prisoner heard of this he complained that the guard had taken his money for nothing.

Willard O. Hatch, 2424 Canton street, objected to being moved from the fifth tier to another section of the jail and when he threatened to resign, the warden informed him that his resignation was accepted.

The jail advisory committee, which is to select a successor to Weideling, announced yesterday that a meeting would be held Monday to sift out the applications for the $5,000 position.

Youth Is Given 14 Years for Killing His Mother

John Manion, 25 years old, was sentenced to the penitentiary yesterday by Judge William N. Gemmill after he had entered a plea of guilty to the killing of his mother, Mrs. Bridget White, when she attempted to prevent him from injuring a brother of her second husband. He was given the minimum sentence of 14 years.

John White, 46 years old, a brother-in-law of Mrs. White, was attempting to throw Manion from the house after a quarrel over moonshine, according to the evidence. Manion seized a knife during the struggle and the blow he intended for White caused the death of his mother.

Piano Recital Draws Elmer's Special Praise

Singer Shares Plaudits; Other Programs.

BY ELMER DOUGLASS.

This morning we have some fine recitals, also something about the lesser things to think about.

Piano music swept down upon us seemingly from everywhere during the 7 to 8 hour, but towering above these and above everything else on the air was the piano recital by radio's good friend, Moissaye Boguslawski at KYW.

Last evening Mr. Boguslawski chose the graceful and fanciful compositions for his program pattern. There were fluent curves, rapid curves, graceful curves gathered from Scarlatti, Schumann, Chopin, and a goodly list of difficult Paganini-Lizst selections. But it was not alone the works, but the pur tones, the grace and poetry of the intrepretations that made this a rarely artistic event.

The recital by Marie Sidenius Zendt, soprano, WMAQ, 8:20, somehow made this listener think of the yesterdays, and this not from the nature of the songs but perhaps from a certain mellow quality of the singer's voice.

Chopin's Trio in G Minor, opus 8, played by the Whitney instrumental trio, WMAQ, 8:55 to 9:20, was immensely interesting. This appeared to be a vivacious piano sonata with incidental accompaniment by violin and cello.

W-G-N's two hour [8to -0] programs from New York were nothing more pretentious than entertainment of the kind to catch listeners, and as such it must be classed as completely successful.

Once again: The word pianist is pronounced pi-AN-ist, not PE-anist.

A new announcer at WJAZ, 9:45—thanks. Pleasing voice. But he stated the playing of a certain selection was dedicated to himself—bad! Also, for his information, "The Last Rose of Summer" was not by Auer, but only arranged by him.

Certain announcers repeat the name of the station accompanist preceding and following every selection. This becomes monotonous, and I believe the reaction is one that is prejudicial to the accompanist.

HELD AS SLAYER OF E. H. PARR; CALLED INSANE

Fletcher P. Andrews, 30 years old, was held to the grand jury on a charge of murder yesterday by a coroner's jury investigating the death of Edward H. Parr, 4555 Malden street, a broker. Mrs. Erma Parr, 29 years old, testified that Andrews had shot her and her husband Monday night as they were walking along Wilson avenue on their way home from a theater. Parr, who was 33 years old, died at the Lutheran Memorial hospital early yesterday.

Andrews, who lives at 4448 Magnolia avenue, told police after the shooting that he thought Parr had made slighting remarks about him. He was declared insane by Dr. Willis J. Hickson of the municipal psychopathic laboratory after an examination.

U. S. JUDGE CLIFFE SHUTS 32 SHOPS AS RUM SELLERS

Federal Judge Adam C. Cliffe, on the last part of his assignment to such cases here, yesterday maintained his average when he ordered temporary injunctions against 32 more miscellaneous booze joints in Chicago and Evanston.

Judge Cliffe will take over the bankruptcy call at the beginning of the fall term of federal court next month. In this capacity he will hear booze cases in emergency instances only.

RADIO PROGRAMS FOR TODAY

(Friday, Aug. 6.) (Chicago Daylight Saving Time.)

TONIGHT'S novelties on W-G-N, THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE radio station on the Drake hotel, include Paul Ash's broadcast from the Oriental theater. This well known orchestra leader will give his entire show on W-G-N at 7:15 o'clock. The headliners to be heard this evening are: Ben Blue, comedian; George Reilly, tenor; Maurine Marseilles, soprano, and Paul Small, tenor.

Cameron Marshall, baritone, is to give a program on W-G-N at 8 o'clock tonight. The selections he will offer are: "To the Sun," by Curran; "The Sea," by MacDowell; "Star Eyes," by Speaks; "Were You There," by Burleigh; "Swing Low Sweet Chariot," "Ah Mio Cor," by Handel, and "Sun-Land," by Tours.

"The Phantom Violin," who appears before the W-G-N microphone every Friday at 9:30 p. m. will be heard tonight as usual. Listeners wishing to have him play their favorite classical numbers are invited to send in their requests.

At 10:20 o'clock tonight another Bible reading will be given by Bill Hay. These have proved so popular that hereafter they will be presented every Sunday, Tuesday, and Friday night.

The Anglo-Persians, under direction of Louis Katzman will be heard in a half hour's program at 9 p. m. In response to several requests, "The Song of India," will be played. Other feature selections will be "Nocturne, Opus 9 No. 2," by Chopin, and "Nola."

BRITISH AIRMAN FINISHES FLIGHT TO AUSTRALIA

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

MELBOURNE, Australia, Aug. 5.—In fine weather, with a southeast breeze steadying his seaplane, Alan Cobham, the famous British airman, descended at Darwin Heads at 2:50 p. m. today.

As if paying homage to another great airman, Mr. Cobham circled over the Ross Smith memorial a few times, then alighted gracefully on the waters of Fannie bay.

The acting administrator formally welcomed the flyer and read a message of congratulation from Maj. Gen. Sir T. W. Glasgow, minister of territories.

After wheels were fitted to the plane it was taken to the naval aviation grounds, where a guard will watch it through the night.

Golden brown corn flakes, crisp and fresh from the toasting ovens, Post Toasties bring you the natural flavor of the corn.
Their crispness and flavor are carefully protected by three wrappings. That's why they are in such prime condition when they reach your table.
Be sure you get the genuine Post Toasties, the original Double-Thick Corn Flakes. Ask for them by name and look for the famous red and yellow package.
Millions prefer Post Toasties for their delicious flavor and their oven-crispness. Make the Milk or Cream Test and know the luxury of corn flakes that stay crisp in milk or cream.
How to make the test:
Order some Post Toasties at the grocer's or send for a free test package. Open the red and yellow carton and shower some of the golden, crisp flakes into a bowl.
Now add milk or cream and test these Double-Thick corn flakes critically for crispness and flavor.
With the first spoonful you'll experience a new cereal delight. You'll love that natural corn flavor. And you'll note how even the last few flakes at the bottom of the bowl still hold their delicious crispness.
Note: Be sure you get the genuine Post Toasties in the red and yellow, wax-wrapped packages. Ask for them by name and look for the Post Health Products Seal.

Scraggy Neck
at Cataumet on Buzzards Bay
CAPE COD
HAVE you summered in New England on Cape Cod? Then perhaps you know its beauty, its safe and pleasant swimming and sailing, its restful, kindly climate, its congenial charming life.
But even if you know Cape Cod, you may not know Cataumet. It is a quiet village off the main highways. Its very existence has been almost a private secret with the small circle of congenial families whose spacious homes stand on its headlands, whose broad lawns stretch down to the shore, whose small boats dot its landlocked waters.
A real estate "development" of the familiar speculative type would be most unwelcome here, but the opening of Scraggy Neck is guarded with rigid social and building restrictions. Land is offered only in good-sized pieces and these are not cheap—yet reasonable at $4000.00 and upwards.
Scraggy Neck at Cataumet is worth knowing more about. Here are almost 350 acres of wood and downland almost an island yet connected with the mainland, 3½ miles of high, breezy shores, bathing beach and anchorage facilities reserved permanently for purchasers, good, nay excellent, golf within a fifteen minute ride, and the business district of Boston but 61 miles away.
It will not obligate you to ask for more information. Tear out this advertisement and hand it to your secretary with instructions to write us for an illustrated description of Scraggy Neck.
You'll enjoy reading it.

DANISH FARMER SOLVES PROBLEM OF MAKING MONEY

BY JOHN STEELE.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

[Copyright: 1926: By The Chicago Tribune.]

LONDON, Aug. 5.—"The Danish farmers have come nearer to solving the problem of profitable farming than any other people, and have many lessons to teach America."

This is the opinion of former Gov. Frank O. Lowden of Illinois, who just has completed a trip through Denmark and Sweden, studying farm and forestry problems, on which I accompanied him.

The secret of this farm success is that the Danish farmer is a business man and not a politician, and has learned how to apply big scale business methods to farming, even on a small scale, without the help of legislatures or interference of politicians. He has done it through development of coöperative buying and marketing. So complete is the network of coöperative enterprises now covering Denmark that it is estimated that ninety per cent of the Danish farmers belong.

The ten per cent on the outside consists almost entirely of the large estate owners, who are able to secure for themselves the benefits which the smaller men obtain through joint effort.

Danish Farmer Suffers Little.

The lesson for the American farmer, who is clamoring for state aided or state enforced "coöperation," is that he can accomplish all that is needed much better by voluntary coöperation. In fact, the Danish farmer would not understand what is meant by compulsory coöperation. The result is that while the Danish farmer complains, like every other farmer of the world, about the wide slump in agricultural prices, he suffers less than any other farmer.

This is shown in Danish bankruptcy statistics, from which farmers are almost entirely absent, and in the evident prosperity on the farms and in the houses we inspected in all parts of Denmark. On the whole trip we did not see a single farm run down or allowed to go out of cultivation. Everywhere the land was under flourishing crops, telling a story of ample expenditure of both labor and manure and indicating careful, intelligent farming by holders, practically all of whom own the land.

The coöperative movement in Denmark dates back to the loss of the province of Schleswig, when the patriotic Danes determined to make up for their loss in territory by rendering what was left more productive.

Danes Needed Little Help.

The first step was to break up the large estates and establish peasant freeholders on the land. But it was realized that if the small farmers were to get as much out of the land as the big estate owners, they must organize to obtain the benefits, first, of large scale buying, and then of large scale marketing, which the big owners enjoyed.

About the same time came the great development of the export market for dairy and pork products in England, giving impetus to the movement. It was comparatively easy to start the movement in Denmark, where the peasants had a tradition of mutual help and village self-government. The village bull has been an institution in Denmark as far back as records go, and in the old days it was the custom of the peasants to meet to decide what crops to plant, when to harvest, etc., and for all to help in the harvest. The Danes, therefore, needed little teaching as to the benefits of coöperation.

The movement began on the consumers' side, the farmers in the various districts organizing for the purchase of manures, seeds and agricultural implements, but it soon spread to the marketing side, and now it is no uncommon thing for a man to belong to a dozen coöperatives

Latest statistics show that there now are in Denmark about 1,500 coöperative consumers' distributive societies, more than 1,200 dairy societies, and about 50 bacon factories. The dairy societies include more than ninety per cent of all the cows in Denmark and the bacon factories slaughter about the same percentage of the hogs. While all are linked together by a central coöperative at Copenhagen, each society is entirely autonomous. The central office functions only in compiling statistics and acquiring information, which is distributed among the members, both with regard to world prices and new developments in agriculture.

Local managers are chosen by the members of the societies, and local societies are under local control.

Members Free to Quit.

With regard to the contracts, any member is free to withdraw from any society at any time, taking his share of the capital.

In the event of new enterprises requiring capital, such as dairies or bacon factories, it is customary for the members to bind themselves for a term, usually five years, to turn in all their butter or hogs to the coöperative, but such contracts are purely voluntary and are treated by the courts on the same basis as any other commercial contract.

Buys $5,000,000 Sanitary Bonds at Record High Price

The Illinois Merchants Trust company was the highest of four bidders yesterday for the $5,000,000 4½ per cent sewage disposal bond issue of the sanitary district and was awarded the contract. The bonds sold for $5,106,280 or $2.12½ above par, one cent and a half per $100 more than any previous sale. The losing bidders were A. B. Leach at $5,098,888, the Northern Trust company at $5,095,445, and the National City company at $5,084,885.

The Outdoors Is Yours!

Your own car makes the whole country yours—with its peace of color and coolness. Not far from your own home are scenic treasures—adventure—fun—and romance. Find them! Follow the shores of sapphire lakes! Stop to fish in their cold clear depths. Drink in the fragrance of wild flowers and scented meadows!

You will find color wherever you go—green of forests—gold of wheat fields—blue waters of lake and stream—crimson of flaming sunsets. And always the promise of the unknown luring you on! Below is a suggestion of the rich treasure of the Middle West.

1—Prairie du Rocher, Illinois, the only town in the United States having a commons on the old French plan. Church records date back to 1720. House of first governor of Illinois where La Fayette was entertained used as post office. Near Evansville on State Highway No. 3.
2—Sully's Hill, an important wild animal preserve in North Dakota. State Highways No. 34 and No. 20.
3—Lecompton, Kansas, where the "Lecompton Constitution" was framed in 1857. View of Kansas and Delaware Rivers from the bluffs. Near Big Spring on Union Pacific Highway No. 10.
4—Storm Lake, Iowa, a beautiful resort region. State Highways No. 4 and No. 5.
5—Indian fortifications north of Fourteen Mile Creek, Indiana. Peculiar formation over 200 feet high and in one place hardly a rod wide. Near Charlestown on Wonderland Way No. 24 from Madison.
6—Mount Baldy, one of the largest sand dunes in the world, at Saugatuck, Michigan. State Highway No. 11.
7—Mille Lacs District in Minnesota, where the pine forests and oak forests meet. Fishing is very good in this district. State Highway No. 18 from Brainerd follows the shore of Mille Lac.
8—Sibley, Missouri, where Fort Osage was established in 1809, during Osage Indian War, one of the eastern terminals of the old Santa Fe Trail. Near Buckner on National Old Trails Road No. 6.
9—Trempeauleau Mountain, Wisconsin, where Perrot, the French explorer, landed in 1685. Name derived from the French meaning "the hill which soaks in the water." Bold piece of scenery. State Highway No. 162 from Holmen.
10—Crystal Cave, near Sturgis, South Dakota, with 1,500 chambers of mystic beauty. Via Piedmont, State Highway No. 30.

Discovering scenic treasures for yourself is the best sport of all. It's easy to do for splendid highways weave their pattern smoothness over the entire Middle West. The outdoors is yours! BY WESTBROOK PEGLER.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Philadelphia, Pa., Aug. 5.—The Cubs won another game today, 6 to 1, on Mr. Will Baker's town property, where the right fielder breathes down the first baseman's neck and the wrong note on a Jew's harp is likely to shake down the grandstand the first time any one plunks the wrong note on a Jew's harp.

CLIFF HEATHCOTE.

Through mild flurries of stove-lids, rain spouts, I-beams and miscellaneous iron mongery, shaken down from the structure by occasional foul balls landing on the roof, the customers glimpsed a gust of activity by the Cubs in the eighth, which scored three runs and gave them more than sufficient capital to win after the Phils had held a mild lead for two innings.

Cliff's Double Scores Two.

Tolson was appointed to start the trouble in the eighth, batting in place of Mike Gonzales, the Cuban aristocrat. Tolson singled to center and McCarthy sent Scott out to do the legwork for him. Then Joe Kelly was nominated in place of Charley Root, and he singled to left.

Sparky Adams busted along the third base line and Ulrich made the play for Scott, who beat the toss to third by enough time to outgrow a suit of clothes. So the bases were full with none out and Schreiber jogged to second to run for Kelly. Heathcote's double over the tips of Wrightstone's fingers in left field was the next, and also the winning gesture of the entertainment, for it scored Scott and Schreiber. Adams went to third in the general migration.

Bases Remain Crowded.

Ulrich walked Stephenson, filling the bases again, with nobody out even now. What happened after that has nothing to do with the winning of the ball game, but, to make no secret of it, Hack Wilson flied to Wrightstone, scoring Adams; Grimm was passed intentionally, and Freigau hit into a double play, Ulrich to Henline, who cut off Adams at the plate, to Bentley, who got Freigau at first.

Gabby Hartnett, the garrulous catcher, who hit a home run in the ninth inning of Wednesday's game with one runner on ahead of him, repeated this ante in the ninth inning today with Cooney on second and nobody out. George Milstead, who had taken up Charlie Root's pitching work after that shakeup in the eighth, struck out. Then Heine Sand made a hard job of Adams' grounder and Sparky was safer than he should have been. Adams stole second, went to third on Heathcote's out, and scored the last run of the game when Stephenson singled against the right field wall.

Phils Score in Sixth.

Mr. Will Baker's employés scored their run in the sixth on three hits, including one by Jack Bentley, the abandoned left handed pitcher. Cy Williams raised a fly and was out for the first time in his last ten excursions to the batting tee. Wrightstone singled, Leach fouled out, and Bentley singled to Wilson in center, who sparred with the ball, letting Wrightstone go to third. Henline then singled to center, scoring Wrightstone, but Huber was out, Adams to Cooney.

THE GUMPS—GOING, GOING, ETC.

Glick and Anderson Draw; O'Connell Beats Valgar

BY WALTER ECKERSALL.

Joe Glick, the New York featherweight, and Eddie Anderson, the Wyoming cowboy, boxed ten rounds to a draw in the windup of the boxing show staged last night by Paddy Driscoll at the Cermak-Mills stadium on the west side.

The decision of Referee Tom Loftus, however, did not go well with the fans. Glick scored two clean knockdowns and did by far the greater damage. In the fourth round Joe caught Eddie on the jaw with a left hook and Anderson took a four count. In the eighth Glick ripped in a short left uppercut and again Eddie hit the canvas. He was up at the count of two.

Throughout the fight Glick either jabbed or hooked his left to Anderson's head and body without returns. At times Eddie rallied and planted stiff punches to Glick's body, but the blows did not even slow up the New Yorker.

It was a fast and clever fight, featured by several rallies during which the fighters stood toe to toe and let go with both hands. They weighed 128 pounds at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

In the semi-windup Charley O'Connell, the Cleveland lightweight, was awarded the decision over Benny Valgar, formerly of New York, but now of Chicago. Referee Davie Miller's decision was not popular and to all appearances it looked as if the bout should have been a draw or the decision given to Valgar. O'Connell crossed his right to Benny's jaw several times, but Valgar more than offset this work by retaliating with straight lefts to the head and body. They scaled 135 pounds.

In the opening bout of six rounds Joe Medill, the local junior lightweight, won the decision over Ralph Mendoza, the Mexican 130 pounder. Medill had a slight shade in every round and was the master of the situation at long range. The Mexican did his best at close quarters. They weighed 130 pounds.

Ernie Peters, the local 112 pounder who is seeking a match with Fidel La Barba, the oyweight champion, and Fernando Gonzales, the Mexican, went six fast rounds to a draw in the second preliminary. They weighed 112 pounds.

Haakon Hansen, the Norwegian welterweight, won the referee's decision over Marshall Leach of Gary, Ind., in the third opener. Leach scored a clean knockdown in the third round, but Hansen weathered the session and from then carried the fight to his opponent. In the fifth round Hansen scored a knockdown and had his opponent in a bad way when the final bell was rung. They weighed 147 pounds.

About 6,000 fans paid approximately $12,000 to see the show. Promoters said about 3,000 were turned away because of a shortage of ringside seats.

FARRELL AND SARAZEN LEAD CANADIAN OPEN

Montreal, Que., Aug. 6.—[U. N.]—The first day's round in the Canadian Open Golf championship on the Royal Montreal Golf club, ended with two New Yorkers, Johnny Farrell and Gene Sarazen, bidding strongly for the Dominion title now held by Leo Diegel. Both negotiated the 18 holes in 69.

MacDonald Smith turned in a 71. R. Cunningham of Catarqui, Ont., and Tommy Armour of Washington had 72's. Diegel had a 73, which is par for the course.

Bill Mehlhorn, suffering from a sore hand, scratched. Others who scratched included John Battanpa, Lakeville, N. Y.; M. Forest, Lowell, Mass.; J. D. Scott, Rochester, N. Y; Bobby Cruikshank, Purchase, N. Y.; A. Kenney, Rochester, N. Y.; James Law, Cherry Valley, L. I., and Carroll Stuart, Chicago.

Eleven golfers who turned in 75's were: C. R. Murray and N. Young, Montreal; W. L. Klein, Wheatley Hills, L. I.; George M. Christ, Rochester, N. Y.; William Creavy, Bonnie Briar; N. Y.; Fred Hunt, Brantford, Ont.; N. Y.; Fred Hunt, Brantford, Ont.; N. Y.; Joe Turnesa, Fairview, N. Y.; W. Lamb, Toronto; Frank Locke, Quebec, and C. F. McKenna, Irondequoit, Que.

Dr. Max Feldman Named Examiner for Ring Board

Dr. Max Feldman, with an office at 1657 West Madison street, received notice of his appointment to the medical examining board of the Illinois State Boxing commission, yesterday. In the letter accompanying his credentials Dr. Feldman was notified his appointment was for one year dating from July 31.

DEMPSEY MEETS WILLS, GRINS AND SHAKES HANDS

Crowd Cheers Harry; Rickard Pouts.

New York, Aug. 5.—(Special.)—Jack Dempsey and Harry Wills met tonight in Madison Square Garden. Their meeting was near a roped square. But there were no gloves and no flying fists involved. They merely shook hands, exchanged greetings, smiled broadly, and then parted.

Dempsey was the guest of Tex Rickard at the weekly show in a ringside seat. Wills moved toward the arena after Dempsey had arrived, and accompanying him was squat Lew Raymond.

Crowd Cheers Harry.

The crowd had cheered Dempsey generously when he arrived, but at the spectacle of his rival advancing on the ringside the gathering went wild. The demonstration for Wills far exceeded that accorded Dempsey.

Straight down to the ringside to the section where Dempsey was sitting marched Raymond with Wills in tow. The meeting was inevitable. Dempsey arose smiling and, as Wills stuck out his hand, extended his own for a friendly greeting. The crowd yelled itself hoarse.

"How are you, Harry?" said the champion.

"I'm fine, Jack; how are you?" said Wills.

Then the pair separated.

Rickard Calls It Plant.

Rickard suppressed his emotions as the meeting occurred, but in an interview after the fights were over and when the crowd had departed went into a rage over the affair. He characterized the affair as but another chapter in a studied campaign to force a fight between Dempsey and Wills. He declared he would bar Lew Raymond from Madison Square for his part in the affair.

"It was a plant," Rickard said. "Why should Wills be paraded down to the ringside section? His ticket called for a seat in the back. It was all prearranged. We are all fortunate that we escaped a riot."

CLEMENTS POSTS $300,000

B. E. Clements, president of the Coliseum club, yesterday posted with the Equitable Trust and Savings bank, 2218 South Michigan avenue, $300,000, which he calls partial payment for Jack Dempsey's contract to meet Harry Wills in Chicago. Matchmaker Krone said the Coliseum club put up $100,000, the Ald. McDonough syndicate $100,000 and Attorney Benjamin Cohen gave the remaining $100,000.

While Clements and the Coliseum club go ahead with plans for a Dempsey-Wills match, the boxing commission stands firm on its ruling that heavyweight bouts are barred here. Chairman O. W. Huncke says there isn't a chance of rescinding the rule at the present time.

WORLD ATHLETIC BODY DISAGREES ON GIRLS' SPORTS

BY PIET VAN 'T VEER.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

THE HAGUE, Aug. 5.—The eighth congress of the International Amateur Athletic federation opened today under the presidency of J. S. Edstroem of Sweden. The Dutch minister of education, Dr. Waszink, delivered the opening address, welcoming the delegates. America was represented by Col. Thompson, Mr. Hulbert, Mr. McCabe, and Mr. Robertson.

It was decided to request the International Olympic committee to add women's events to the 1928 program as follows:

100 meter dash, 800 meter run, high jump, discus throw, 400 meter relay. The American delegates voted against the proposal.

The discussion ended in an American proposal that international university students' competitions might be considered under certain circumstances as closed competitions, but the conference did not agree.

Wallace and Lloyd Win in Buffalo Golf

Buffalo, N. Y., Aug. 5.—(AP)—A day of close competition, climaxed by a stirring 22 hole match between Joe Ford of New York City and Edward Curtin of Newark, N. J., reduced the filed remaining in the running for the national public links golf championship to eight. These survivors, as paired for tomorrow's matches, follow:

Lester Bolstad, Minneapolis, vs. William Wallace, Chicago; Stanley Ford, Detroit, vs. Joseph Ford, New York City; Ted Lloyd, Chicago, vs. Richard Walsh, New York City; Carl Kauffmann, Pittsburgh, vs. Nick D'Onofrio, New York City.

Ford and Curtin Play 22 Holes.

The Ford-Curtin match was a thriller all the way. Ford ran down a 70 foot putt on the 18th green to win the hole and square the match with a birdie three. Then he followed with a ten footer on the nineteenth for a halve when it looked like Curtin's match with his third close to the pin.

The twentieth was halved and Ford missed a ten inch putt on the 21st, but got a 4 to Curtin's 5 on the 22d.

Jennings' Putting Costs Match.

In the first round Ford defeated J. J. Jennings of Chicago, 1 up, and Clark Morse of St. Louis defeated David O'Connor of Chicago, 4 and 3. Three putts on the last green cost Jennings victory. Second round summaries:

C. Kauffmann, Pittsburgh, defeated J. Schultz, Philadelphia, 6 and 4.

KING GEORGE'S YACHT FINISHES FOURTH AT COWES

[Copyright: 1926: By the New York Times.]

LONDON, Aug. 5.—There was no royal road to victory in today's races at the Cowes regatta. King George's Britannia came fourth in a handicap race for big yachts, being beaten for third place by White Heather by a few seconds.

Prince Olaf of Norway, who was at the helm of his yacht Oslo in the race for the six meter class, had a stroke of bad luck when he was carried by the tide across the line a few minutes before the starting gun was fired. It took him an hour to get back, and, although he sailed the course, he couldn't overcome the lead of the other yachts.

IN THE WAKE OF THE NEWS

DEMPSEY IN RING.

WHEN doubt was expressed on all sides that Jack Dempsey ever would fight again, The Wake clung to the opinion he would. Our reason was that champions seldom retire undefeated. There is something in human nature whereby one cannot see as well as others that he has gone back. Perhaps Jim Jeffries was one of the best examples, dragged as a "white hope" from five years' retirement to meet Jack Johnson and defeat.

So we thought that sooner or later Dempsey would step forth for at least one more defense of his title. That view apparently is about to be realized, but we admit the reason more impelling than the one which we relied on is that Dempsey can use ready cash. Jack's real estate and hotel ventures did not prove what he had anticipated. So, believe it or not, the man to whom Tex Rickard already has paid in the neighborhood of $1,000,000 for ring appearances can use ready cash.

There is another point in connection with Dempsey. Instead of having ten or fifteen pounds excess weight to train off, Jack now weighs about 190 pounds. Most handlers would prefer he weighed 200 or 205 pounds at the beginning of his grind. He looks well, but not tiptop compared to the Dempsey of, say, five or six years ago.

Suzanne in France.

French tennis officials do not take kindly to Mlle. Lenglen's pro venture. That was to be expected. Suzanne was the most prominent "Frenchman" in the world's eye. As a pro, her halo is less bright. But Suzanne, with self-interest on her side, replies she has played for France long enough. Now she will play for francs.

Here's No Quitter.

Dear Harvey: About 15 or 20 years ago, playing old Westward Ho, our foursome came to the pond. The other three drove into the water, whereupon I told them I would show them how to play it. Well, I drove four into the drink and how they chaffed me was plenty. Did I give up golf? I should say not, and here I am at 65 just as much in love with the game as ever. I know of no better way to spend an afternoon than with three good fellows, a small wager on each hole, a hot shower, and then something to relieve a parched throat.

Heard On the Bus.

Two little girls about 8 years old sat in front of me on the top deck of a bus. Something blew into the eye of one, and after she had attempted in vain to remove it, I leaned over and told her to "pull your lid down." She immediately pulled her hat down over her eyes. O, these slangy youngsters! Ethel Mc.

Ohio Supreme Court Holds Race Betting Is Gambling

Columbus, O., Aug. 5.—(AP)—Holding race track betting to be gambling, Chief Justice Carrington T. Marshall of the state Supreme court today granted a temporary order restraining the Thistle Down company of Cleveland, owner of the Thistle Down race course near Cleveland, from permitting its property to be used for such purposes.

It is the first time a judge of the state's highest judicial tribunal has held the form of wagering as is now conducted at the various race courses in the state is gambling and therefore outlawed.

OLD NICK RECALLS HIS YOUTH AND RIDES 2 WINNERS

Almost Scores a Third in Rejuvenation.

BY FRENCH LANE.

In the running of an all claiming program at Washington Park yesterday, Old Nick Burger who usually spends the afternoon spinning yarns to the young jockeys about the great buffalo hunt or a skirmish with Sitting Bull, suddenly became rejuvenated and before the curtain went down, came bounding home aboard two winners and was second, beaten by the narrowest of margins, on another.

JOCKEY SCHAEFER

Even Old Nick as he staggered back into the jockey's room after getting home in front with Captain Haney, his second success and the prize long shot of the day, couldn't explain his sudden rise to fame. But to the old timers on the lawn, who watched numerous favorites bowled over, it looked like some of the folks at Washington Park were beginning to gather in the getaway money.

Phantom Fire Takes Feature.

The race which occupied the feature spot on the card was a sprint affair at six furlongs and while Old Nick did not get into action, it brought an upset when Jack Bauer, a fast sprinter from Col. Bob Baker's stable, backed to 1 to 4 in the mutuel wagering at one time, failed miserably and lost the decision by a neck to Phantom Fire. This was another of those get-away good things, so much money rolling back on Phantom Fire at post time the odds dropped from 7 to 1 to 2 to 1.

Old Burger made his presence known as early as the first race when he took Modna and administered a sound trouncing to the favorite, Better Luck, and the well liked Woody. He came from behind and got Woody in the final strides, but it was a well timed rush. After a bad start, Better Luck never figured prominently.

Burger Scores Again.

In the two year old race, Burger, up on Erla Lee II., timed his rush a bit late, finishing second to Jockey Schaefer on the western owned Gabaldon in the two year old event. Ourieda, a Camden filly, and backed to the exclusion of the others, turned in a dull effort and was out of the money.

Burger again loafed while Romp led from start to finish in the third, but when the barrier lifted in the fourth he shot Captain Haney out with the leaders, trailed H. G. Bedwell's Sarko for a half mile, then came on to win in the easiest kind of a gallop. Sarko dropped out of the picture, Freya coming up to get the second money and My Destiny the show.

Notes of the Sox

THE Boston gang will conclude its visit with one appearance this afternoon No charge for women fans.

Collins took himself out of the game in the seventh, mainly with the idea of giving his trick leg a rest.

Shaner doubled with one out in the second and Haney came through with a fly to Barrett. Shaner overlooked the important fact that only one was out, so ran to third and was doubled easily off second

The only Red Sock who passed first base after the fourth inning was Regan. He singled with one out in the ninth and went as far as third on a single by Haney. Thomas fanned Gaston to terminate the struggle.

A pass to Barrett and single by Kamm with none out in the sixth gave the home Sox a chance to operate at the plate but they missed fire. One reason they failed was that Barrett was caught trying to steal third.

Wills, Ryan, Richards and Alonso Win

Seabright, N. J., Aug. 5.—[U. N.]—Although her game was somewhat unsteady and her service notably poor, Helen Wills has reached her second final round since resuming tennis after an operation in Paris two months ago, by defeating Eleanor Goss, 7—5, 6—4, in the Seabright invitation tennis tournament.

As a result, the American champion will meet her sister Californian, Elizabeth Ryan, in the final tomorrow. Vincent Richards will play Manuel Alonso in the men's final.

Miss Ryan today smashed her way to victory over Mrs. Molla Mallory of New York, a former American titleholder, winning in straight sets, 6—4, 6—2.

Richards had a hard time with Francis T. Hunter, losing the first set. He rallied, however, and ran through the next two sets and match. The score was 2—6, 6—2, 6—3.

Alonso, the former Spanish Davis cup star, who now lives in Philadelphia, disposed of Takeicha Harada, Japanese Davis cup captain, 6—2, 6—4. Harada was far below the form which enabled him to defeat "Little Bill" Johnston, a former champion, Wednesday.

In the men's doubles, Edward G. Chandler and Bill Johnston, coast stars, gained their final brackets by defeating Lewis N. White of Texas and Louis Thalheimer, the national clay courts champions, 6—4, 7—5.

R. Norris Williams of Philadelphia and Richards, defeated Harada and S. Howard Voshell of New Gardens, L. I., in the other men's doubles semi-final, 6—2, 6—2. They will meet Johnston and Chandler in the final Saturday.

CLARK, CHICAGO PLAYER, LEADS ROQUE TOURNEY

Warsaw, Ind., Aug. 5.—[Special.]—Lester Clark of Chicago is still undefeated in the first division of the American Roque league's national tournament at Winona. Clark has maintained a perfect score in seven games and is more than a full game ahead of any other player in the division. He also has the honor of scoring the first home run of the tourney. A. G. Buffum of Los Angeles, Cal., is expected to be Clark's most dangerous opponent. Buffum finished first in the semi-annual tournament at Long Beach in February when he defeated A. S. Denney of Long Beach, the national champion.

Noah Dibble of Bradentown, Fla., with a record of five straight victories, heads the second division. Joseph Hansman of Warsaw, Ind., who went seven straight games without a loss, suffered a setback this afternoon when he was defeated 32 to 14 by M. E. Heynes of Long Beach, Cal.

CHAS. CRAWFORD DIES AS RESULT OF TRACK SPILL

Saratoga Springs, N. Y., Aug. 5.—(AP)—Charles Crawford, widely known steeplechase jockey, died today in a local hospital of injuries sustained Monday when he was thrown in a race at the Saratoga track. He suffered a punctured lung, five broken ribs, and internal injuries.

Crawford, whose home is in Westchester, Pa., began riding ten years ago, when he was 12 years old. He rode on the flat until four years ago, when he became a steeplechase rider.

Ned Allis, Phil Sanborn Enter Badger Golf Final

Milwaukee, Wis., Aug. 5.—(AP)—Ned Allis, Milwaukee Country club, seven times state champion, went into the final of the Wisconsin amateur state golf association championship, late this afternoon when he defeated Phil Sanborn of Madison 2 and 1. He will be opposed tomorrow by Irving Peterson of Racine, who eliminated George Madushaw of Delafield, 2 up.

BY IRVING VAUGHAN.

Without disturbing the slumbers of the 5,000 customers who were draped in various spots about the enclosure, Collins' White Sox made it two straight over their red hosed guests from atmospheric Boston yesterday. The count after nine orderly rounds was 7 to 2, and at only one stage of the proceedings were the local athletes inconvenienced by the fact that they were not in the lead. However, they lost no time adjusting that embarassing situation.

TOMMY THOMAS.

Tommy Thomas was the exclusive home twirler and between his own deception and a few puffs of southwest wind that carried the pungent aroma of the stockyards, the traveling batters were kept in a state of semi-consciousness most of the time. The fourth, in which they scored both their runs, was the only inning in which they appeared at all robust. That show of life gave them a 2 to 1 lead, but the Pale Sox wiped it out and more besides by pasting the ball emphatically in the fifth and seventh.

Roughing Up Ruffing.

Charles Ruffing endeavored to pitch a winner for his gang, but he succumbed long before the finish. He could have done no worse than his successor. The first act of the playlet entitled Roughing Ruffing came in the third when one of several comical feats by the tail enders gave Kamm a life at first. Schalk forced Kamm and then stole on Thomas' third strike. Mostil banged a liner to right center for three bases and Schalk jogged leisurely toward the plate, there being no necessity for speed.

Thomas did well for the first three chapters and started the fourth by fanning Rigney, whereupon Jacobson stirred up some trouble with a high pop to short right. While the home Hose were engaged in a plebiscite to determine who was to make the catch, the ball fell for a double. Todt died easily and Regan walked. Shaner looped a single to right, scoring Jacobson and putting Regan on third. A double steal was put on and it worked easily because "Honey Boy" Hunnefield, in returning the ball, almost heaved it over the grandstand. After this inning only one red leg got to second base.

Barrett Starts Trouble.

Barrett, who was still feeling chipper over his exploits the day before, opened the fifth with a single and the victors didn't stop until four runs were over. Kamm also hit and Barrett hiked to third. Schalk doubled Barrett home and put Kamm on third. Ruffing went away in favor of Tony Welzer and Thomas greeted the rescuer with a fluke single scoring Kamm. Mostil hit and Schalk scored. Mostil scored the last run of the inning by pulling a double steal with Collins on the opposite end.

The pair of runs annexed in the seventh came after the first two batters had been sidetracked. Collins walked and let Morehart run for him. The understudy promptly stole second and continued to third on the throw. A double to left by Sheely scored him. Then Falk poked a single into center and Sheely went home as fast as he could, which wasn't very fast.

Crowd Booes as Suggs Wins Over Sarmiento

POMPEY TO RUN IN HANDICAP AT LINCOLN FIELDS

Pompey Wins

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N. Y., Aug. 5.—[Special.]—Pompey came back. The two year old champion of 1925 today vindicated the faith of those who believed that he would eventually show as a three year old the brilliance that gained him the juvenile crown. Running in the Luzerne handicap W. R. Coe's bay son of Sun Briar and Cleopatra ran his six opponents dizzy and won going away.

Pompey, the favorite which failed in the last Kentucky Derby, is coming back into the middle west to try to redeem himself in the eyes of thousands of turf fans in this section.

He is coming to Lincoln Fields, Col. Matt J. Winn was advised yesterday by W. R. Coe, and is to be pointed for the $10,000 Lincoln handicap to be decided at the $2,000,000 course near Crete on Labor day, Sept. 6.

Pompey, a son of Sun Briar-Cleopatra, was one of the most fancied Derby winter book favorites in years, and when he could not get any part of the Derby purse thousands of race followers who had backed him in the future books were jolted.

The dates for all the early closing stake events at Lincoln Fields were announced yesterday. They follow: Joliet stakes, $5,000 added, Aug. 9; Crete handicap, $5,000 added, Aug. 14; Dixie handicap, $5,000 added, Aug. 21; Dearborn handicap, $5,000 added, Aug. 28; Chicago Heights stakes, $5,000 added, Sept. 4; Lincoln handicap, $10,000 added, Sept. 6; Steger handicap, $5,000 added, Sept. 11.

MILLER TAKES WESTMORELAND TAM O' SHANTER

Leads Field by Two Strokes.

A. L. Miller, young sharpshooter of the Glen Flora club in Waukegan, won the annual Tam o' Shanter golf tournament at the Westmoreland club yesterday. Miller shot the course in 75 strokes yesterday. That, added to his 76 of Wednesday, gave him a total of 151 and put him out in front of the field by 2 strokes.

The second player in the low gross column was Al Baumgartner of Cincinnati. Baumgartner had a score of 76—77—153, 1 stroke behind Miller on each round. The third man was A. C. Perry, home club champion and twice the winner of the Tam. Perry had a ragged 80 on the first day. He made a valiant effort to recover yesterday and shot a good 74, but it wasn't good enough. He was 3 strokes behind.

Douglass Tweedie, Glen Oak, and Walter W. Ahlschlager, Illinois, were tied with 155. Elmer Nelson, Indianapolis, and Dr. E. H. Raedel, Westmoreland, were also tied with 156 strokes each.

Throughout the two days of shooting young Miller simply plugged along, shooting as close to par as possible and sometimes snatching a birdie by a long putt. His cards follow:

The flight winners follow:

First—A. C. Perry, Westmoreland, 74. Second—C. M. Nicholls, Illinois, 78. Third—J. P. Gillies, Calumet; A. C. Levis, Flossmore, and J. C. Reynolds, Westmoreland, 82. Fourth—J. B. Spencer, Allegheny, and George Schnur, Skokie, 82. Fifth—J. Brandon, 81. Sixth—W. H. Canady, Westmoreland, 83. Seventh—Dayton Keith, 83. Eighth—J. L. Randolph and J. D. Ryan, 87. Ninth—Louis E. Hart, Indian Hill, 85. Tenth—A. W. Bissell, Westmoreland, 90. Eleventh—D. T. Adams, Westmoreland, 97. Twelfth—H. Michaels, Lombard, 104.

Winners in the class sweepstakes follow:

The low net foursome was composed of Ralph N. Melin, Westmoreland, 143; Fred T. Richardson, Medinah, 151; G. D. Owsley, Indian Hill, 147, and Elmer Nelson, Winnetka, 144. Their total was 585.

Playing in a foursome with John Dawson, Ralston Lewis, and Roscoe Upp, George Dawson of Glen Oak recently broke the amateur record for the Oak Park Country club course with a 70, two under par.

Construction of the Glen Eagles Country club golf course, 123d street and Archer avenue, is 80 per cent completed, contractors announced yesterday. Greens and tees are finished and the pipe line has been installed and connected with the well, which is now down 210 feet.

Two Boxing Shows on Card for Tonight

Two boxing shows are scheduled for tonight, giving fans a choice of ring entertainment. A show on the north side will be held out of doors on De Paul university field, while another on the south side will be staged in the north hall of the Coliseum. Both will open at 8:15 o'clock.

Four ten round bouts, featured by the match between Archie Bell of New York and Bobby Hughes of New Orleans, make up the card on the north side, while eight contests, with the bout between Charles Reyes, the Cuban flyweight, and Midget Dugan of Buffalo as the feature, make up the program at the Coliseum.

Billy Showers of St. Paul and Mike Dale of Decatur, hard hitting welterweights, meet in another ten rounder, while the other match will bring together Frankie Welch and Glen Milligan, another pair of welterweights. De Paul field is at Webster and Sheffield avenues and prices will be $1, $2, and $3, plus tax. The matches were made by Harry Forbes, former world's bantamweight champion.

Aside from the Reyes-Dugan match other bouts on the card at the Coliseum should result in plenty of action.

Fight Decisions

At Cermak-Mills stadium—Joe Gluk and Eddie Anderson, draw [10]; Charley O'Connell beat Benny Valgar [10]; Joe Medill beat Ralph Mendoza [6]; Ernie Peters and Fernando Gonzales, draw [6].

GOPHERS SEEK SWIM MEET.

Minneapolis, Minn., Aug. 5.—(AP)—The University of Minnesota today started negotiations for a dual swim with George Washington university, St. Louis, next January.

Wilson Is "Lefty" Champ; Judelson Wins Boys' Title

O'Laughlin Wins Low Net.

The first prize for low net was captured by J. O'Laughlin, of Garfield Park, who finished with 183—40—143.

Second low net was taken by 15 year old Sam Alpert of Garfield with 169—10—159. Another kid, Ray Koopman of the Illinois juniors, shot well, finishing with 190—20—170.

The low gross score for the morning round was won by R. W. Wanger, of Vernon Ridge, with a 78. Dr. Wilson shot 77 but was disqualified because he had low gross for the 36 holes. The low net for the morning round was won by Dr. Harley Parker, Park Ridge, with 92—21—71.

Low gross for the afternoon was won by L. W. Pitcher, president of the Illinois seniors, and 80 years old, with a score of 98.

Heat Forces Twelve Out.

The low net for the afternoon 18 holes was won by J. P. Mann, 103—29—74. Other scores:

R. S. Juran, Minneapolis, 163—4—159; R. Wanger, Vernon Ridge, 165—16—149; Joe Ruff, Woodmar, Ind., 180—28—152; D. T. Campbell, Midlothian, 180—26—154; Trigg Waller, Exmoor, 169—14—155; R. C. Ackley, Olympia Fields, 171—14—157; H. A. Clements, Glen Oak, 185—28—157; W. C. McKenny, Olympia Fields, 194—36—158; R. L. Whitton, Midlothian, 180—22—158; Dr. William Maxson, Glen Oak, 190—32—158; L. G. Buss, Midlothian, 184—26—158; Sam Alpert, Garfield, 169—10—159; William Nity, Glen Oak, 213—50—163; R. J. Kasper, Green Valley, 183—20—163; C. H. Lane, Southmoor, 209—46—163; C. L. Brumback, Ridgmoor, 191—28—163; R. Ramsey, Park Ridge, 182—18—164; E. R. Sorenson, Midlothian, 192—28—164; John Sheean, Glen Oak, 184—20—164; J. B. Marshall, Northwest, 174—8—166; G. A. Scott, Ridgmoor, 205—36—169.

Twelve players were forced to retire from the tournament because of the intense heat.

H. Judelson of Maywood yesterday became boys' golf champion of Cook county by defeating Eddie Graham of Jackson park, 6 and 5, in the championship match of the tournament at Garfield park.

Judelson, shooting par golf, led all the way. Graham, who eliminated Allen Eisenstein of Garfield park in the semi-finals, was off stroke in the title contest, particularly on the green.

Beats Crowe 1 Up.

Judelson's hardest match was against Robert Crowe in the semi-finals yesterday morning. Crowe, a Garfield park representative who battled his way to the final of the Cook county open last week, was two up at the turn, but faltered on the last nine and Judelson won, one up.

Brilliant mashie shots won for the Maywood lad in the morning round. He sank a 20 yard approach on the 191 yard third and he repeated on the eighth. Crowe shot every hole in par on the out nine. They halved the tenth. Judelson won the eleventh and twelfth and the thirteenth was halved.

Match Is Close.

Judelson went into the lead on the fourteenth with a birdie three. Crowe squared the match at the fifteenth and the sixteenth and seventeenth were halved. Judelson, cool as the second shelf of a refrigerator despite a searching sun, played the last hole in par three, one better than Crowe, to win the match. Their cards:

Crowe—Out	433	344	433—31
Hudelson	542	354	433—33
Crowe—In	444	344	434—34—65
Hudelson	433	335	433—31—64

J. Moran of North Shore defeated P. Mose of Jackson Park, 3 and 1, in the consolation final.

The tournament was open to boys between 14 and 17 years.

The date of the Hinsdale Golf club "Buggy Ride" invitation tournament has been moved up from Aug. 26 to Aug. 19.

For Today's Foursome!

THE best test of the real scoring value of a club is its use. Burke Clubs MUST be effective because you will find them more in use than any other clubs in the world.

Here's what they offer:

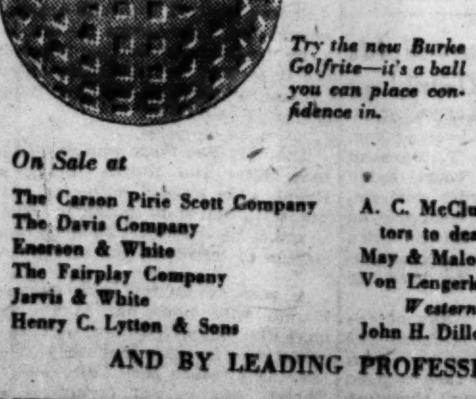

—the FEEL that gives confidence
—the BALANCE that gives correct timing
—the SHAFTING that gives long life to the club.

See the new Burke Irons at your Pro's or Sporting Goods Store. Handle them—test the feel! And one round with them will make them "regulars" in your bag.

A Cigar That Surprises

15¢ Quality at About Half Price

The impossible has become possible. Now, in the Chancellor Panetela at 3 for a quarter, we offer our new-day climax.

Overnight a new leader is created.

To smoke three Chancellor Panetelas is to agree that such quality at 3 for a quarter is a distinct achievement.

New Way Packing

As 3 for a quarter is a popular selling unit, we present a new idea in packing which appeals to men because it is very sensible. One Panetela is ready to smoke—two are wrapped in foil for protection while in your pocket: "Smoke one, carry two," the dealer offers. A convenience—a protection.

This cigar is a sensation. So great is the demand that we can supply only a few cities, this being one of the fortunate.

North Woods Bass Fall for Any Good Lure

BY BOB BECKER.

Of all the places that a fisherman may angle for bass, great northern pike, and wall eyes, in the course of a season, the Superior National forest is probably the cheapest bet as far as the amount of tackle is concerned. Only the simplest outfit with a minimum number of lures is needed. The answer is—wilderness country with fish that are not wise to artificial baits.

If you are puzzled over your outfit for a Superior National forest cruise consider our lineup. We had one 5 ounce, 9½ foot fly rod, and four 7½ foot leaders, and one line and reel. Flies consisted of two barbless bass flies [Colonel Fuller and Coachman]; two Bob Becker's birds, three Callmac bass bugs and two hair and feather flies of dark patterns.

Our bait casting outfit consisted of rod, line and reel; three weedless hooks for casting a pork chunk, which caught more than 75 bass on the trip, one small South Bend plug which weighted and trolled by moonlight for big wall eyes, nailed 'em weighing 6½ and 7 pounds; one metal floating get-um thing that was liked by the large mouths; two metal weedless pork rind lures and a few spoons.

MISS NORELIUS WINS 440 YARD FREE STYLE RACE

Miss Lambert First in 220 Backstroke Swim.

Philadelphia, Pa., Aug. 5.—[Special.]—Miss Martha Norelius of the Women's Swimming association scored a clean cut victory at 440 yards free style, and her club mate, Miss Adelaide Lambert, sprang a surprise by winning the 220 yard backstroke event at the second day of competition for the Women's National A. A. U. swimming championships here today.

Miss Norelius established her leadership in the quarter mile classic. Gaining the lead on the first lap she increased her advantage steadily to the end, obtaining the decision by twelve yards in 6:06.

One year ago	14.50@15.50

Further strength in hogs developed early yesterday, following Wednesday's higher close, with heavy kinds leading the upward movement. Advances of 10@15c were general in heavy weights, packing grades in some instances indicating gains of as much as 25c, comparing extremes of the two days. General average advanced 15c at $11.35, against $11.85 a week earlier, with practical top up 5c at $13.30, odd lots of light at $13.35 being no criterion. Outside buyers showed an aversion to paying higher prices for light and the few over $13.00 cut little figure in the general trade. Most medium and weighty butchers brought $11.00@12.00, extreme weights at the inside figure, with a good showing of packing grades at $9.50@10.00, heavy packers ranging down to $9.

Better grades of steers and yearlings scored further advances of 10@15c in yesterday's activity on top kinds. Others were more plentiful and showed little change, local buyers refusing to follow the higher lead made by shippers. Prime 1,051 lb yearlings at $10.60, on shipping account, stood highest since July 26 and within 5c of the highest in several months. Choice 1,128 lb steers brought $10.25 and 1,236 lb averages $10.10. Best heavy beeves rested at $10.00, paid for well finished 1,402 lb averages. Butcher stock showed further strength and slight advances in spots. Canners and cutters firm. Calves and bulls held steady. Stockers and feeders sold actively at stronger prices.

Breeding Ewes, $14.50.

Country demand for breeding stock was about the best of the season and mixed yearlings and lambs averaging 72 lbs reached $14.50, a new high for breeding ewes, which equaled the day's peak on fat lambs. Montana yearling ewes averaging 95 lbs sold for $13.00 per head, with two year olds to full mouths averaging 89 lbs at $10.00. Feeding lambs sold readily at $12.50@13.85, according to weight. Killing lambs, due to a decrease of 14,000 in receipts the first four days of the week, held firm, ewe and wether natives bringing $14.35, with best rangers available at $14.50. Fat aged and yearling sheep ruled strong to higher, 111 lb Montana aged ewes at $7.85 to packers standing highest since last May.

Receipts at Chicago for today are estimated at 2,000 cattle, 14,000 hogs and 9,000 sheep, against 2,514 cattle, 19,598 hogs and 12,626 sheep, the corresponding Friday a year ago.

PRODUCE MARKETS

Demand for butter showed improvement and top scores here were ½c higher, while Philadelphia was up ½c. Cheese steady.

No change was shown in prices for fresh eggs. Receipts, 7,661 cases. Live hens ½c lower and other poultry little changed. Receipts, 9 cars and 1,540 coops.

Potatoes lower with extremely hot weather restricting the demand. Southern sold at $1.80@2.10 per 100 lbs. Receipts, 75 cars with 147 cars on team track.

D. H. BURNHAM BUYS RESIDENCE ON NORTH SHORE

BY AL CHASE.

Daniel H. Burnham of D. H. Burnham & Co., architects, and president of the Chicago Regional Planning association, now living at 1335 Asbury avenue, Evanston, yesterday purchased the John M. Olmsted residence on Fisher lane, Hubbard Woods, for a price said to be in the neighborhood of $70,000.

D. H. BURNHAM.

Mr. Burnham will remodel the twelve room house, which stands on a two acre lot, and move in next spring. The property adjoins the residence of Attorney Walter Fisher on one side and Willoughby Walling on the other. J. L. Floyd negotiated the sale.

Alfred A. Nuyitens has bought the twenty-four flat building at 4817-23 North Lincoln street from Milton S. Plotke for an undisclosed consideration, subject to a first mortgage of $110,000. Samuel H. Fredstein and Ralph R. Fienberg were attorneys for the buyer and Herman L. Cohen for the sellers.

Norman G. Nicholson has bought the thirteen apartments at 6116 Greenwood avenue from Clarence E. Uncapher for a reported $90,000, subject to $52,500.

The eighteen apartment building at the southeast corner of Kenneth and Mayfield avenues, has been sold by Mollie Abrams to Harry Freeman and I. Shapiro for a reported $75,000, subject to an incumbrance of $59,500. Blankstein & Freeman were attorneys.

How to Create an Estate

Large estates are not created by saving, though saving is an absolute necessity and must come first.

—not by speculation, for its losses are far greater than its gains, and the gains, when acquired, are seldom retained.

—not by investing in bonds—though the buying of sound bonds should be a part of every investment program, the keystone which holds the arch of financial progress in place.

Large estates are created by seizing opportunities for profitable investments in the stocks of industrial companies whose past record of success and present growth presage still greater progress and larger profits in the future.

Not everyone can have his own business. Not everyone possesses the capital, managerial talent, or temperamental equipment to make this possible. But everyone can share in the ownership of profitable industries and reap his share of their rewards, by carefully planned investments in their stocks.

Our booklet, "Sharing in the Profits of American Industry", tells how this may be done. Your request for a copy will entail no obligation on your part.

WHEAT IS LOWER ON WEAKNESS IN FOREIGN MARTS

BY CHARLES MICHAELS.

Weakness in foreign markets was instrumental in causing a lower range of wheat values, but trade was not large and the market easily influenced by any good buying or selling. September sold down to $1.37¾ at the opening, or 1½c under the finish of the previous day with a rally later. The finish was at net losses of ⅝@⅞c with September, $1.38¾ to $1.38⅞; December, $1.43 to $1.42⅞, and May, $1.47¾. Corn was lower early, but advanced 1¼c from the low and closed at the top with prices ⅛c lower on the September and ½c higher on the deferred deliveries. September finished at 84⅞@84¾c; December, 88¾@88⅞c, and May, 94¼c.

Oats showed a heavy undertone and with stop loss orders uncovered the finish was ⅝@⅝c lower with September, 41⅝c and December 44½@44⅝c. Rye was ⅝@1c lower with September $1.02½ and December $1.07.

Await Official Crop Reports.

Outside interest in the wheat market was not large, and sharp fluctuations came at times on any good commission house buying or selling. Local sentiment was generally inclined to be bearish, but with the American and Canadian government crop reports due Tuesday speculative operations are being curtailed.

There was selling of December wheat here against purchases of May at Winnipeg by spreaders, and the difference widened somewhat, Winnipeg going to a larger premium. Crop reports from the Canadian northwest had little effect with numerous showers in parts of the three provinces. Harvesting of spring wheat is making rapid progress in the American northwest and is almost completed in some sections. Thrashing returns are mixed.

Liverpool wheat closed ¾@1⅛d lower with increased pressure of cash grain. There was no improvement in the export demand with sales of 250,000 bu in all positions, largely winters. In the face of the continued claims of no demand, premiums at the gulf were decidedly firm and quoted at 8@9c over Chicago September, depending on date of loading. Prospects for a considerable drop in temperatures in the Canadian northwest led to some buying futures at the last. Milling demand for cash wheat was good with the local spot basis steady to 1c higher.

Corn in Sharp Rally.

Corn was easy early, higher temperatures being regarded as beneficial but later there were unfavorable crop comments from many sections, and Snow issued a bullish summary on conditions, pointing out that there had been considerable damage in some important producing areas, with rain badly needed. Commission houses were fair buyers on the break. September was easy, however, and went to 3⅞c under the December, losing ⅝c on the latter for the day, the keeping quality of the grain in store in local public elevators being a factor.

Harvesting of oats in Iowa is about 75 per cent completed and country offerings are increasing. There was some buying of September against sales of December for northwestern account, while cereal interests bought May. Longs were sellers of the nearby futures, causing the lower range. Buying of September rye against sales of corn helped sustain values, and partially offset the effect of a break of 2¼c at the extreme in Minneapolis. Latter market had 15 cars of new rye. Export demand continues disappointing.

CASH·GRAIN NEWS

There was less activity in export circles at the seaboard, with sales in all positions estimated at only 250,000 bu, largely red and hard winters. Premiums at the gulf were firmer, with No. 2 hard first half August, Galveston, quoted at 8½c over Chicago September, with last half at 8c over; first half September 7½c over and first half October at 8c over the future. Philadelphia sold a little corn abroad Wednesday.

Milling demand for cash wheat showed little change, with the basis here unchanged to 1c higher. No. 2 red brought September price to ¼c under and No. 2 hard ¼c under to ¼c over the future. Basis at Kansas City and Omaha was unchanged. Minneapolis reported good demand for spring wheat and premiums firm.

Cash corn market was unsettled, with the basis 1c higher to 1½c lower. No. 2 grades sold at ¼@½c over September, with No. 3 grades ½c over to 4c under and No. 4 grades 2@8½c under the future. Outside markets were ½@2c lower.

Offerings of cash oats were somewhat larger, and the basis steady to ½c higher. No. 2 white sold at ¼c under to 1¼c over, and No. 3 white at ¼c over to 1c under September.

WORLD'S·GRAIN MARKET·NEWS

It is the belief of many in the wheat trade that until there is a material let up in winter wheat receipts and an improvement in the export and speculative buying purchases should only be made on the sharp declines, while rallies should be taken advantage of to take profits and to make short sales. An oversold condition develops every day or so, causing sharp bulges.

Buying of May wheat in Winnipeg and selling of the same delivery here with Winnipeg 2⅝c under Chicago makes an attractive spread. Spreading between September and December wheat here is also a feature, the difference being around 5c.

High temperatures over the southwestern corn fields and also in the west without any rain creates a bullish feeling in corn, and induces buying by local operators. It is admitted that corn needs hot weather, but it must also have more moisture than it has been getting of late to make a good crop.

Analyzing the corn crop situation B. W. Snow says: "Low condition reported on Aug. 1 involved practically the same crop backwardness as in July and in addition reflected unfavorable weather experienced last month. Backwardness in July can always be made good by later developments, but backwardness as an unfavorable factor increases in importance as the season passes, and when, as on Aug. 1, it is complicated with unfavorable weather experienced during the most important months of corn growth, low conditional figures assume increasing importance."

The Canadian Pacific's crop report reviewing the situation in the western provinces says: "With a continuance of present temperatures much wheat will be prematurely ripened and harvest will start more or less extensively within a week."

A seaboard exporter said business in wheat on Wednesday was much larger than reported, including some to France, with every evidence that the recovery in exchange will bring in both France and Italy as buyers for considerable quantities.

CORPORATION EARNINGS

GENERAL RAILWAY SIGNAL.

Net income was $1,956,646 after interest, federal taxes, etc., for the six months ended June 30 last, equal after dividends on the 6 per cent preferred stock to $5.78 a share on 325,000 no-par common shares, against $780,139 net, or $2.17 a share, figured on the present share basis in the first half of 1925.

For the six months ended June 30 last consolidated profit was $774,755 after expenses and depreciation but before federal taxes, equal after preferred dividends to $2 a share on 357,000 no-par common shares, against $330,929 net, or 76c a share, figured on the present share basis, in the first half of 1925. For the June quarter net profit was $306,668 before federal taxes, equal to 77c a share on the common, against $469,876 net, or $1.23 a share, in the last previous quarter and $129,880 net, or 28c a share, in the second quarter of 1925.

MARLIN-ROCKWELL.

For quarter ended June 30, consolidated profit was $298,433 after charges and federal taxes, against $317,590 in the second quarter of 1925. Profit for the 1st six months of 1926 totaled $692,479, against $567,605 in the first half of 1925. Profit for the quarter ended June 30 is equal after 7 per cent preferred dividends to 84c a share on 331,685 no par common shares, against $1.14 a share in the preceding quarter and $1.21 a share on 222,805 shares in the second quarter of 1925.

PIGGLY-WIGGLY STORES.

An increase in sales of $11,953,094 for the first half of this year, as compared with the same period last year is revealed by the semi-annual report of Piggly-Wiggly Stores, Inc. The figures were contained in a statement sent to stockholders by the Piggly-Wiggly corporation, which owns all of the 50,000 shares of class B common stock and 176,609½ of the 200,000 shares of class A common. Sales for the half year totaled $77,033,841, with a net profit of $404,923.

FINANCIAL NOTES

A syndicate headed by Hemphill, Noyes & Co., and including Commerce Securities company, True, Webber & Co., American National company, and I. B. Tigrett & Co., will offer today a new issue of $2,750,000 National Cottonseed Products corporation first and refunding mortgage, 6½ per cent sinking fund gold bonds, due July 1, 1941, and priced at 100 and accrued interest.

Rapid development of the subsidiary companies of the Midland Utilities company in Indiana and Ohio is reflected in the announcement that the latter organization has sold an issue of $5,000,000 5% serial notes to Halsey, Stuart & Co. The notes mature serially from Nov. 1, 1929, to Nov. 1, 1931, inclusive. Public offering will probably be made Monday.

An action alleging infringement of neutrodyne radio patents was filed in the United States Eastern District court of Pennsylvania against the Atwater-Kent Manufacturing company by the Hazeltine corporation and the Independent Radio Manufacturers, incorporated. The plaintiffs seek a permanent injunction. An accounting is asked to assess the amount of damage for the alleged infringement and a further sum equal to three times the damages plaintiffs have sustained thereby.

State and municipal borrowing declined sharply in July, the total of $89,671,130 showing a drop of approximately $50,000,000 as compared with the preceding month and a $33,000,000 decrease from the July, 1925, total. In four out of the seven months of this year the volume of new issues of municipal bonds has been less than in the corresponding months of 1925, the Daily Bond Buyer reports.

Notice has been given that Southern Indiana Gas and Electric company 7¼ per cent first lien and refunding mortgage gold bonds, series A, have been drawn for redemption Oct. 1 at 104 and accrued interest.

FIGHT FOR HOME BUSINESS URGED BY COAL AND OIL

BY HARPER LEECH.

The war for household business between coal and fuel oil has raged all summer, in anticipation of the home fires of next winter. But such inroads as oil has made in household heating are not noticeable in the statistics of coal. Less than 13 per cent of soft coal, it appears, is used for household heating; much over half of it is consumed by railroads, utilities, and metallurgy. In those industries coal is either advancing on oil or holding its own, but in all three of the big industrial divisions the consumption of coal is being reduced in proportion to output of goods and services.

The household oil burner business in six years has expanded at a rate of 2,000 per cent and is going strong now. One manufacturer has had a 6,000 per cent growth. About 100,000 gas fired outfits are also being installed every year and the switch to gas means less coal consumption, even though the gas is made of coal. Some idea of how gas has been trenching on household use of coal may be had from the figures, which disclose that about 10,000,000 gas stoves, 3,500,000 water heaters, and 4,500,000 space heaters are now in use with an annual gain of 400,000 customers for gas companies.

What has price had to do with all this? Probably little. Gas and oil are automatic house heating systems and their strong selling talk is the saving of household drudgery. It may be that an average increase for the United States in the retail price of soft coal from $5.48 per ton on Jan. 15, 1913, to $8.76 on May 15, 1926, has made it easier to sell the new heating systems. But who knows?

In discussing coal prices and averages it should be kept in mind that all these averages and indices are approximations and may be remote at that. For instance, the Coal Age index of spot bituminous prices for the last reported week of July stood at 1.59. That gives us a good relative slant at the situation, but spot coal is only a fraction of the total sold.

Coal prices are a vast and complicated field, and, while the general fact of the relative high post-war prices of coal as compared to the general average of all commodities is undisputed, nevertheless the effect of those prices has been so complicated by the fluctuations from time to time, the sale of much coal below cost, the differences in regions, grades, and heating values, that one cannot be confident for any given place of what effect prices have had at all in the competition between coal and other heating materials and methods.

However, the sale of household coal is more important from a price standpoint than from a quantity point of view. Under the present conditions in a large part of the industry many mines must make their money, if they make any at all, out of the domestic sizes and sell the lower grades for any old price they can get at times.

HOGS AND LARD RALLY

An upturn in lard and hog values was on yesterday with the close at net gains of 17½c on the most active deliveries in lard and only 2½c in January, while hogs were up 15c. Selling pressure spent its force early and there was absorption of the offerings by shorts who were taking profits. Lard in Liverpool closed 1s to 1s 6d higher and small sales were made here for export. Meats were offered fairly and buyers had their own way as short ribs closed 45c lower and bellies were 2½ to 20c lower for the day with September leading the break. Prices follow:

SHORTS COVER COTTON

Shorts who were among the largest sellers of cotton Wednesday were active in taking profits yesterday, as there is uncertainty as to the showing to be made by the government crop report due Aug. 9. Sellers were less urgent in their offerings, although weather conditions were favorable and Liverpool closed 16 to 17 points lower.

Exports from the United States for the year ended July 31 were 8,150,000 bales, compared with 8,267,691 bales the previous year, of which Great Britain took 2,272,070 bales, being the largest buyer.

Reports from Lancashire said 90 per cent of the spindles there using American cotton have promised to support the basic selling price scheme, which becomes effective on Aug. 16. Prices in leading markets follow:

WHEAT YIELD IN SASKATCHEWAN IS CUT BY HEAT

BY FRANK RIDGWAY.

Moosejaw, Sask., Aug. 5.—[Special.]—THE TRIBUNE'S Canadian crop survey today has taken me through the heart of one of the Dominion's greatest wheat belts here in the south central part of the Saskatchewan province. From the southern border north for more than 125 miles, the wheat varies from poor to excellent. Hot winds, hail storms, different kinds of soils, and methods of farming have left a spotted wheat crop for the harvesters to cut.

There is much speculation among growers and crop experts as to the damage that was caused by the hot wave that hit this section a few days ago. Up until two weeks ago in this rich territory, leading out from Moosejaw in every direction and extending south to the border, there was every indication that growers would harvest one of their biggest crops. Conservative estimators say the heat wave shaved from one to two bushels off the yield of each acre. On the deep heavy soils, which dominate in this district, growers who practice summer following expect to get from 25 to 35 bushels to the acre.

Wheat is fair at North Portal on the border line and improves as the traveler goes north to Moosejaw through Wryburn, Milestone, Wilcox, Rouleau, Drinkwater, and Paqua. Most of the wheat around these towns will yield at least 25 bushels to the acre and 40 bushels to the acre will be common.

Little cutting has been done near Moosejaw; harvesting will be general from here to the border next week.

SUGAR MARKETS.

NEW YORK, Aug. 5.—SUGAR—Raw firm and unchanged today at 4.21c for spots Cuban duty paid. Raw futures were steadier, prices advancing 1 to 2 points on active positions, but there was enough liquidation or realizing to hold values around this level, and the close was net unchanged to 2 points higher. The final outturn of the Cuban 1925-26 crop was placed at 4,884,688 tons by one statistician, and at 4,877,000 by another, comparing with last year's outturn of 5,125,970 tons. Refined was unchanged at 5.60@5.80c for fine granulated. Prices follow:

KILLED IN AUTO AT CROSSING.

Gibson City, Ill., Aug. 5.—(AP)—Raymond Jackson, 29 years old, of this city, was killed instantly here this afternoon when the automobile in which he and Thomas Allen, also of this city, were driving, struck a Wabash freight train. Allen escaped with a broken nose and minor bruises and cuts.

TRADE IN STOCKS DECREASES AND PRICES DECLINE

YESTERDAY'S AVERAGES

New York, Aug. 5.—(AP)—Stock prices drifted lower today as the market resumed the correction of the weakened technical position resulting from the recent rapid and sustained advance in many issues.

While some bear selling and profit taking undoubtedly was inspired by the marking up of the call money rate from 4 to 4½ per cent, the reaction was not generaly associated with anything in the day's news, which in the main was again favorable. Trading showed a marked falling off in volume, the day's sales aggregating 1,871,100 shares, as compared with 2,615,300 yesterday.

Despite the reactionary trend in the general list, active bidding continued for a few selected specialties. Case Threshing Machine was the individual feature, scoring an extreme gain of 22 points by touching a new high record of 169, as compared with a low of 62½ earlier in the year. Wall street expects a stock split-up on Case before the end of the year. Remington Typewriter also developed outstanding strength, jumping more than six points to 119¾.

General Motors Still Active.

Trading in General Motors continued in enormous volume, but the range of fluctuation narrowed down to less than six points, the closing price of 204½ representing a net loss of two points. Both buying and selling was of a cautious character, with brokers reporting the widespread utilization of close stops. United States Steel common received better buying support, the final quotation of 150 representing only a fractional loss.

Revival of activity in the copper shares, based on the recent stiffening of red metal prices, was one of the most interesting incidents of the day's trading. New peak prices for the year, or longer, were attained by Anaconda and Cerro de Pasco, while Kennecott duplicated its 1926 top and most of the others advanced to within striking distances of their peak prices.

Response of Oils Slow.

Oils, as a group, were slow in responding to the excellent semi-annual earnings reports now being published, although special strength developed in General Asphalt, which closed 2½ points higher at 72¼.

Sugar shares also were in better demand as a result of stiffening commodity prices. South Porto Rican Sugar jumped more than five points to 115 and American Sugar Refining, Cuban American and Manati showed net gains of one to three points.

EUROPEAN EXPORTS LESS, BUT GREATER TO OTHER CONTINENTS

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Aug. 5.—[Special.]—Export trade with Europe, this country's biggest market, is lagging. The department of commerce reported today that exports to Europe dropped by $326,000,000 during the fiscal year ended June 30 last. That this decline was not fully reflected in the total export trade of the United States for the year is due to the fact that exports to all other sections of the world increased, overcoming the relapse in European trade to the extent of $216,000,000.

Exports to Europe totaled in value $2,333,660,248 during the fiscal year, as compared to $2,659,713,390 during 1924-'25. Large increases were registered in the export trade with all other continents, Asia leading. Exports to the orient aggregated $537,553,261 in value, as compared to $457,609,080 in the preceding fiscal year. Exports to South America had a value of $420,176,101, as compared to $360,409,788; to Oceania, $201,209,549, as compared to $167,002,281; to Africa, $93,932,549, as compared to $77,266,736; and to North America [Canada and Mexico], $1,167,526,283, as compared to $1,142,579,889.

Export trade with all European countries declined, with the exception of Switzerland. Exports to the United Kingdom were valued at $970,782,139, as compared to $1,064,773,031 in the preceding year; to Germany, $373,039,880, as compared to $463,989,497; to France, $276,274,168, as compared to $288,628,648; and to Italy, $165,048,621, as compared to $219,628,233. Trade with soviet Russia remained relatively steady, exports amounting to $53,623,837, as compared to $57,043,976 in 1924-'25. Exports to Japan increased to $254,480,433 from $218,603,427; to Australia from $131,955,360 to $156,801,419.

Interest payable January 1 and July 1

Authorized $3,200,000 Presently to be outstanding $2,750,000

Redeemable on or after July 1, 1928, in whole or in part at any time and from time to time, upon notice published thirty days prior to the date of redemption, at 105% and accrued interest, to and including July 1, 1937, with successive reductions in the redemption price of 1% during each twelve months' period thereafter to maturity.

Each Bond, upon issuance, will bear a detachable warrant entitling the holder thereof to purchase Common Stock of the Corporation at $20 per share at any time up to and including July 1, 1928; thereafter to and including July 1, 1931, at $22 per share; thereafter to and including July 1, 1936, at $25 per share; and thereafter to and including July 1, 1941, at $30 per share; in the ratio of 25 shares for each $1,000 principal amount of Bonds.

BANK OF COMMERCE AND TRUST COMPANY, MEMPHIS, CORPORATE TRUSTEE

Mr. Joseph Newburger, Pres. of the Corporation, summarizes his letter regarding these Bonds as follows:

BUSINESS: The National Cottonseed Products Corporation was organized under the laws of Delaware on August 14, 1924, to acquire and consolidate under one management a number of carefully selected cottonseed crushing mills and cotton gins. Since its organization the Corporation has reported a substantial profit in each year. This was accomplished notwithstanding the initial difficulties incident to the consolidation and notwithstanding the fact that a stockholders controversy developed in July, 1925, resulting in a Federal equity receivership which lasted from September, 1925 to June, 1926. During this period the Corporation was operated under the present executive management under the supervision of the receiver, who now becomes Chairman of the Executive Committee. Control of the common stock of the Corporation has recently been purchased by interests represented by the present management. The Corporation will own, upon completion of this financing, eighteen crushing mills, fifty-two cotton gins and one refinery, strategically located in Tennessee, Arkansas, Missouri, Kentucky and Illinois. The crushing capacity of these mills is one of the largest under one management in the United States. The cottonseed industry in the South is basic, the total value of its products exceeding $250,000,000 annually.

SECURITY: These Bonds will be secured, in the opinion of counsel, by a direct mortgage upon all the real estate, plants, machinery, equipment and other fixed assets of the Corporation now owned or which may be hereafter acquired, and will constitute a first lien thereon subject to certain underlying liens, aggregating $450,000, on certain of the plants, and purchase-money or other obligations, if any, on properties which may be hereafter acquired. The remaining unissued $450,000 principal amount of these Bonds is reserved exclusively for the refunding of such underlying liens.

The appraised sound value of the properties upon which these Bonds will be secured, less depreciation, is shown in the balance sheet referred to below at $8,778,061.77, of which $7,366,564.46 represents the properties upon which these Bonds will be secured by direct first mortgage.

EARNINGS: For the two years ended June 30, 1926, net earnings of the properties to be owned upon completion of this financing, available for interest charges and Federal Income Taxes, as certified by Messrs. Peat, Marwick, Mitchell & Co., after deducting depreciation at rates recommended by The Manufacturers' Appraisal Company and interest requirements on underlying liens to be outstanding, and after eliminating certain non-recurring expenses, averaged $742,267.10 per annum or over 4 times the annual interest requirements on the Bonds presently to be outstanding.

ASSETS: As certified by the auditors, the balance sheet of the Corporation as at May 31, 1926, after giving effect to this financing and to the transactions incident thereto, shows net tangible assets of $9,641,584.34 applicable to the Bonds presently to be issued, equivalent to over $3,500 per $1,000 Bond. The same balance sheet shows net current assets of $1,313,522.57 and a ratio between current assets and current liabilities of over 4 to 1.

SINKING FUND: The Mortgage will provide for a minimum sinking fund, payable on the first day of each and every month beginning January 1, 1927, which provides for payments prior to maturity of $2,148,000, which is in excess of 75% of the principal amount of the Bonds presently to be outstanding. The Mortgage will further provide for an additional sinking fund, contingent upon earnings, payable annually beginning September 1, 1927.

PURPOSE OF ISSUE: The proceeds of the sale of these Bonds will be used for the retirement of certain existing mortgages and other indebtedness, for working capital and for other corporate purposes.

Legal details in connection with this issue will be passed upon by Messrs. Beekman, Bogue, Clark & Griscom of New York City and Messrs. Bass, Berry & Sims of Nashville, Tenn. Audits of the Corporation's books have been made by Messrs. Peat, Marwick, Mitchell & Co., and appraisals of the properties have been made by The Manufacturers' Appraisal Company and by J. L. Wood Appraisal Company. We offer these Bonds for delivery when, as and if issued and accepted by us subject to the approval of counsel. It is expected that delivery of temporary Bonds exchangeable for definitive Bonds when ready, or interim receipts of the Trustee exchangeable for temporary or definitive Bonds when ready, will be made on or about August 11, 1926.

RAIL EARNINGS SET RECORD IN FIRST HALF 1926

Never in their history have the railroads enjoyed as prosperous a first half year as in the first six months of 1926.

This was disclosed yesterday when the earnings were made public by the bureau of railway economics showing profits of nearly a half billion dollars in a period, which, according to the normal seasonal variation of traffic contributes about 42 per cent of the year's total. Gross revenues of $3,038,560,861 were nearly $132,000,000 more than the same period of 1925 and net operating income of $494,866,776, an advance of more than $55,000,000.

If the same ratio of increase is maintained throughout the year, which will depend largely on the crop movement, profits for 1926 should aggregate about $1,200,000,000, compared with $1,136,000,000 for 1925. The last half of the year as a consequence of the heavy fall traffic contributes more than 58 per cent of the total.

New Record for June.

For June alone a new record of $107,335,654 net operating income was established, far in advance of the $92,148,575 reported for the same month of last year, which was a new record at that time. This sum represents the month's proportional annual return of 6.19 per cent on the carriers' tentative valuation brought down to date and of 5.49 per cent on their property investment or the figures on their books.

Operating expenses for all the principal roads during the first half year totaled $2,299,511,368, compared with $2,220,950,256 for the first six months of last year, or an increase of 2.7 per cent. Heavy outlays incidental to the removal of the February snows accounted for most of the increase.

The taxes paid by the carriers during the period of $182,474,572 also established a new record. They were $13,546,105, or 2 per cent above the same period in 1925; most of which is accounted for by an increase in state and municipal taxation. Despite the general prosperity, twenty-one class 1 properties operated at a loss, of which eight were in the eastern district, one in the southern, and thirteen in the western.

Banks Reflect Better Business.

Increased activity of business the nation over is reflected in the weekly report of the twelve federal reserve banks issued last night. Another bit of evidence was given during the day when banks in various parts of the country withdrew something like $40,000,000 from the call money market in New York which resulted in the boosting of the rate from 4 to 4½ per cent.

The consolidated statement of the federal system shows an increase of $43,200,000 in bill and security holdings, accompanied with declines of $22,600,000 in cash reserves and $4,200,000 in non-reserve cash and increases of $11,600,000 in member banks' reserve deposits and $6,800,000 in federal reserve note circulation. Holdings of discounted bills increased $26,200,000, of acceptances purchased in open market $17,300,000, and of government securities $1,000,000.

Increase in Discount Holdings.

The federal reserve bank of New York shows an increase for the week of $15,400,000 in discount holdings, Cleveland an increase of $6,100,000; St. Louis $4,800,000, and Boston $3,100,000. Open market acceptance holdings were larger than a week ago at all reserve banks, the principal increase, $4,300,000, being reported by Chicago. Holdings of treasury certificates were $1,500,000 and of United States bonds $300,000 above the amounts reported on July 28 while the system's holdings of treasury notes were $800,000 less than on the previous report date.

The ratio of total reserves to deposit and federal reserve note liabilities combined decreased to 75.4 per cent from 76.3 per cent. For the Chicago bank there was an increase to 75.6 from 75.5 per cent.

Dayton Rubber Manufacturing.

W. R. C.—The $750,000 Dayton Rubber Manufacturing company 6 per cent serial notes, due serially 1927 to 1931, are the direct obligation of the company.

They are not secured by any mortgage, but constitute the company's sole funded debt and the trust agreement prevents the placing of any mortgage on any of the properties.

The Dec. 31, 1925, balance sheet, after giving effect to the sale of these notes, shows current assets of $2,807,943, or over 5¼ times current liabilities of $531,178.

Net quick assets amount to $2,276,746, or over 3 times the amount of this note issue.

Net earnings, after depreciation and federal income taxes, for the last three calendar years have averaged $314,021, or over 6.9 times the largest annual interest requirements on these notes.

For 1925 such earnings were $463,588, or over 10 times such interest requirements and over 2.4 times the combined maximum annual interest and maturity payments.

WALL STREET NOTES

NEW YORK, Aug. 5.—(AP)—Durant Motors was again the sensational feature in today's curb market, scoring an extreme gain of 2⅝ points at 13½, more than half of which was later lost, on a turnover of nearly 90,000 shares.

Oils, after giving promise yesterday of starting on an upswing, fell back into a narrow trading range. National Transit broke 2⅝ points to a new low at 35¼ in response to the omission of the dividend due at this time.

Public utilities displayed a firmer undertone. United Gas Improvement closed 2½ points higher at 113⅝ and Commonwealth Power moved up a point to 41⅝, or only 1⅝ points below the year's high. Electric Bond and Share lost ground on realizing.

Warner Pictures B touched a new top at 16⅝ in anticipation of a successful showing of a new talking motion picture. Baking and coal shares moved within narrow and irregular limits. Parke-Davis touched a new high on a few odd lot sales, while Snia Viscosa sank to a new low level at 8, presumably in further reflection of the recent cut in rayon prices.

Larger buying of a few special issues imparted a degree of activity to the bond market, but as a whole it continued listless. An advance in the call money rate to 4½ per cent seemingly had little influence on trading.

French government bonds continued to reflect the confidence of investors in the financial reforms of Premier Poincare. The 7s, 7½s, and 8s of that country were in demand with a small supply; the 7½s rose 1¼ points, and the other two mounted fractionally. Trading in the 7s was heavy.

German General Electric 6½s were active, climbing 1⅝ points to a new high mark. Norway 5½s were up fractionally, while Japanese 6½s and Netherlands 6s were well taken at unchanged prices. Paris-Lyons-Mediterranean 6s were also unchanged, but the 7s of that company were a shade off.

High grade corporation bonds were generally firm, although rather inactive. Atchison general 4s equaled their best price of the year on moderate sales and Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul bonds continued active. A single block of 200,00 St. Louis Southwestern consolidated 4s went at 93, the same as yesterday's closing price. Slight losses were recorded for Chesapeake & Ohio convertible 4½s and 5s, Missouri-Kansas-Texas adjustment 5s, New York Central 3½s, and Northern Pacific refunding 6s.

Maximum Acceleration and no flooding

Wet gas is a mixture of atomized liquid gasoline globules and vapor. Wet gas floods certain cylinders at the expense of others. It chokes the power and gives a characteristic "drag" on quick acceleration.

Dry gas is a completely vaporized mixture of gasoline and air with no liquid globules. It is a perfect motor fuel. Dry gas equalizes cylinder distribution and gives maximum acceleration without flooding.

Texaco accelerates to the maximum without flooding, and this capacity for acceleration is an indication of its other qualities—its quicker start, improved mileage with a leaner carburetor setting, increased power for hill work, smoother engine operation, freedom from carbon and fouled spark plugs, and reduced crankcase dilution.

Carburetor adjustment is not essential—you will get better results in any event, but still better with the lean mixture that the new and better Texaco makes possible.

The new Texaco, due to its low boiling point and its better balanced distillation range, vaporizes completely at a lower temperature and goes into the cylinders as a dry gas—the same in every cylinder. The ability to form a dry gas in the manifold is its most distinguishing characteristic. Texaco vaporizes where other gasolines only atomize.

The new and better Texaco contains no added chemicals. It needs none. Its anti-knock quality is obtained without the addition of dopes or poison. Every Texaco pump provides it—and it is always uniform wherever you get it.

THE TEXAS COMPANY, U. S. A., Texaco Petroleum Products

The Misty Pathway

By FLORENCE RIDDELL

SYNOPSIS.

Richenda Peterson, a London office girl, wins five thousand pounds in a newspaper contest and decides to spend her fortune in travel. The east coast of Africa holds the greatest promise of adventure to her, and she books passage for Port Mombasa. When the boat stops at Gibraltar Richenda goes off by herself to inspect the old town. She is accosted by a native, who frightens her. Angus Brodie, one of her fellow passengers, rescues her from the man's unpleasant attentions.

Arrived at Mombasa, the first person Richenda sees is Brett Fairways, a noted explorer, whose face has haunted her dreams. She is introduced to Fairways by Lucille Davenant, a widow, who has deliberately sought the acquaintance of the girl.

INSTALLMENT XII.

A TRIANGULAR FRIENDSHIP.

Richenda's feet literally danced across the corridor and down the stairs to her own room. A really charming man! That could only be . . . Powers above, Destiny had her by the nose with a vengeance. East Africa, too, with its mystic allure, its quiet air pulsing with romance, had her in the hollow of its hand.

The east—the east—it changed her from the sedate typist of those past years into a star eyed, crimson lipped, soul thrilled little girl. She had never had romance yet. She wanted it—wanted it by that turquoise sea which swished singing through the mangroves up to the weed draped coral rocks along the shore—wanted it under the tremendous silver moon which shone down through the swaying palms. Something new sang in her blood—romance—the east.

She didn't know what it meant. She didn't know where it was leading her. She didn't want to know. The silver-bathed singing night allure of the east—it got into the soul of her.

"Bowled first time," she whispered. "Five thousand pounds! Five thousand . . . and she hunted for a cockroach, the blessed babe!"

Richenda took longer than usual over her toilet that night. She brushed her wavy hair to greater glossiness, powdered her burning cheeks till their damask showed more softly through the light film, then pinned a scarlet flower to the left shoulder of the plain, slim, satin dress, to match the bizarre lacquer red earrings which hung low below the bobbed side pieces which, in modern fashion, hid her ears.

One last look she gave into the mirror before she switched off the electric light. "I'll do," she said, "I'll do." Then with a giggle: "Now, Brett Fairways, we'll just see what part fate means you to play in my life. I'm not feeling the least little bit in love with the real you; it does not attract me so much as the dream you did. Heigho! Perhaps you are going to lead me to a diamond mine or something wonderful. Richenda Peterson, the African millionairess! Woo—oo, how lovely! Or perhaps——"

Her thoughts ran rioting in schoolgirl fashion along a fairy path of improbabilities. Then she shut the door and went sedately on her way to the reading room where she had arranged to meet Mrs. Davenant, her little head held high and the quaint red earrings bobbing against her slim neck as she walked.

Lucille was already awaiting her in a daring gown of royal blue taffeta. Ears, neck and wrist bore equipments of jade. The result was startling but rather wonderful. Suddenly Richenda, for all the bobbing lacquer pendants and the scarlet flower, felt a little ordinary. She tilted her chin a shade higher. Then a murmur, a smile, a bow. Richenda had met Brett Fairways.

She felt strangely ill at ease—a little gauche. She murmured a word, halted, and laughed rather self-consciously. She was glad when, a moment later, the dinner gong sang through the hall outside and they walked across to the dining room. But before the meal had ended all Richenda's discomfort had vanished. Perhaps the champagne helped. She didn't know. She only knew that Fairways had a charming smile and a joyous tongue. The combination did much to overcome her disappointment that his likeness to his photograph was not greater. Of course these society photographers always flattered their clients, touched up the weak points, hid the worst in a face, brought out the best. She had expected too much.

Nevertheless, he was the man of the photograph and he was very charming—very gay and debonair. Richenda had never met a man like this before.

But she realized also that he was very attentive to this blue clad, jade hung beauty who made the third apex of the triangle. Richenda wished suddenly that her own hair was of that same shimmering, flaxen. Dark girls were so common nowadays—fair ones so rare.

"And where do you mean to go in East Africa, Miss Peterson?" he was asking.

"I haven't the foggiest notion yet," laughed Richenda. "It's lovely to feel that one can move on just where and when and how one likes until—until——"

"O, until one's little bank balance goes phut and one has to get down to the trivial round again. You see"—a little rebelliously—"I'm out on holiday for just so long as the good time will last!

"I didn't mean to tell people about myself," she went on ingenuously, "but those dreadful newspapers: 'Richenda Peterson in a corner of her own sanctum,' 'Richenda Peterson, hat on,' 'Richenda Peterson, hat off,' 'roguish,' 'wistful,' and half a dozen other expressions and poses—why, how could I hope to escape recognition? So—people will have to accept me as I am—the girl who won the five thousand pound prize from the Daily Onlooker and has come out to Africa to 'blue' the lot!"

The next few days cemented still faster the friendship which had grown so rapidly between the three. Together they picnicked on the mainland, probing among the rock pools of the tide bared reef for quaint shells and vivid ocean foliage. When the sun fell low in the sky they bathed in the soft warm water, splashing and laughing like three mischievous children. Richenda noticed that Mrs. Davenant's complexion did not survive such immersions very well, but within fifteen minutes of re-attiring herself behind her separate bush the pink flush in the pearl white setting was back again—radiant and alluring as ever.

But Richenda's own lips and cheeks needed no attention. She came from the water more vivid and glowing than she had entered it, her dark, short curls more rebellious than before. She was glad that she had but little use for pots and tins of cream and powder—just a dab on a sunburned chin, or on a nose which might show a slight tendency to peel, and that was all.

They danced at several of the little clubs in Mombasa, too. Richenda liked Brett Fairways' quiet, slow steps, liked to feel his arm holding her lightly but firmly as he guided her among the gyrating crowd; but, best of all, she liked those times when they sat together in a secluded corner and the gay voice would tell her amusing experiences of his wanderings in wild lands.

At first Richenda had wondered what bond there might be between Brett Fairways and this woman. It seemed odd. There was apparently no prospect of marriage between them. Yet they had come out on the same boat. They were staying at the same hotel, were always together, and were obviously good friends. To each other they were frankly Lucille and Brett!

Of course she knew that nowadays the use of Christian names means nothing. Why, already Lucille had dubbed Richenda herself Dickie and Fairways had dropped the Peterson and called her Miss Richenda. Yes, Christian names meant nothing, and yet . . . and yet . . . Well, she had caught a more than one strange look journeying between those two pairs of eyes—she had seen Mrs. Davenant's fingers linger a fraction of a moment too long on his hand—she was sure she had . . . almost.

Talking Movies Win Acclaim in New York

Elman Plays, Anna Case Sings on Screen.

New York, Aug. 5.—[United News.]—Mischa Elman stood tonight a gigantic, two dimension Mischa Elman, who was in reality nothing more than light flickers streaked through celluloid and cast upon the screen of the Warner theater on this thirtieth anniversary of the birth of the movies.

But as the screen figure tucked his screen violin beneath the familiar fat jowls and set his screen bow in motion something happened which has hitherto been but an elusive dream of motion picture producers.

From the screen, from the violin itself, came the magic notes of "Humoresque," played as Mischa Elman had played it when he stood before the camera in Hollywood many months ago.

Such is the perfection of the new vitaphone, which is exhibited in New York for the first time this week in connection with the premier of John Barrymore's latest production, "Don Juan," that one forgets it is not the real violinist who stands there. Sound and motion are so synchronized that the movies are made real. Sound thus synchronized seems to give to the screen that third dimension no camera yet has been able to furnish.

Then Anna Case came out and sang, and one could see the little muscles in her gorgeous throat and the movement of her lips as one never would be able to follow them in real life, while the golden notes poured forth, filling the theater, loud and clear and as true as though Miss Case herself stood on the stage instead of her shadow self.

Will Hays was there and made a speech with gestures. He, of course, was as shadowy as the others, each modulation of his voice being at once audible and visible as his lips were pursed or opened.

Vitaphone is the highest perfection yet attained of what once was called "talking movies." The synchronization was a complete success, and only the faint scratching of the inevitable phonograph needle during the pauses marred the illusion.

After Giovanni Martinelli had added the lament of Pagliacci and the New York Philharmonic orchestra had shown to what limits the vitaphone can be extended, "Don Juan," with John Barrymore the sprightly lover, proved just a pretty good movie.

British Savant Calls Cemeteries, Libraries Big Problems of Day

BY JOHN STEELE.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, Aug. 5.—A warning of a coming world shortage of gasoline was uttered by Prof. J. F. Thrope, the noted English chemist, addressing the British association at Oxford today. The chemistry of petroleum has been too little explored, he said.

The variety of subjects taken up today ranged from eclipses, the origin of life, effects of sudden prosperity on the natives of Africa and the problems of inherited wealth, to the expansion of cemeteries and libraries.

Prof. Thrope attacked the world's lack of economy and wasteful methods of exploiting oil. He said the crudest methods of refining are employed because the conservation of the natural product is said to be unprofitable. Before the introduction of the gas engine, the "light fraction" of crude oil was destroyed, since no use had been found for it.

"Civilization is confronted with two big problems—increasing cemeteries and libraries," Prof. Thorpe continued. "The former no doubt could be solved by cremation. It is hoped the judicious application of the same method may be applied to our libraries. The 23,000 scientific periodicals alone published throughout the world offer the appalling prospects of making us wonder what civilization will become a hundred years hence."

Sir Josiah Stamp, the noted British economist, took up the cudgels for Great Britain's "idle rich," asserting they are not idle but that many voluntarily are working as magistrates and in other spheres of public life.

"There are fewer than 1,000 idle, unoccupied people in England drawing incomes of more than £10,000 [about $50,000] from their investments," Sir Josiah said. "I doubt whether the percentage of idle, unoccupied men living entirely on an investment income exceeds 10 per cent, and it may be as low as 5 per cent, or under 1,000."

Moody Bible Institute Graduates Class of 119

The Moody Bible institute held its graduating exercises last evening with 119 receiving the diploma of the institute. Henry P. Crowell, president of the institute board of trustees, presented the diplomas. The Rev. Oliver W. Van Osdel, pastor of the Wealthy Street Baptist church, Grand Rapids, Mich., gave the principal address on "The Meaning of the Cross."

Class day exercises were held at 10:30 and a dinner and reception at 5. More than 200 of the alumni from various parts of the world returned to take part in the events. The main auditorium seating 2,000 was filled at the evening exercises.

The Inquiring Reporter

Every Day He Asks Five Persons, Picked at Random, a Question.

The Tribune will pay $5 for each question accepted for the Inquiring Reporter to ask. Send name and address with your question to "The Inquiring Reporter," Chicago Tribune. For today's question Bernice Hartz, 1015 North California avenue, was awarded $5.

The Question.

The Answers.

Mrs. D. P. Wagner, 3036 Belmont avenue, secretary — I say no. I think it will cause people to take more liberties than mere spooning. It would be better to keep the atmosphere of the parks free from the thought and sight of spooning. The best place for that is in the home, with the folks being at least near by.

A. R. Morlock, 20 West Jackson boulevard, salesman — That is all right if kept within proper bounds. They will spoon in the parks anyhow. Young people without a home ought to have some place besides dance halls and cabarets where they can begin the road that ends in matrimony.

Miss Lillian Triesselmann, 3003 Belmon avenue, clerk—A public park is not the place for spooning, and there is no fun in it when other people are around. Just the same, right or wrong, I am for the young folks, and partly because some dads insist upon being in the same room at home with you and your company.

Homer Hunley, 228 East Huron street, medical student—Not so good. If couples have any respect for each other they will not spoon in public. The effect upon children who see spooning by their elders is not good. Perhaps they might set aside a portion of the park for this purpose.

Miss Jeanette Stitt, 7645 Sheridan road, clerk—That's a problem. It is probably all right if it can be properly supervised, but how can policemen properly supervise a thing like that? Anyhow, young people will show their affection towards each other, parks or no parks, rules or no rules.

Ravinia Adds "Lohengrin" to Its Successes

First German Opera of Season Draws Crowd.

BY EDWARD MOORE.

"Lohengrin," the first German opera of the season, drew what was close to the greatest audience of the season at Ravinia last night. A pleasant break in the temperature, the opera, and its cast all combined, and the pilgrims came from all directions.

With but one exception, the cast could be pretty well estimated as something to give this leisurely score its highest value. One could have predicted that Elisabeth Rethberg would show up with one of the loveliest voices of the age as Elsa, that Alice Gentle would be a statuesque beauty distilling malignity in every look and tone as Ortrud, that Edward Johnson's Lohengrin would be intense and elegant, that Louis D'Angelo's king and Desire Defrere's Herald would be safe and dignified and the predictions would have been justified.

The exception was a stranger, and he made good. He was Howard Preston, who took the part of Telramund at rather short notice, and did uncommonly well by it. His voice was firm and resonant, he had plenty of composure, and he looked the part. It was a success, and Mr. Preston deserved the acclaim that he had.

Take also that annoying young female, Elsa, helped out of a serious scrape by Lohengrin and then unable to keep her promise overnight. It took all Mme. Rethberg's beauty of voice and countenance to make the part sympathetic. She did it quite triumphantly, so hearty congratulations to her as well.

The way Miss Gentle started, it looked and sounded as though she would have added an important part to the proceedings. The Ravinia version of this opera, however, omits Ortrud's most striking scene, so there was little left except to hope to be present some time when Miss Gentle does a full length version.

There remains Mr. Johnson's Lohengrin. This was something to please the perfect Wagnerite and the casual opera goer. It had distinction in both voice and manner, fine voice, poise, and personality.

Consider also that Louis Hasselmans' conducting had the engaging qualities of temperance and intelligence, and it can be seen that the performance added up to another success.

Hamilton Club Holds Picnic on August 25

Plans for the annual picnic of the Hamilton club loom large in the activities of that organization. Aug. 25 has been designated as the date for the frolic, which will take the form of an old fashioned basket picnic, and will be staged at Wayside Grove, Dempster road and Lincoln avenue.

Frank J. Conrad, chairman of the picnic committee, announces that prizes donated for the winners of the numerous games, races and contests are valued at more than $1,000 and include jewelry, leather goods, electrical goods, gold, silver and bronze medals, and even an Oriental rug.

Features of the day, the committee has revealed, will run the gamut from a flappers' contest to hat trimming competitions, prize waltzing, a tug of war, athletic stunts, volley ball, and baseball games, a Charleston contest, and races for girls, boys and grown-ups.

Members of the committee in charge of arrangements are Peter Lambros, Alfred J. Thompson, Wallace Brown, Walter H. Damon, J. L. Barker, Harold Baum, W. G. Edens, W. V. Rudd, W. J. Bell, J. H. McNamara, W. Nevin Pomeroy, David H. Jackson, C. H. Gore, and W. E. Knoch.

Two Movie Actresses Are Recovering from Illnesses

Los Angeles, Cal., Aug. 5.—[Special.]—Mae Busch, moving picture actress, is recovering from a severe illness at Roosevelt hospital here, it was learned today. She has been in the hospital two weeks with peritonitis. She will be out of pictures for some months. May McAvoy, who recently suffered a physical breakdown, also is reported gradually mending, although under physican's daily care and instructions to remain home for two more months.

Winners Are Picked by Sally for Party at Majestic Theater

BY SALLY JOY BROWN.

More news for you, girls and boys, about our vaudeville party at the Majestic theater on next Thursday.

They tell me it is to be Children's Week and they have provided a program which will please every patron from the ages of six to sixty.

Dainty June Hovick, "the darling of vaudeville," and her Ten Newsboy Songsters, a singing and dancing specialty, will top the bill and others will include Gene Collins and his Sunburnt Revue, a sextet of colored singers, dancers and musicians; Al Bernivici, the clowning musician in an offering entitled, "The Life of the Party"; West, Gates and Kane, who announce themselves as "Dispensers of Hilarity," and combine comedy, songs and dances in their novel act; Billy Miller & Company in a comedy playlet; The Marimba Duo in musical selections from jazz to opera played on the saxophobia; Marvin and Davis and other interesting comedy features.

I've picked the winners, girls and boys, and I'll announce them in Sunday's paper. Look to see if you're among the lucky hundred. Here are two of the winning letters:

"Dear Sally: One, two, three and all set for the Majestic. I've heard so much of that great theater, that I'm waiting for a chance to go. It sure must be wonderful with acts of vaudeville, and then, to think they're having special acts for our party. I cannot imagine seeing dogs doing clown acts. And the slow motion acts! I have seen slow motion in the movies but never in vaudeville. I hope my letter will be among the lucky hundred and I'll be anxiously waiting to see if my name is in the Sunday Tribune.

"M. C."

"Dear Sally: I am writing to you in hopes of winning an invitation to the Majestic theater. I'm an ardent lover of music, and dramatics and dancing, and dearly love anything of that sort. The best time I ever had in my life was when my uncle took me to the theater. That was three years ago and I'll never forget the wonderful afternoon I enjoyed. I can still see the beautiful dancers as in a vision. And, Sally, I sincerely hope to be one of the lucky hundred. J. C. S."

Mosquito Haunts Hunted Among Woods of County

Investigation of mosquito breeding places along the Des Plaines river and Salt creek and inspection of all waters that pass through the forest preserves was ordered yesterday by Anton J. Cermak, president of the county board. This followed charges by Maj. Edwin M. Skinner, engineer for the Gorgas Memorial institute in Chicago, that mosquitoes here were due to pollution of rivers and creeks by sewerage.

Dr. H. L. Wright, head of the county health department, who will make the survey, criticized Maj. Skinner, who was brought to Chicago to eradicate the mosquito here, for his statement that waters in the forest preserve are a menace to public health.

"Maj. Skinner has a plan of draining Salt creek and the Des Plaines river by means of a narrow channel and he apparently seized an opportunity to create sentiment for his plan," Dr. Wright said.

Herbert Pulitzer and Mrs. Munn Amory Wed

[Copyright: 1926: By the New York Times.]

PARIS, Aug. 5.—The marriage of Herbert Pulitzer, youngest son of the late Joseph Pulitzer, New York publisher, and Mrs. Munn Amory took place here today. The ceremony was strictly private, witnesses being Mrs. Joseph Pulitzer, mother of the bridegroom, and the bride's two brothers, Hector and Gwinee Munn.

Locomotion of All Modes, Ages in I. C. Pageant

Even Boats on Lake to Be in Parade Tomorrow.

Just about everything known in transportation has been entered for the gala parade tomorrow afternoon in celebration of the electrification of the Illinois Central suburban service and the progress of transportational facilities in this country.

To the already long list of entries, including aircraft, railroad trains, and automobiles were added yesterday a fleet of boats comprising canoes, yawls, sloops and yachts, which will parade in Lake Michigan simultaneously with the line of march down Michigan boulevard.

Conveyances of a generation and more ago nearly managed to wreck the entire celebration, it was learned. Most of them require horses for motor power and the city was literally combed for horses during the last week to draw carriages, phaetons, landaus, coupes, hacks, and other vehicles of the long ago. For a while it seemed they were extinct. But presently horses began arriving in goodly numbers from here and there, and the "pageant of transportation," to be held in Sodiers' field under the direction of Miss Bertha Iles, is now assured.

Vehicles from almost every historical period have been lent to the pageant by individuals, historical societies, and business organizations. The proper livery for each of these is now worrying the committee on arrangements.

Miss Bayard Holmes Jr. is directing the rehearsals of the society group which will put on a skit during the pageant. Miss Olga Menn will ride in a jinrikisha drawn by a Chinese coolie and Miss Marion Gridley will make use of a travois and an Indian pony.

More than 100 south side business and civic organizations have selected queens to represent them in the parade from Washington park to Soldiers' field. Seventeen of these young women will meet tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock at 12 West Garfield boulevard to be judged for the title of "Miss Transportation." The winner will receive $500 in gold and be crowned queen of the pageant on the steps of the Field Museum.

10:50 a. m.—Special train under steam power will leave Randolph street to carry guests to Matteson where they will transfer for the official electrification special. The train also stops at 53d at 11:03 and at 63d street at 11:06 o'clock.

12:30 p. m.—Under the direction of Brig. Gen. Edward H. White an industrial and civic parade will start from 35th street and South Park way to Soldiers' field, passing in review before guests on the south steps of the Field museum.

1:20, p. m.—Arrival of the electrification special train at the 12th street station.

1:30 p. m.—Coronation of Miss Transportation.

3 p. m.—Pageant of progress at Soldiers' field.

HOW TO KEEP FROM GROWING OLD

Labor Saving Tricks Are Accountable for Many Flabby Muscles

by Gabriel Drew

The mechanical, labor saving devices of our modern civilization are affecting the quality of our children, according to Lillian C. Drew, writing recently in a physical education review.

Classes in corrective gymnasium is the need that has grown out of these modern conditions.

"Even the children are leading a sedentary life," she says. "They ride to school in automobiles and are released from the performance of many household chores by electrical contrivances in the home.

"As a result muscles are sagging and undeveloped and cannot do the work of supporting the body. Then follow fallen arches, flat feet, and poor posture."

It is not necessary to dispense with modern conveniences, but Miss Drew believes provision must be made to counteract their effect on health.

If this happens to the child, who, regardless of his escape from household chores and his being conducted to school by motor, does manage considerable play activity in his day—what of the adults who have little chance for physical effort for the same reasons?

They haven't the active play element to keep their muscles from slumping, their arches from falling, and their feet from flattening.

I know women who have a maid to do any work around the house that calls for physical effort and who would no more dream of walking ten blocks than they'd think of taking a walking trip to British Columbia. From one end of the year until the other they ride in their own motors, or they taxi. They are not the energetic, capable women of my acquaintance. In fact it might be stated as an axiom that lazy legged women are lazy minded ones, and given almost exclusively to recitals of ailments that are not imaginary, but real. You don't give them sympathy because you know right well whose and what the fault. If such women do not have to work or walk, they ought to play at something that would put the ageing muscles into action before it is too late.

BEAUTY ANSWERS

MRS. J. G.: ENLARGEMENT OF the thyroid gland, or goiter, as it is commonly called, may be treated electrically. An operation is not always necessary. It would be well to let your physician determine the form of treatment required, and it is advisable to consult him at once.

BILL G.: IT'S HARD TO REDUCE, at least to get started, but don't forget that "nobody loves a fat man." At age 39, five feet eleven, standard weight is 173 pounds. Do your own subtracting, and send along a stamped, addressed envelope for my reducing instructions.

TRIBUNE COOK BOOK

BY JANE EDDINGTON.

Pennsylvania Dutch Salad.

The garden cucumbers of this season in many cases are as good to eat out of hand as an apple. Especially those which are about double the size of the gherkins. They have a great deal more of individuality than the ordinary market cucumber and, besides being crisp and pleasant to bite, they have healthful qualities, despite some of the old ideas about them. We are fond of calling them a portable mineral spring, since they are ninety-five per cent pure mineral water.

We have several versions of the Pennsylvania Dutch salad and we like the one best which has only one tablespoon of vinegar. But a cook book version reads thus: "Thinly slice one large, green cucumber and one medium sized onion, if liked. Sprinkle over about one teaspoonful of salt. Allow to stand a short time, then place in a piece of cheesecloth and squeeze out all the moisture possible. Place cucumbers, when drained, in the dish in which they are to be served, add two tablespoons of sour vinegar. Mix well. Then pour over enough thick, sour cream to half cover them, and dust with pepper."

A friend, whose husband says her version of this salad is "better than ice cream," makes hers as follows: Peel and cut three cucumbers in the thinnest possible slices and cut one onion in the same way. Add salt enough to make, with a small quantity of water, a heavy brine, or a small handful of salt to a quart of water and a piece of ice. Let the slices of cucumber stand in this from half to three-quarters of an hour, then pour them into a collander and squeeze out the water with a potato masher. Put them into a serving dish, add a little pepper and a dash or two of vinegar, and cover them with a thick, sweet cream. Notice the "thick," but one "on the blink," or just turning, may be used.

A FRIEND IN NEED

BY SALLY JOY BROWN.

Let's Cheer Up These Tots.

"I am a kindergarten teacher, and quite a few of my little charges have never owned a doll or a toy of any kind. I wonder if any one has toys to give these children. Also, I'd like to get a ukulele for little orphan I know. V. S."

Would you like to play fairy godmother to these youngsters?

Kitten Wants a Home.

"I have a really charming kitten I would like to find a home for. He is pale cinnamon color and white, four months old, and well behaved. Children could have a glorious time with him. C. O. W."

This sounds like an attractive little animal and should make a nice pet. My correspondent tells me he'll even stand for doll clothes.

DORIS BLAKE ANSWERS

Try to Forget Him.

"Dear Miss Blake: I am 16 years of age. Am in love with a fellow 9 years my senior. Some time ago I offended him. Although I am young, it seems as though I can never forget him. I have written him since, but he does not answer. Please advise me. BROKENHEARTED."

There is nothing more you can do, dear. It looks as though he has forgotten you, and you'll soon forget him.

Likes Some One Else.

"My Dear Doris Blake: I am earnestly in love with a fellow and he seems to like me. He is very nice to me, but when he sees another girl chum of his he intentionally slights me. Please advise.

"WORRIED."

He wouldn't slight you if he liked you, Worried. He's found some one else to take your place, otherwise he'd be more considerate of you.

Follow Nature's Rule

By NORMA TALMADGE

Copyright, 1926, by P. G. Beauty Features

Foremost skin specialists urge this simple rule in skin care. Follow it for one week—note the improvement that comes

BECAUSE all the world seeks natural skin loveliness today, natural ways in skin care now have supplanted the artificial ways of yesterday.

Thousands of the pretty complexions you see and envy are due to the simple rule in skin care given here. It has brought clear complexions to more women than any other method known.

For your own sake, try it, if only for a week—just 10c for a cake of soothing Palmolive, used in this way:

THE RULE . . . AND HOW TO FOLLOW FOR BEST RESULTS

Wash your face gently with Palmolive Soap, massaging it softly into the skin. Rinse thoroughly, first with warm water, then with cold. If your skin is inclined to be dry, apply a touch of good cold cream—that is all.

Do this regularly, and particularly in the evening. Use powder and rouge if you wish. But never leave them on over night. They clog the pores, often enlarge them. Blackheads and disfigurements often follow. They must be washed away. Follow these rules day in and day out. Your skin will be soft and lovely —naturally colorful and clear.

BE SURE YOU GET THE REAL PALMOLIVE

Do not use ordinary soaps in the treatment given above. Do not use any green soap, or represented as a palm and olive oils, is the same as Palmolive.

Remember that before Palmolive came, women were told, "Do not use soap on your faces." Soaps that were judged too harsh. Palmolive is a beauty soap made for one purpose only: to safeguard your complexion. 60 years of soap study stand behind it. Millions of pretty skins prove its effectiveness beyond doubt.

It costs but 10c the cake—so little that millions let it do for their bodies what it does for their faces. Obtain Palmolive today. Note what one week of its use brings you. The Palmolive Company (Del. Corp.) Chicago, Illinois. (Advertisement)

Chicagoans Active in Summer Affairs of Western Resorts

The most distinguished guests at present in Colorado, Vice President and Mrs. Dawes, were guests at a large dinner given on Sunday evening by their hosts, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Humphreys. Several Denverites motored up to Wagon Wheel Gap, the Humphreys' ranch, for the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Karl E. Harriman of 1210 Astor street are to be guests at a reception and tea today, at which the Denver Woman's Press club will be hostess. The Harrimans are making their usual stay in Estes Park.

Mrs. Pauline Shaffer of Evanston, who, with her children, is passing the summer at Ken-Caryl ranch near Denver, gave a week-end house party there.

Mrs. Selim McArthur of 2644 Lake View avenue, is at Mackinac island for the summer, while Dr. McArthur commutes for week-ends. Mrs. McArthur's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Will Barnes of Decatur, are her guests for August.

Miss Margaret Dawes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus M. Dawes of Evanston, and Miss Eleanor Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard O. Miller of Evanston, who have been at the H-F Bar ranch in Wyoming for several weeks, are visiting Miss Elizabeth Roberts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Roberts of Omaha, Neb. The three young girls attended school together in Washington last year.

Miss Florence J. Notz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Notz of 521 Stratford place, and Miss Rosemary Gallery, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Gallery of 79 East Elm street, will be bridesmaids at the wedding of Miss Mary Eleanor McCahill, granddaughter of Patrick Rahilly of Lake City, Minn., to Charles Martin Denny Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Martin Denny of Minneapolis, which is to take place on Sept. 6 in Lake City.

Mrs. Henry W. Farnum and her brother, John B. Drake, will return today from a two months' stay abroad. Mrs. Drake and the Misses Katherine and Elizabeth Drake will remain in Paris until late September.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Waller Jr. of 191 East Walton place, have been in New York for a few days.

Miss Carrie Kuhnert will be chairman of a woman's invitation golf tournament to be held on Monday and Tuesday at Glen View. Luncheon parties will feature both days.

There will be a buffet supper and bridge this evening at the Country Club of Evanston. Supper will be served, beginning at 7:15 o'clock, and playing will begin an hour later.

Mrs. Elliott E. Stearns and children of Cleveland, O., are guests for a month of Mrs. Stearns' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Landon Hoyt of Winnetka.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Bush and daughters, Carol and Ruth, of 1538 North State parkway, have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Robinson of Kansas City, Mo. They spent a few days in Chicago before going on to Harbor Point, Mich., for the remainder of the season.

NEW YORK SOCIETY

New York, Aug. 5.—[Special.]—Count Giuseppe Della Gherardesca and his daughters, the Misses Charlotte M. and Claire H. Della Gherardesca, have arrived from Europe to pass a month with Mrs. Henry A. C. Taylor at Newport. The countess was Miss Harriet R. Taylor.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Conkling of Palm Beach are at the Waldorf-Astoria for a few days before going to Southampton for a short visit. Later they will go to Bretton Woods, N. H., where they will pass the remainder of the season.

Mrs. John F. Talmadge, who returned from Europe today, has gone to Bernardsville.

Bright Sayings of the Children

The Tribune will pay $5 for each childish saying printed. The story told must never have been printed in any magazine or paper. It is not possible to acknowledge or return unavailable contributions. Write on one side of the paper. Address bright sayings to Aunty Bee, The Tribune, Chicago.

Billy, four years old, was on the way to visit his grandmother, whom he had not seen for more than a year and he said, "I'll bet Gramma has grown so I won't know her." E. E. P.

A little baby brother came to Ruth's home and a week later twin boys arrived at her Aunt Emma's, several blocks distant.

Ruth ran over as soon as she heard about them. "I'se dot two bruvvers," bragged her little cousin, Marie.

"Well, the stork would have binged us two, too, but they dess ran short of boy babies las' week," said Ruth.

Aprons Leave the Kitchen for the Street

By Helene Geron

NEW YORK.—[Special Correspondence.]—Aprons are no longer plebeian affairs to be worn for the stirring of a cake or the exciting orgies of spring house cleaning. They have become the aristocrats of fashion, the darlings of the mode, and we wear them with our best frocks. It's a long cry, of course, from the utilitarian household affairs rightfully termed "aprons," but they have bridged the gap by all sorts of pretty devices and take upon themselves all manner of airs and graces and now sit in the parlor with the best company.

Often these aprons are laid in fine plaits and tied in the back as is the way of all well regulated aprons worthy of the name. Such is the case in the frock we have chosen here of georgette in navy blue, that great summer color standard. The round, rather high cut neckline is formed of a georgette band which wanders down the center front of the blouse, and from there girdles the blouse in front, leaving two loose ends to tie in back, apronwise. This band, which in the method of its application gives a well-defined jacket effect, is edged with red, always a smart companion with navy blue. The dress is made over a satin slip, soft, white, and shimmery.

An unusually smart dress, and if practicability is an issue it will meet many needs. This type looks summery and cool on sizzling days and may be worn well into the days of advancing fall.

Avoirdupois Race Now Is Chief Sport at Camp Algonquin

Forty miles northwest of Chicago where the placid waters of the Fox river slip past wooded hills and rolling acres, four hundred youngsters from the city's least pretentious neighborhoods are deep in the engrossing business of getting as strong and well as possible, with Camp Algonquin's help.

Just now they are at the height of their season, and with only a few more weeks to go, the most popular sport is the comparison of weight charts. And rivalry waxes warm.

One of the first experiences any child has at camp is the recording of his or her weight. Weekly thereafter, a "weigh day" is observed, and the child's gain in pounds is recorded on an individual chart, with a red dot.

One of the records of the season was established when an undernourished girl registered a gain of more than three pounds in one week. Virtually every child has gained about eight pounds in the last five weeks. But the season is not yet over.

Open Art Conference in Lake Geneva Today

The Middle West Fine Arts conference with twenty-five states represented among the attendants will open today at 2 o'clock a Conference Point, Lake Geneva, Wis., to continue until Sunday evening. H. Augustine Smith, professor of fine arts in the Boston University School of Religious Education, assisted by a staff, will be in charge. The opening address by Mr. Smith will be on the subject, "The Fine Arts in Religion for the Church and School."

Religious art in the home with advice on the purchase and hanging of pictures, the use of religious paintings in church services, the coördination of music pictures and color in worship are among the subjects discussed.

An art gallery has been provided with the loan of many costly pictures and students are guided in estimating art values. The use of pageantry, costuming and the drama will be explained.

WASHINGTON SOCIETY

Washington, D. C., Aug. 5.—[Special.]—The assistant secretary of state, J. Butler Wright, has returned to Washington from Nonquitt, Mass., where he established Mrs. Wright and their family in their cottage. Mrs. Wright was formerly Miss Harriet Southerland, elder daughter of Admiral W. H. H. Southerland, a great belle in Washington society before her marriage.

Mrs. Lyman B. Kendall and her daughter, Miss Jane Kendall, sailed today for Europe, to return in the late autumn to their new home recently completed in the neighborhood of the new Congressional Country club.

Mrs. Melville E. Ingalls arrived in Washington today by motor from Hot Springs, Va. She will spend some days at the Mayflower. Mrs. Ingalls' home here has been occupied as the Belgian embassy for several years.

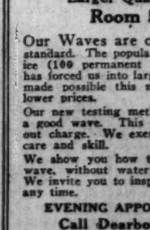

The American minister to Bolivia and Mrs. Jesse S. Cottrell, who have been visiting in Washington a short time, went to New York yesterday and sailed today for Mr. Cottrell's post of duty at La Paz.

The director of the veterans' bureau and Mrs. Frank T. Hines have returned to Washington from City View, Va., where they have spent several weeks with their daughter, Mrs. John Kennedy, who is in her cottage there for the summer.

Watch Your Breakfast
Start every day with food that "stands by" you
HOW you feel all morning depends largely on what you eat for breakfast. Thousands have unenergetic forenoons because of wrong breakfast eating.
To feel right, you must have well-balanced, complete breakfast ration. At most other meals—lunch and dinner—you get it. But breakfast is a hurried meal, often badly chosen.
Thus Quaker Oats, containing 16% protein, food's great tissue builder, 58% carbohydrate, its great energy element, plus all-important vitamines and the "bulk" that makes laxatives seldom needed, is the dietetic urge of the world today.
It is food that "stands by" you through the morning. It should start every breakfast in your home.
Get Quaker Oats today. Grocers have two kinds: Quick Quaker, which cooks in 3 to 5 minutes, and Quaker Oats.

Yes, She Liked the Beans.

My neighbor gave me a can of beans which were quite old. I therefore threw them away. Later when I was hanging up the clothes I heard my neighbor ask my little boy if I liked the beans, to which he replied, "Oh, I dess not she jus' frew them in the garbage tan." Imagine my embarrassment! F. R.

A Great Golfer.

An acquaintance of mine arrived unexpectedly one Sunday and insisted upon being taken out to the golf grounds of our small town. I wasn't anxious to do this as she was a bit loud in dress and speech. But, as she was also a persistent person, we went.

Her golf togs were the last cry in every way and she took great pains to use the terms of the game loudly in order to impress the interested players. Also, she criticized our sporty ccurse and giggled gaily because we made our own tees instead of using the ready-made ones.

"O, yes, I'm rather good at golf," she confessed.

We were strolling in a distant part when we met a man hunting for his ball. She good naturedly helped search and, coming upon it, lifted it up in both hands and, with a clear and loud "Allí-oop," actually threw it to him some dozen yards.

Yes, she knew all about the game.

The player managed to thank her without profanity as he dazedly looked for the place where his ball had lain.

Thousands Turn to McCoy's Great Tonic and Flesh Builder
Full of Weight Producing Vitamins That Help Weak, Sick, Underweight Men and Women and Children
Every underweight man or woman who wants to take on flesh and have a graceful, well proportioned figure should take McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets for 30 days.
They put flesh where flesh is needed—hollow cheeks, neck and chest—and make a man and woman, skinny and scrawny, have thanked McCoy's after a few weeks treatment for the improvement in their looks and figure.
In many cases the improvement is astonishing—one thin woman gained 10 pounds in 25 days.
Sometimes people who have been allergic for years find in McCoy's just the tonic upbuilding agent needed. Take the case of E. Snuell of Dumas, Arkansas, for instance—but better read his letter; it will interest you:
"Dear Sirs: About 6 years ago I became ill, suffering with what I called indigestion. Nothing that I would eat would properly digest. I was in a critical condition. I soon began losing in weight—my standard weight was 140 lbs., and my weight was reduced to 127 lbs. Nothing that I took would do me any good, so I had almost lost all hope until a few days ago I saw your McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Tablets advertised in the Arkansas Gazette, so I ordered one box. I then weighed 127—now after two weeks I weigh 137, a gain of 10 pounds—your tablets are wonderful."
You can buy a box of McCoy's at any druggist anywhere—60 tablets 60 cents and start to put on weight, build up your health and improve your looks right away.
If you aren't joyfully satisfied with results after 30 days get your money back. Ask for McCoy's.

INVITE PUBLIC TO MEET GUARD IN CAMP GRANT

Rockford, Ill., Aug. 5.—[Special.]—Maj. Gen. Milton J. Foreman, commanding the 33d division, feels Illinoisans ought to become better acquainted with the National Guard. To help bring that condition about the general today invited the public to visit the division at Camp Grant next Sunday.

"Seeing the soldiers of the 33d and attached troops in field training cannot help but make the people of this state proud," Gen. Foreman said in his informal invitation issued through the press.

Public attention is called to the excursion trains to be run to the camp Sunday from Chicago, Aurora, and other cities, and also that the automobile roads are in excellent condition. There will be plenty of parking space at the cantonment.

Foreman Soon to Retire.

Officers and men have completed the preparations for Sunday's big program, but in no way have neglected each day's training schedule.

Gen. Foreman's long service in the National Guard is to end soon, as provided by the age limit rule, and speculation is being indulged in concerning the makeup of the staff of his successor. Complete reorganization is looked for with the general's retirement, as it is indicated resignations will be handed in by most of the officers now on the divisional staff.

Officers Who May Retire.

Among those whose resignations are regarded as probable are:

Capt. John R. Kimbark, aide-de-camp; Capt. James U. Sammis, Jr., aide-de-camp; First Lieut. George B. Cooke, aide-de-camp; Lieut. Col. Lawrence V. Regan, personnel officer; Lieut. Col. Knowlton S. Ames, military intelligence; Lieut. Col. Leroy E Nelson, plans and training officer; Lieut. Col. Harry H. Hill, supply officer; Lieut. Col. Harold D Squires, division adjutant; Maj Charles C. Dawes, assistant adjutant; Lieut. Col. Roy D. Keehn, assistant chief of staff; Maj. Samuel Insull, Jr., assistant adjutant; Lieut. Col. V. C. Ward, division quartermaster; Capt. William T. Delihant, assistant quartermaster; Capt Richard Smykal, assistant quartermaster. A number of these officers served with Gen. Foreman in France.

POLICEMAN WOUNDS SUSPECT.

Leon Hicks, 14, of 5131 Federal street colored, was shot in the right leg by Policeman M. Goldstein who captured him and a companion while attempting to enter a store at 650 East Forty-seventh street.

20,000 PYTHIANS TO ATTEND 134TH CONVENTION HERE

Twenty thousand Knights of Pythias and their associates, the Sisters of Pythias, are expected to attend the 134th supreme convention of the order, to be held here from Aug. 8 to 17. A reception Sunday at the Edgewater Beach hotel will open the conclave.

A city in which to establish the permanent headquarters of the organization will be chosen at the meeting. It is probable, officials of the order say, that Chicago will be selected and will get the $1,000,000 building proposed for the central establishment.

One of the features of the convention will be a trip to Mooseheart, Ill., on Aug. 13, when the knights will be entertained by the Loyal Order of Moose. Mayor Dever and United States Senator Deneen, a member of the order, will address the convention. James E. Dertinger of Bushnell, Ill., grand chancellor of the Illinois branch, also will be a speaker.

PART TIME WORKERS.

We want men who are employed during the day to join us and learn our methods of doing business. We have helped a lot of men better their conditions, and in many instances given them more for their spare hours than they have received at their regular occupation. We do not expect you to carry on our work without proper instructions, and for that purpose we have retained the services of some of Chicago's best instructors.

We invite you and your friends to come up Friday evening, Aug. 6, at 7:30 p. m., and listen to one of Chicago's well known speakers outline the work to you. Also you will be afforded the chance to meet and talk with other men who have joined us some time ago, just as we are inviting you now, and hear directly from them how they made good and what your chances are with us.

Our work is building and selling homes on easy terms. Also the selling of wonderful home sites on very easy terms.

We will teach you what you must know to make good with us, and will send you with an experienced man to see how the work is done.

Your willingness to work is all we ask. We will do the rest.

WHY PAY RENT?
FOR LOVERS
of reasonably priced beautiful co-operative apartment homes we have developed a building of four and five rooms, such as you would expect to find only along the Lake Shore-dr. at $5,000 to $8,000 more than our prices.
There are four and five rooms having large canvassed living rooms and big paneled dining rooms with Spanish bracket lights. One and two bedrooms, bright kitchens with built-in cupboards, large Universal gas ranges, and genuine porcelain enameled refrigerators.
A glistening white tile bathroom with showers, pedestal lavatory, built-in bathtubs. Excellent closet space; also cedar lined chest closets and other ultra-modern features.
The construction throughout the building, the halls, lobbies, etc., is the very best. Storage space and modern laundry facilities in the basement. The very latest Kewanee heating plant.
Can you imagine all this, in the best section of beautiful Rogers Park, two blocks from the lake, with cash payments as low as $1,000 and monthly assessments as low as $47.50?
We have representatives there all day to answer your questions, but they will not urge you to buy. The apartments are at 1522-28 Fargo-av., one block from the Jarvis-av. L station and the Sheridan-rd. busses.
We sell to discriminating people only and invite your thorough investigation.

CO-OPERATIVE APT.
More practical and comfortable than a house, cheaper, lower upkeep, and a more desirable location. It will increase in value more rapidly than a house, because building locations are limited in the Lincoln Park district, where most of these co-operative bldgs. are located.
We now have a 4 rm. apt., near the lake, east of Broadway, large, light rms., in-a-dor bed, which provides an extra sleeping room.
An investment of $3,600 and $36.21 per month for all operating cost gives you a permanent home in the most desirable neighborhood in the city.
Why have Chicago families who formerly paid rent bought $100,000,000 of co-operative apts.? Our co-operative owners are 100% satisfied and none has sold his apt. except at a profit. Terms if desired. For further information see

JORDAN
Open Cars in August at February Prices.

We have a number of Jordan open cars, all body types and year models, that have been traded in on new Jordan Line 8 automobiles. These cars have been received from the original owners, and consequently are in very good condition. If they are not sold immediately it means that in order to dispose of them the prices will have to be reduced next spring. We are willing to make that sacrifice NOW, the entire benefit going to you, as there is still the best three months of touring car weather before us. Some of these cars are equipped with close fitting winter sides and heaters, giving the purchaser both open and closed car comfort at open car prices.

We have a very attractive deferred payment plan that any one can afford. Call and inquire about it and we will be pleased to show and demonstrate these cars to you. This will necessitate immediate action on your part, because the best cars, of course, will be sold first.

CADILLAC
Cool Evenings and Reconditioned Cadillacs

Along the lake front—out in the deep shadows of the forest preserve—it isn't hot in the evenings. There is always a cool breeze stirring somewhere. And with a car you can find it.

Reconditioned V-63 Cadillacs will take you and your friends and family anywhere any time in comfort. The quiet engine, efficiently cooled, will not heat the interior of the body of the car. The easy steering makes driving a pleasure, not a task.

Then, too, in every reconditioned V-63 Cadillac you secure almost new car reliability. Every part of the chassis has been tested and inspected by our own mechanics. They have made these chasses right.

We are so confident that this mechanical work, the new finish (Duco), and the cleaning has been well done, that we back these reconditioned V-63's with the new car warranty. And we equip hem with new tires.

REBUILT
GUARANTEED

Because of the implicit confidence we have in our used cars, we allow five days' driving trial. This is in accordance with Studebaker's National Used Car Pledge, which is on display in our showrooms and signed by the President of this organization.

FAMOUS STUDEBAKER SPECIAL 6 CLUB COUPE, like new, only $485. This popular 4 passenger coupe has been in storage over a year and if it were purchased at that time the price would have been approximately $1,000. Today the finish is beautiful, with not a blemish on either the body or fenders. An expert mechanic will say that the motor is in the finest of condition, as it has been thoroughly gone over in our shop. The upholstery and inside appointments look new. Has all essential extras and very good tires.

STUDEBAKER SEDAN—We have just taken in a Studebaker Special Six Sedan which was the personal car of a prominent loop banker. The car was chauffeur driven and maintained, and looks like new. There is not even a mar or scratch on the body or fenders. The Chase mohair upholstery has been protected by seat covers and looks unused. The motor has been completely rebuilt and runs like the day it was first purchased. In fact, every little detail about the car will appeal to the most discriminating buyer. Originally cost over $2,400 without its special equipment. Will sell for $950.

STUDEBAKER SEDAN, 5 passenger light six; about 18 months ago this car sold for over $1,700. It is today better mechanically and better looking than many new cars selling at over $1,000. Its finish is beautiful and shows that the car has been given exceptionally good care; no mars or scratches on the car anywhere. Its Chase mohair upholstery and general coach work looks brand new. The equipment includes a large heater, extra tire, bumpers, front and rear; large size motometer, etc. Reduced to $685.

STUDEBAKER SPECIAL 6 TOURING. Late 1924 model relacquered and overhauled. Without a doubt the cleanest and most attractive touring car in our entire stock. From the standpoint of both appearance and performance, it could not be improved upon. Equipped with every essential; extra and very good tires. Bargain at $545.
